H. C. HICKOK, EDITOR.

O. N. WORDEN, PRINTER.

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1852.

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE and might be of a hundred and fifty tons Sunbury & Erie: R. R. Injunction Case. of success. Legislation like this would they claim. They are here not defending pany, if the Susquebaona Company shall acre. We saw also a portion of a timothy not only be injurious in its effect on the their own privileges, but seeking to re- not also construct a road by the same field, somewhat elevated above the other OPINION OF THE COURT.

AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY JOURNAL. Issued on Wednesday marnings at Lewisburg, Union county, Pennsylvania.

ro "] Skeep, love, skeep! The dusty day is done. Lo! from afar the freshing breezes sweep, Wide over groves of boin. Do at the egen essenant cosing run, And round thy lowly ked, Thy bed of pain. Rathing thy ration theset, Like grapped showers of raint. They comes. They come ; While the white curtains, waiving to and fro,) in the sick air: Ani patingly the choice come and go, With gentle burnan c.s., Compassionate and dumb.

The dusty day is done, The dasty day is done, The dast becaus While prayerful watch I keep, Seep, here, sleep' is there no may e in the touch Of fingers than dost love so much? Fain would they a after poppies o'er there now, er, with a self rates, The genulous in its own uson the press Upon the weary its and a hing brow, While prayerful watch I keep--Skeep, love, skeep!

While prayering solve Skep, love, skep! In the pagnis spire The bells are some ginz. Their little golden eircles in a flutter Wish tales the wooing winds have dared to utter, Wish tales the wooing winds have dared to utter, Wish tales the wooing winds have dared to utter, Wish tales the wooing winds have dared to utter, Wish tales the wooing winds have dared to utter, Wish tales the wooing winds have dared to utter, Wish tales the wooing winds have dared to utter, Wish tales the base on the second second to utter, And stops like base in into the drowsy car; Commingling with the ham of the Second even drowing near Younds beet even drowing near Young these of despits skitner born, Like night made visible by morn; In bleat the throbbing of my heart. And watch, with shitnering where of The sizer, but is shitnering where of The izer, with the nonse-like even; The izer, when the into the dare bard dir. To see the pule lips lift again. The inard, with the nouse-like eyers, Parps from the motive in surprise. At each strange quict after day's burch din; Teen contines holdly out, And backs about, and with his holew feet. Transis has a new test Transis has small exercise heat, Dating up on his proy In such a trickey, wincome wet of way, Dis defeate maratcheg seems no nin. And still the curtains seting, But noiseleests ; or so. She was so far under abaft that we TER US -$1.00 per year, for each actually in advance: 15.17 paid within three months: $2.00 if paid within a

FWISBURG

we hacked with our little hatchet upon the dore timbers of the minor o implored forgiveness.

tongue can tell. The hole which we had made, although not large enough to extri-cate a man, allowed the air which had kept the hull afloat to escape, and to our horror we saw that the vessel was every minute sinking and we ourselves coming means the subject to succept by their corporate name. 24. That the survey of the Sunbury & of, but could only cut the plank. In vain the supplement to the defendant's charter, peace and avoid collisions dangerous to of extending their road by the Susque-we would have given worlds for it now; it might have saved them. But soon they

They cursed the light of heaven which broke would not avail to prevent the prelimina-they cursed the light of heaven which broke would not avail to prevent the prelimina-they cursed the light of heaven which broke would not avail to prevent the prelimina-they cursed the light of heaven which broke would not avail to prevent the preliminary injunction. eternal darkness, and then they fervently tardiness in the organization of the Sus- be with impolicy, wrong and peril. These that would not help the defendant's arguquehauna Company. There is nothing in considerations are sufficient to induce a ment, for the rule in cases of irreconcila-Amidst this confusion the Captain of the lapse of time which intervened be-careful examination of the statute before the schooner made his way to the opening, tween the act of incorporation and the issuing of letters patent to forfeit corporate When the Legislature means to invade lawgiver. and arresting the disorder beneath, asked of us, with a cool manner and a perfectly vest the Stockholders of the privileges the public interest and endanger the peace is authorised to form connections with The Farmer. the best possible condition. The stock is the public interest and endanger the peace or so. She was so far under abaft that we could not make out her name; and I don't know as we did it for any reason in partic-ular, but as the scawas smooth, we launched the cance and went alongside, and some of

CHRONICI

Using yourdy, Feary structure.
There year, for any structure pressure water, if any structure pressure water pressur

Watching. [* The following lineware printed from the proof sheets for the volume of joens won to be based by L. Colly, from the proof Max Endy C Julson. "The present," re-from the proof Max Endy C Julson. The the proof forms the proof forms and be also control to show the control to th we saw that the vessel was every minute sinking and we ourselves coming nearer to the surface of the water. We worked with the hatchet and the saw with all the energy men are capable mence and finish it, within the time limi-of his operations, will furnish him, at the nanna is so plain, that any attempt to ted by law; and the Sunbury & Erie we hacked with our little hatchet upon the close timbers of the schooner. Our axe! passed on the 27th of March, 1852, gives to the Sunbury & Erie Company the right to extend its road from Sunbury, by the things would be two railroads, thus lying

