LEWISBURG CHRONICI

H. C. HICKOK, Editor. O. N. WORDEN, Printer.

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1851.

Volume VIII., Number 34. Whole Number --- 398.

Union county, Pennsylvanic

some leading journals, in the Atlantic citpondents, in reference to Kossuth and the infamous cause they have prostituted them-

Mass for the Hungarians

WHO FELL IN THE LATE CLUPPINGS ATHE MELT WITH ACCTUA.

the mast that a net should red;

a the brave who have full n in Liberty's pars,

Through the shoulders in its of his second;

a the brave who have full n in Liberty's pars,

Through the shoulders in its of his second;

the Washington Emmir, a relieve or brave,

or brows were with the sets a similar to tack,

if there tread up extra labours as yellow a history in the current breath of the air.

II.

111.
The target that I sha ye that terrible mass The trees the first of the second resident of the first o

The first person was sent the Herces of old the We transpore in serve on the tis.

That for Farcion cour election between mirrilled—
For Free commission did yet.

Yes real, Berres, real, they are the transport for the battleff of mirrours your force;

Oh, yet shall year in mirrille are the transport for an own between the mirrours.

Where the Tyrant would bery is y mirrille over the transport for the Tyrant would bery in rimma.

A Cem.

Count that day a st, whose low returning sun Free to good deed of Kindness dene."

He intended, after completing a full course that time, was read to him. He was in captivating in the contemplation of the LEWISBURG CHRONICLE details. His aspirations at this time were lect the richest productions. An amanu- literary labors, uninterrupted leisure was ment still remained confined in the bar- neat apartment, plainly furnished, and Issued on Wednesday mornings at Lewisburg. his object. His spirit, too, was stirred in his society. His conversations glowed riod, that he may pour out the treasures of directed the three soldiers to be brought arms. TERMS—31:30 pr year, for each setally in advances, is a strailly in advances, in the Legislature of Massachusetts was of-slarge numbers. Subscriptions for rik mounts or less, to him by the dominant party. He paid in darance. Blacks' subscriptions for rik mounts or less, to him by the dominant party. He paid in darance. Blacks' subscriptions for rik mounts or less, to him by the dominant party. He should unumer of the ripest books enough written, such as they are; had already attracted the attention of political and learned men in various parts of the gravest matters affecting the doctors much so released to be scholarship. His judgment seemed to be could confide, led them into his present in the ferent i when handed in or delivered.

Cancer arrows solicid on all subjects of general interest in this that can range of party or setation each state of the writer, to receive attention appeals to all the set of the writer, to receive attention appeals to all the set of the writer to the The sentiment of the following lines society, left everybody impressed with the State. interwoven with the choicest wild flowers. unrestrained admiration. It was but an impromptu expression of When Mr. Woodbridge took the pulpit, licious waffles, stamped with the arms of touchingly of her heroic husband. fortune. He became the object of adula- and in Dr. John Mason's pulpit, of New me; it is a good habit that I owe to my character; you will second my project your name secret," added the hunter.

on which Gen. Taylor was born.) His of the most learned and eminent scholars Woodbridge will favor the world with The Emperor's orders were precise and "All passed as Joachim had arranged it. father saved my life." mother, (a daughter of President Jonathan of the church had gathered. It began some account of his pastorate. Edwards, of Northampton,) was a woman under such auspices as made it evident that The motives of his resignation of the but for the immediate execution of the ment; but there was no blood spilled, and Murat. of England, in connection with Sergeant, already at that time resorted to a habit ministry, he was thoroughly resolved that The vehemence of his words, his impetuand gifted with the most brilliant genius. Every intellectual man in that institution the control of the contro and eminence in public life. The sunny True, loyal, generous, kind, genial, spirited Spencertown, which he leaves partly on he had received his orders; he repressed much affected, kept silence. Every eye In the midst of his academic studies, and His progress was extraordinary, in every nor the church could expect to flourish so great, as you can imagine. The regiment, the back-ground. Murat and Vesuvius! wealth, my life, all are his." we believe while he was at Williams' Col- department of human learning. Nothing long as they were so insensible to their confined in the barracks, sent several two volcanoes, face to face. lege, he was taken with inflammation of seemed to be foreign to his studies. His duty in supporting their clergymen. Be-deputations to Murat to implore his clembrace, sale to rate.

The conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of this narrative was robin to make the conclusion of the his eyes, which finally resulted in the en- mind grasped everything which came sides, Dr. Woodbridge wishes, in the step tre loss of his sight. This great misfortune, as he at the seemed absolutely miraculous, he seized several volumes of writings which will the eyes of the Emperor. Muras was for a rial family. It is like the remarked described in the degree related in the degree related in the eyes of the Emperor. Muras was for a rial family. It is like the remarked described in the eyes of the Emperor. time regarded it, in no degree subdued upon every sentiment and fact worth prehim; but he determined, at once, to build serving, and it became his own for ever. He perience. Very few men have lived whose at last he seemed touched by their sub-is vastly more to our liking than the mise- profoundest feeling of astonishment; for He was licensed to preach after his regrable torgism—for it is nothing better— no blind man had never been known to ular course of study was finished, although abandon the pulpit, but preach occasional had fallen in battle with the Austrians; dence that has characterized the recent course of display these attributes. The loss of his be continued his studies sometime after-discourses when he is invited from time to but to die thus, unfortunate men! Go! "He has dwelt a long while in this vited to a dinner at the Exchange Hotel, in sight, everybody saw at once would be ward, as though he were not in his own time; for it would be unpleasant for us I will send you a priest to afford you country, and, God be praised! he does not honor of the occasion. On Wednesday, ies, and their anonymous foreign corrested into a new and unexpected judgment yet qualified for the exhausting to think repent it. This farm belongs to him. We then, about six o'clock, about seventy genmeans of eminence, rather than a cause of toils of body and intellect which the faithand who has for so long a period, and with upon France and your God; from this live comfortably and respectably, and have Republicans of Europe. It is highly prob- depression and obscurity. He was on one ful and energetic pastor finds he must so so much dignity and splendor filled the moment you belong no more to this world.' no cause to complain of our fortune." able, however, that many of them have occasion (and we might specify several) unceasingly encounter in the pastoral pulpit, should utterly give up preaching. been subsidized by the despots to whose appointed to deliver, before a large assem- office. Fixing an exalted standard for all White Man's Newspaper. bly that gathered in the Western part of his public performances, he found he could selves, and therefore their own baseness is the State, on the 4th of July, an Oration, not, with much satisfaction to himself, the only matter of surprise. - Ep. Chron. It was estimated that ten thousand persons write more than one sermon a week; but were present, and the young orator stood these discourses were listened to by the on a cliff which beetles over the beautiful most cultivated congregations, and often valley of the Housatonic, and is known as by men distinguished for science and pano, at Florence, as soon as the piano "No, we wish to die,' replied one of The proprietor of the farm made a mil-Hyacinthe, Mr. George Brooks of Shera peak of the mountain that Bryant has learning, with the deepest astonishment, ceased to accompany the airs of Bellini, the soldiers; 'we have deserved death; itary salutation, and stammered out a few brooke, Mr. Farewell of Shipton, Mr. immertalized in one of his most glorious and the greatest enthusiasm. Many and that is to say, generally about midnight, let them shoot us; it is just." no most glorious and the greatest enthusiasm. Many an- that is to say, generally about midnight, let she should be say, generally about midnight, let she should be sh eirculated throughout this country. It learned from Dr. Channing, Dr. Griffin, draw together in a circle, and relate tales shot? cried Joachim, 'wherefore would him, and he was so agitated that he could moval of the cloth, the Chairman rose and even attracted the attention of Europe, and Lyman Beecher, Dr. Gallaudet of Hartford, and adventures until morning. There was you die, when I would have you live? I not reply to his questions. At last he proposed the health of Her Majesty the was regarded as one of the most brilliant President Kirkland. Edward Everett, an inexpressible charm in these remains. have never given the word to fire, except ventured, with difficulty, to address him. and powerful efforts ever made by a boy Orville Dewey, Dr. John Mason, Elisha The saloon was still in disorder from the at the enemy, and I can not bear to give it "Monsieur," he said, "you will find enthusiasm, as was that of Prince Albert of his age. Catharine Sedgwick, then a Williams, John Quincy Adams, and in a south the content bear to give the state of the music was a state of the music was stated disappeared. The music was stated disappeared. The music was stated disappeared. The music was stated disappeared to inquire your name. Excuse though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that the content of the music was stated of the most intellectual and eminent men and enline the same was that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost indiscrect perhaps, but I am a gainst those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and enline the same that of Prince Albert against those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and the line of the concert, but the dancers or the gainst those who are my brothers, almost though guilty.'

