A Clincher.

Several individuals were discussing the merits of temperance and anti-temperance, in this city, not long since, among whom were two Irishmen. One of them was an unscrupulous advocate for the "liberty" to get drunk, and make himself and those around him miserable. The discussion was animated, and when the other Irishmen got a chance he said—"Now, friends, I'll tell you a little story. Once the divil offered a gentleman a large sum of money, if he would commit one of three crimes, and might have his choice—to get drunk, commit adultery, or murder. An' faith he chose to chose to get drunk, just what the divil wanted him to, for after he got drunk, he committed the other crimes without the asking." This was a perfect clincher, and the discussion ended.

THE GERMAN WASHING FLUID

DOES away entirely with that laborious task of rubbing the clothes upon the washboard. It contains no ingredient whatever injurious to the finest fabric or the flesh. The proprietors wish every one to give it a trial, and if it does not prove to be as recommended, the money in every such case, will be refunded. Full directions accompany each bottle. Retail price 12½ Cents per Bottle, sufficient to do two ordinary washings, and saving the clothes more by not rubbing them, than the cost of six bottles—besides removing stains of fruit, &c., if there be any, and the time and labor saved.

Prepared only by I. P. HOYT & CO., Philadelphia.
