Capture of another American Fishing Schooner Baston, July 24 .- 1 despatch received in this city this morning from St. Johns, N. B., states that Her Majesty's steamer Netley, has captured and brought into that port the schooner Hyades, of Lubec, Maine, for trespassing on British fishing grounds, in violation of the new construction of the treaty of 1818. The Hyades was captured in the Bay of Fundy, on the 20th inst.

Wednesday, Messis, F. W. Hughes, Benj. F. Brewster, and J. C. Kunkle appearing for the Susquehanna Company, and Wm. M. Mercaith, Judge Campbell, hury and Erie Company. The case is said to have been ably discussed. On Thursday morning the decision of the Court was delivered to be in favor of the Susquehanna Company. This decision, we have no doub!, will be the means of turning the attention of the Philadelphians to the completion of the Cattawissa road to Williamsport, abandoning Sunbury as a point en fine, and not to exceed four north of that tirely. This certainly should be done as line.