"And Josephin wept like a woman—and the line of the concert, but the dancers or the gainst those who are my brothers, almost those who are my request indiscrete perhaps, but I am against those who are my brothers, almost those who are my request indiscrete perhaps, but I am a the enemy, and the Royal Family, which followed.

"The Gov as he descended from the cliff, by throwing heard speak of their early friend and asso- four vacant armchairs; to so much joyous Messieurs?" over his brow a beautiful laurel wreath, ciate, the Blind Preacher, with the most bustle, succeeded a quiet, familiar conver-quence of his penius. It was not long of the church. Nearly all his discourses cook of Madame Dubarry. No one the't tive: before he coused to be an object of com- were preached in large cities. He was of sleep during these delightful morning "Listen to me!" said Joachim, in a demand yours." tating his mind, another subject took one who heard him ever after forgot the gleam of the dawn upon the black colorade fall, you will be led out of the Pisan gate, Gerald." religious bias, and he began to think sober- of his age who, in his judgment, was so to us charming narratives, with that half you will fall dead; at this moment the need blush for the name he bore in France. A few Sundays ago. Rev. Dr. Timothy by of changing his pursuit. After long well qualified to accept and fill so responsi- French, half Italian grace, which never last file of of your regiment will pass across There are reasons which -in the history of the American church, who has be been able to do so at any period of devote the entire day until late at night to One night the circle was closely grouped find a change of clothing wherewith to dishe has from boyheed been wile rily de for one that had few worldly attractions; pass the summer; but his solitude was tiful face was evidently agitated by some in an inn, which will be pointed out to The Prince, at that time a citizen of the dence, proved to be the main cause of his be the Christian ministry. After his res- acceptance to the congregation as to re- common mutiny. The Emperor appeared Go; I will take care of your families." Mr. Woodbridge was born in Stockbridge, Andover, Mass., which had then been re- the next thirty years is a volume of in- ple, and Joachim was charged with the Mass., November 20, 1784, (the same day cently established, and around which some conceivable interest, and we hope that Dr. duty of punishing the refractory regiment. them.

what some would have considered his ruin. He began the study of law with his brother, an able counsellor in Stockhridge, who this received above the counsellor in Stockhridge who the counsellor in Stockhridge very high. He aimed at a lofty eminence, ensis was never wanting, for it was a necessary, and we trust his life will be racks. and he thought he was sure of effecting pleasure and a profit for everybody to be prolonged yet for a very considerable pe- "In the middle of the night, Joachim graphs, representing our principal deeds of with political ambition, and an election to with the intellectual splender of the ripest his intellect through the press. There are before him; a sergeant, in whose prudence ners, and even the intentions of those with He was often the guest of President Kirk- crossed the borders of Berkshire county mothers. Your families did not merit you." whom he had intercourse, as well as the land, of Harvard University, and of the and went to Austerlitz. He has always children such as you. Have you thought extreme case with which he moved in most intellectual and scholarly men of that lived in a style of generous hospitality, of your mothers? Speak!' Sobs stifled and we doubt not his resources have been their voices. 'Those poor women would

JOACHIM MURAT.

FROM THE PRENCH OF MERY, BY MRS. ST. SINON.

