Wit and Gumor. Land Sales. HUSSEY'S GRAIN REAPER

A Man that got Humbugged.

The stage in which I was a passenger had stopped to change horses and " feed the passengers, at a small town in Vermont, and, dinner over, we were awaiting the arrival of the stage upon an intersecting route, to proceed upon our journey. Ci-gars had been lighted, and by way of passing our time, we had commenced a critital examination of the mammoth pictorial posters of Barnum's Menagerie, which covered the walls of the spacious bar-room. Barnum's name opened a fruitful topic of conversation ; every one present seemed stored with anecdotes of the "Napoleon of Showmen," the Woolly Horse, the Feejee Mermaid and Joyce Heth were not forgotten in the discussion which followed.

Suddenly, a long, slab-sided individual, with an owl-like expression of wisdom and dignity, who had been listening to our remarks, with an evident desire to take a hand, broke out-

" I s'pose you think that's an all-fired big concern ! Anybody would that had n't seen it."

"Then I suppose you have seen it ?" said my legal friend. "Yaas, I seen it in Springfield ; it's a darned humbuy." "Is it possible ?" said the Major, seeing a prospect of fun. "Could n't you oblige us with a description of the institution ?" " Certainly," said Jonathan ; " here's the stage, and as soon as we get started J'll give you all the items. They can't burg, on humbug me very often, and when they do, Wednesday, the 1st day of Sept. I calculate to advertise for 'em till I get souare.

In a few minutes we were under way. and our verdant friend commenced unbosoming himself. "Yer see, Barnum was a going to show his caravan, down to Springfield, Fourth of July, and I thought there'd be a good chance to celebrate the day, and see the elephant both at once't. What I wanted excellent springs of Water on the place. to see more than all the rest, was the Car of Jugglenot, drawn by a string of elepharts?

"Did it meet your approbation ?" "I never seen one side of it. Before I got in town, they 'd got all through paradin', the elephants unharnessed, and the Car of Jugglenot was in a wood-shed. 1 made up my mind right off, then, that the hull consarn was a humbug." "Was Barnum aware, 'I asked, "that you were in town ?"

Not as I know," was the answer. "If he had known it," added the Major, "he would doubtless have waited. But you visited the exhibition, I suppose ?" "Of course, I was bound to do that if it bust me. That was a bigger humbug than all the rest." " How so ?"

"Why, in the first place, I expected to see Jenny Lind."

"Was she announced in the bills ?" "I do n't know, I did n't read 'em, but I axed the man that stuck up the pictures if she'd sing the bird song standing on top of a cage of cockatoos and parrots. She wa'n't there, and I never seen one side of her, and then I knowed the whole consarn was a humbug.

"Well then, I went round and took a book at the elephants-had hard work to get round tu; there was mor'n a hundred thousand people in the tent. I got where they was, and the folks was all feedin' 'en

It consisted of between 50 and 60 acres of Whest. A part of it stood well, but a considerable portion was much immiced and haid. The Resper operated equally as well in both cases, cutting the standing Whest cleaner, and departing it in sheaves of suitable size, straight, and in good order for binding, and taking off the grain is generally done by the craile. When the grain is much lodged, or has very low, in autor to make gread work it is no coasity to run the machine against the slope of the grain. We are well pleased with the operation of the machine, and a hirge number of in thilling in farmers sho witnessed its performance during the karvest, expressed the same opicien in relation to it. TO THE PUBLIC-1 do horely certify that I used Hussey's Grain Reaper in taking off my crop hortharvest, and the good order it cut my crop more than met my most sanguine expectations. It cut about 14 acres per day of very heavy Wheat, and even then we stopped to shock the grain out before evening. It takes the grain very clean from the ground. Brown's Essence of Jamaica Ginger. TS a remedy suited to the extremes of heat and cold, and is very beneficial whenever gentle tonic and stimulating influences are required. Its stimulant property being independent of alcoholic power, its effect as a frequent remedy need never be dreaded. While it strengthens and refreshes the debilitated in summer season, it is not less potent during the inclemency of the winter ; by warming with its healthy tonic principle enabling the system to resist the influence of incipient diseases which lark in a changing climate. No family should be without it, and to travelers by land or sea it will be found invaluable to use a
