For the Lewisburg Chronicle. Town Gossips.

Strange affair, this human nature,

- Bu-y ever after pell, Though it is no wondrous feature That the object should be self.
- Yet there are some thoughtful creatures, Mindful more of others' weal, Gen'rous to a tault their natures, How their hearts for others feel !
- And they show this anxious feeling In a very hoppy way; Kindly to their triends revealing
- All that others do or say. And you deem them edifying. In the tales so often told. And lorget they're only prying Into secrets you may hold.
- All that's in the past or present, In their neighbor's character,
- I et it be howe'er unpleasant, They've discovered av'ry blur.
- A d they tell it you, declaring, Y u alone of all most hear.

 An you think, "C how forbearing.
- To keep it from the common eat."
- Thus you listen while they fl tter, Drinking in the poiso ous stuff;
- Westerd by the constant clatter Vainly crying, "'tis enough " For they love you, and they lavor
- You as serpents do their prey; Embrace you tike a fell enslaver, Bear you chained and bound away.
- Like the raging bungry tion,
- Coming from his surly lair, Couches 'neath some shell'ring scion,
- to bese gos-ips, nought it matters Whose the character-how bright-
- Seine it, tene it mil im tattere, Leave it these a ghastly sight.
- As the milden in the summer Bogista g all the farmer's hopeto they tall on each new comer,
- Use his reput tion up. Straigh way they commence their railing, Chi cly watching every deed-
- Faithfully recent each failing, Making up where there is need.

IN a DILEBMA.-We were much emused by an incident which a friend of ours related to us the other day. A gentieman who had been absent for a considerable time, and who during his absence had raised a pretty luxurant crop o' whiskers,moustaches &c., visited a relative whose child, a little girl of six years, he was very fond of. The little girl made on demonstrations towards an uting him with a kiss, as was usual.

"Why, child," said the mother, "don? you know your uncle Edward? Why don't you give him a kiss?"

"Why me," returned the little girl, with the most perfect simplicity, 'I don't see

Petroleum, Rock Oil,

A NATURAL REMEDY!

PROCURED FROM A WELL IN ALLEGHENY CO., A., Four Hundred seet below the Earth's surface! It is jut up in bottles, just as it hows from the well, without ammature of any kind. It gots its ingredients from the bods of substances which it passes over in its secret chanel; they are blended together in such a form as to dely all human competition. The Previous in most chrome throme cases are wiknowiedged not only by physicians but by the estimation yat large. Those singuist fluids flowing only from the surface may be a formation of the surface of different properties, and holding them in such complete columns as to require the aid of the mistry to detect them, bear ample proof to the fact that they are compounded by the muster hand of Nature for the alleviation of human authoring and disease. It etroleium is a medicine at all it is a good one, for Nature never half does her work. It will continue to be used and applied as a Remedy, as long as man continues to be afflicted with disease. That it wil cure every disease, we do not pretend; but that it will cure a great many disease, hitherto incurable, is a fact which is proven by the evidence in its favor. Its discovery is a is proven by the evidence in its favor. Its discovery is a new era in medicine, and will enure to the health at d happiness of man.

$CROFCLA.—The Petroleum is a great medicine in SCHOFULA.—The Petroleum is a great medicine in Scribble and King's Evil—in all those diseases or guarting in a depraced constitute of the blood and other famile of the blooty. It will cure pains and enlargements of the bones and joints, Blotches, Blotches, Siels, Evingelas, imples on the face. Tetter, Smid-beast, Hingworm, and the various Skin diseases, it has cured noncrous cases of Rheumatian, Neuralga, tooli, &c. A woman in Franklin county, a., was cured of a rheumatic affection of six years standing; the disease was a agranated as toonfine her to her bed during the greater part of that time; she is now well, and consider herself entirely restored.

EHEUMATISM yields to the power of Petroleum ! Hill. MATISM yields to the power of Petroleum!

I be man if under a debt of graticule to the proprietor of the grants and, the use of which great medicine has entirely cared my wife of a violent attack of Rheumatism. Sie had abore under an attack of the disease for about two months, suffering the most mitense pain; the greater part of the time contined to her bed, and unable to do arething. The pain in the lumb was very great, attended with a great deal of westime. The Petroleum had a harpy effect, for the first two or three applications the swelling disminished and the pain left her. I continued to apply the medium distribution of the first was well as ever she was in her tiffer. I be continued to the reason of the effect of the first was swell as ever she was in her tiffer. I be continued to that the effect of the store of the life. I bee confident that the erroleum is one of the greatest medicines in the world for rheumatic pains and

I take pleasure in certifying to the animable properties of Mr. Kler's etroletim, for an affection of the broast and lungs, accompanied with every pain in the chest, and a cough. I took the bettellim is larger doses than is recommended in the directions, but affect taking it a few days I got to like it. I should like to have a barrel of it to use I got to the it. I should use to have a paire, or inclining hamily, for I believe it to be a valuable medicine. The etroloum produced no unplement facings whatever WM. DAY. the use of it. Pintsturg, March 16, 1850.

"There is nothing like it for Borns." I fact in nothing life if for Borne."

I get three down of Mr. Kier's Petroleum of Mr. Howell, and I are despised to think there is nothing equal to it for factors. Each of borne is not of great that in long teditions over but found no sounces at all from its only leaving a red scale, without any sounces when toward upon, which quite surprised me. I therefore here great fields in its efficacy, so far at least, and will introduce it in this section.

Very respectfully, Ac. HARVEY MANN. Knowing all the past and present,