At the mansion of the Comtesse de Li- forth like honest men?'

was long the County Clerk of that district. from the Latin and Greek fathers down to belong to the paster of Salisbury Plain, and lives for the crime of the regiment. The house, to seek shelter from the violent lives for the crime of the regiment. are intended, after completing a full course that time, was read to him. He was in captivating in the contemplation of the of legal studies, to enter upon the practice of his profession, and had exceeded. The habit, from the beginning, of pouring calm, beautiful life of the scholar and of his profession, and had exceeded. of his profession, and had arranged all its out from the rich storehouse of his intel- Christian clergyman. To perform these nounced for the following day. The regi- stranger was led by an aged woman into a purpose.

chim's feet, not to ask for mercy, but for entered the apartment. his pardon, before death. As they were "This gentleman," said the mother, and Mr. J. Findlay at the foot of the table.

almost entirely hung with Parisian litho-

"It appears," said the stranger, in the readers, that when the Measrs. Blacks'

"Is your son a Frenchman also?" " Yes, sir."

This reply was uttered with some hesileaving the spartment, Joachim recalled "has done us the honor to repose, for a Among the guests we remarked Dr. Bouthem. 'Listen!' he said: 'If I should while, beneath our roof, until the storm tillier, M.P.P. for the County, Mr. Lagrant you your lives, would you live hence- has passed over; he is a fellow-countryman, framboise, (Seignior of St. Pyacinthe,) Mr. he is a Frenchman."

words of civility. The face of the stran- Pomroy of Compton, and other gentlemen is the only question I can not answer. It given by the Chairman, and received with sation; coffee was served together with de- of the Comtesse de Lipano, who spoke so giving you a name, but I prefer to be si- James Black, (son of Mr. John and brother lent. A man who bears my name knows of Mr. Wm. H. Black,) having been called unbilden admiration, stirred by the ele- he labored chiefly on the broad summits the Queen, and prepared by the former After a pause she continued her narra- not how to lie. Now that I have refused upon, responded to this toast. He said:

aralloled results. No On leaving the palace, we often saw the by your regiment. To-morrow, near night. I am known here by the name of Claude son of

" I recognize him in your narrative-

From the Montreal Herald, Oct 29, 1861. PRESENTATION DINNER, GIVEN BY THE SUB-CONTRACTORS ON THE ST. LAWRENCE & AT-LANTIC RAIL ROAD, TO MESSES JOHN & WE. HATES BLACE.

It is doubtless known to many of our elegant service of silver plate to Mr. Black, senior, and of a gold snuff box to his son. Mr. William H. Black. It was further determined that they should be presented to the Messra Blacks' at St. Hyacinthe,on Wednesday last, where they had been inplied board-Mr. William Brooks, of Sher-"The soldiers cast themselves at Joa- At this moment the master of the house brooke, in the Chair, supported on the right and left by the guests of the evening. Chency of Sherbrooke, Mr. Barnes of St.

to tell you my name, I dare not venture to "Mr. Chairman, and Gentlemen-On behalf of the American gentlemen present passion. He was no longer by those who invited to preach, and did so, in Dr. Chan. soirces. The Comtesse de Lipano used to milder tone. 'You are great culprits, but The master of the house did not reply.'

The master of the house did not reply. This evening, I thank you for the compliknew him, pitied or consoled for his mis- nig's church, and the Old South of Boston, say, "Three hours of sleep are enough for I am glad to find that you have energy of "It seems that you, also, wish to keep ment you have paid us, by the hearty tion and of envy, and the future seemed York, and in some others. Whenever it brother the emperor." And the guests well. I grant you your lives, but it is "Yes, sir; that which I bear in this tien and of envy, and the future seemed York, and in some others. Whenever it took pride in conforming to a habit which I bear in this took pride in conforming to a habit which it? Wes, sir; that which I bear in this though I might, without fear of disputation use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this though I might, without fear of disputation use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country is not my true name; why should use the expectation.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which I bear in this country.

"Yes, sir; that which must become palsied ere it refuse to thank possession of it. It was the great subject discourse or the man. John Mason re- of the offices, and upon the glacis; you will receive the fire "At least," said the mother, "this you for the unexpected compliment you of Christianity. His feelings assumed a marked that he had never known a preacher Spirito. The Constesse frequently related of a platoon, at twenty paces distant, and gentleman must not imagine that my son very much regret, however, that the duty I have undertaken, has not fallen upon Woodbridge, the distinguished Congrega- deliberation, and many a struggle, he de- ble a position as young Woodbridge. He forsook her. The illustrious dame had the place of execution; the obscurity of tional clergyman of Columbia county, N. termined to prepare for the ministry. It was pressed to settle in one of the large witnessed so many festi-Y., announced to his congregation his in- was with great difficulty that he came to cities; but being somewhat exhausted by vals, so many misfortunes, that she never man, of whose fidelity I am assured, deserve to hear it, and from this moment tention of resigning his pistoral charge on this conclusion, for he could not easily constant labor from Sabbath to Sabbath to Sabbath to Sabbath was at a loss when she deigned to furnish will place you upon a tumbrel, and trans- I think you worthy of the favor. I am tention of resigning his pistoral charge on this conclusion, for he could not easily constant labor from Sabbath to Sabbath was at a loss when she degreed to luring when among strangers, to beat warmly for the following Sunday. There is no man change his well considered purposes, nor for a year or two, and being compelled to her contingent to this traffic in aneedotes. the scale of nations that land may be, has has occupied even a similar position; for, his life, except under the influence of the society, he felt that it was necessary for about her arm-chair; the noble dame had guise yourselves as sailors, and a thousand. Claude Gerald and his mother both fell been justly despised. Few there are with his enormous intellectual and pasto- strongest convictions of duty. He knew him to suspend for a season these great promised us something new, and her voice frances will be counted out to each of you; with his enormous intellectual and pasto-strongest convictions of duty. He knew him to suspend for a season these great promised us something new, and her voice francs will be counted out to each of you; with their faces to the carriage of duty. He knew him to suspend for a season these great promised us something new, and her voice francs will be counted out to each of you; with their faces to the carriage of duty. He knew him to suspend for a season these great promised us something new, and her voice francs will be counted out to each of you; with their faces to the carriage of duty. He knew him to suspend for a season these great promised us something new, and her voice francs will be counted out to each of you; with their faces to the carriage of the land of he has from beylood been witerly de for one that had few worldly attractions; pass the summer; but his solitude was tiful face was evidently agitated by some in an inn, which will be pointed out to my birth, upon this occasion. American United States, seeing them weep, could believe, are usually not considered very gazed upon a human countenance, a flower, his judgment swayed by religious conviction, as mall village on the question her respectfully, and she began: vessel sails for New Orleans; there you will not comprehend this excess of emotion, modest when speaking of their country or the blue sky, or even the light of heaven, tions, that he was at last brought to the eastern border of Columbia county, about "At the time when Italy was French, go to pass your days, and live like honest which they seemed unable to control. No for almost half a century; and yet, what point which he could no longer resist, of twelve miles from Stockbridge. He was a sedition broke out in one of our regifor almost half a century; and yet, what point which he could no longer resist, of twelve miles from Stockbridge. He was a sedition broke out in one of our regimen—do you hear? You will be taken on some men will be taken on the will be taken on the some men will be taken on the will b he is often commiscrated for as the great believing that his greatest scene of useful- invited to supply that pulpit, which was ments that was in garrison at Legisorn. board as sood as the wall, misfortune of his life, has, under Provinces to mankind and bonor to God would then vacant, and preached with so much It was a much more serious affair than a Be prudent, and follow my advice exactly. dence, proved to be the main cause of his be the Christian ministry. After his resusefulness as a clergyman, and his progress olution was fixed he at once repaired to ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the inclosed by branches of green laurels, and he said to the son: "There is your gloristical; and compliment from any other people.

"The Emperor appeared Go; I will take care of your families."

John Bull is known to be egotistical; and extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from them a call to settle as their extremely irritated when he heard the ceive from th the celebrated Theological Seminary at pastor. He accepted. His history for news; he resolved to make a severe examday, when I was in danger of death, your dation. Jonathan receives with exultation The Emperor's orders were precise and terrible; he wished for no court-martials, A severe example was given to the regiif Americans feel that there is anything the Emperor, happily deceived, thanked "No, upon the field of dishonor. I had in their country or its institutions worthy father, Jahleel Woodbridge, long occupied a sound theology in the western world. of his life to resign it while he was still "Joachim arrived at Leghorn, assemfather, Jahleel Woodbridge, long occupied a sound theology in the western world. of his life to resign it while he was still in Joachim arrived at Leghorn, assemimportant public trusts under the govern- Young Woodbridge here began a course, in the glow of health, and before any of bled the regiment upon the public square, to the demands of discipline. The Empe. to the demands of discipline arrived at Leghorn, assemimportant public trusts under the govern- Young Woodbridge here began a course, in the glow of health, and before any of those still living. from 3,000,000 of peoimportant puone trasts under the govern- Young Woodbridge here began a course, in the glow of health, and before any of ment of the State, and was himself a descer- which lasted nearly five years, of the most dant of the celebrated Timothy Woodbridge unremitting intellectual application. He impaired; having through life always ceived an order from the Emperor to punwho was commissioned by the government could do nothing by himself, but he had cherished so high a respect for the gospel ish them, and that he intended to do so. the Indian Missionary, to introduce civi- which he has observed through life, of it should never suffer in his person in any lization and Christianity among the having in his employment, or in some respect. The inadequacy of ministerial authority of his name, had already bro't There is now no indiscretion in divulging two years ago in New York. I still live, Stockbridge Indians. Inheriting, on both manner at his disposal, a congenial spirit, support, in country districts, is proverbial; the rebellious troops to submission. The sides, a vigorous body and a sound intellect, and in Andover these were not wanting.

In a law is the rebellious troops to submission. The sides, a vigorous body and a sound intellect, and in Andover these were not wanting.

After this narrative Murat's widow, too like circumstances. We make the soldiers cast themselves at his feet; they and a sound intellect, and in Andover these were not wanting. the early displayed an ambition for study at once became his companion and friend. paying his salary; and the church at moved; be was always kind-hearted; but retired to her apartment. We likewise, a certificate of my death had been sent, but retired to her apartment. We likewise, a certificate of my death had been sent, and their flag is known in every moved; be was always kind-hearted; but retired to her apartment. The moved is paying his salary; and the church at moved; be was always kind-hearted; but retired to her apartment. and beautiful scenery of Berkshire county, and enthusiastic, and withal full of accuwhere he was born, had a powerful influerate learning and exquisite literary acquirered by Le Gros. It represents King case My poor mother, after having wept so their constitution and laws, which have the was born, had a powerful influerate learning and exquisite literary acquirered in forming his gaming his gaming as it had the their constitution and laws, which bave on the forming his genius, as it had that ments, his society was courted on all sides, Porter, of Catskill, was for many years of an approach to the society was courted on all sides, Porter, of Catskill, was for many years. of so many other natives of that county, and into his capacious mind were poured who have subsequently risen to eminence. the intellectual treasures of the Seminary.

In the mild of the troops was the background. Murat and Vesavius!

The consternation of the troops was the background. Murat and Vesavius!

The consternation of the troops was the background. Murat and Vesavius!

The consternation of the troops was the background. Murat and Vesavius! and the Unicorn as their national ensign. The principles forming the ground of the and the United States, are identical-the across his track, and with a memory which he has taken, to find leisure for completing front death in the first battle, beneath by a person very intimate with the imperior of the language of both people in the language in the language of both people in the language in the language in the language of both people in the language in the lang for any other people ; and I am happy to know that the prejudices that have b fore existed, are fast disappearing before the peaceful efforts of intercourse and commerce. I regard, and have ever reer, an able counsellor in Stockbridge, who this period, almost every book on theology, that is touching in the associations that