July, 1852, on reading the bill of com- receipts have been-and what his profits as well as ourselves began to perceive that all exertion was useless, and they crowded all exertion was useless, and they crowded the small aperture we had made, putting through their hands and seizing ours with convulsive grasps. (b) have been made, and (b) have been made, and (b) in the second of the number of the second of the manner, for the statute and give it no (b) have been made, and (b) in the second of the secon convulsive grasps. Oh, hope long deferred, thus to dawn in estacy and to sink in despair ! They yel-led, they blasphemed, and they prayed. the work, and from all the acts and doof internal improvements, or adopted any tached parts. We must take it as a whole. ings complained of in said bill, until the venience, to say nothing of the character upon them the sooner to shroud them in There does not appear to have been any measure so full fraught as this would All of it is consistent, and if it were not, cause, and that a writ of injunction be The barns and general out-buildings at issued, upon the plaintiffs giving bond in Ardenheim, were constructed with an eye

VOLUME IX --- NO. 15.

WHOLE NUMBER, 435.

months. By it he can see at a giance, And now, to wit, on the 27th day of what his expenses have been-what his plied. They are large, and are kept in the best possible condition. The stock is

As mars a wre in the sky: More heaving the chadews fall. Lake the black foldings of a pall. Where jurk the rough team from the wall ; The candles flare With fresher goats of air : Torns to a dirge-like, rolliary mean; Night deepens, and 1 88, to clearings doubt, along the Wreck.

ter's 'therating about in this bay, and run-in' foul of Sue Withers. However, that schooner was an awful one too. Let me see, it was four years ago last March, as we were errising of the Cares, having ing found sufficient provisions for subsis-the breeze had sprung up from the west-ward. We were running out under time out to the better ou mainsail, when early in the morning we the sound of our footsteps, then they that in charter, they had no more right to statute a construction strongly in oppose and sound of our footsteps, then they that is make a road from Sunbury to Harrisburg, tion to the right claimed under it. But roads, and form connections with Philamade something on the weather bow which looked like a rock, which we knowed in reason it couldn't be, but there not being any sail in sight, and as we had plenty of tune, we luffed up to see what it was. That's what people ought to do, whether they crew-bade us good bye in a firm and gave them the privilege of constructing fined rule of interpretation in all the provided. And to satisfy this call we have time or not. God knows how many a manly voice, which only faltered as he their railroad along the Susquehanna States of the Union, as well as in England, are directed to the first proviso, which about him, and though he did come from plums. They were examined by a com-upon having made the shortest passage or the most profitable voyage on record. However, as we kauled our wind, you see it was no credit to us, it not being out it and marine intelligence to seven asceri. the most profitable voyage on record.

They were from an Eastern port, bound excuse.

calm voice, how much of the hull seemed which the charter was intended to confer. of the Commonwealth, its intention must Philadelphia by way of the valley of the yet to be out of water. We told him, and The acts done and threatened to be done be expressed in terms free from all am- Susquehanna. How? As hereinafter pro-yet to be out of water. We told him, and then heard him communicating the infor-mation to those below, and giving his or-ders to maintain silence while he related. Unless these acts can be justi-ders to maintain silence while he related. The Chesapeake Bay Pilot's Story of his story, which was necessarily short. fied in some other way, this will be no tended that the purpose of the accord the other, drawn up to, and connected

"Now, Pilot, tell us something awful;" They were from an Eastern port, bound excuse. "Now, Pilot, tell us something awful;" to Charleston, nearly in ballast. When The strain of the case is on the con-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-to Charleston, nearly in ballast. When The strain of the case is on the con-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-to Charleston, nearly in ballast. When The strain of the case is on the con-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-to the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to which she was fairly entitled and of the grant by the words, "as herein-tages to whi "Now, Pilot, tell us something awful;" to Charleston, nearly in ballast. When sid Miss D., "something, for instance, wid Miss D., "something, for instance, to the defendant's act of incorporation in the supplement to the defendant's act of incorpor about a horrid wreck " " Ah," replied men were lost, but most of them being be- which is relied on as giving them the the Legislature to guard the interests of cised if the other Company fail, is as Mr. Mellen, "the horridest wreck I ever low, as the schooner was lying, to they privilege to make a railroad along the car commercial metropolis, and perhaps much hereinafter provided, as it is hereinknowed was the peace of my mind, that were able upon her going bottom up to get same route which the Snequebanna Com- not less so to feel some jealousy of a rival after provided that a tax shall be laid on within a few days, the stars were unprogot stove all up by that Methodis' minis- through the rus scuttle into the hold .- pany has adopted, and the counsel on both city. If, therefore, the Susquehanna any road that may be made. But it is pitious, and we had to bide our time.

mainsail, when early in the morning we the sound of our footsteps, then they the't nal charter, they had no more right to statute a construction strongly in opposi- they may construct lateral and branch could be called "Highlands." The usual At the N. Y. State Fair at Rochester.

supposing it to be abandoned. An yes, it was abandoned after that vessel passed on, and the agony of despair endured by that poor soul as the sail disappeared in the horizon was a balance in the scale of hu-man joy and woe to all the happiness man joy and woe to all the happiness those cruelly careless descriters could ever those cru tives has boarded a wreck, even should it prove that there was no one on board ef her, can fill away his maintopsnil again with a feeling of greater satisfaction with himself for having made the shortest passage or upon having made the shortest passage or

However, as we hauted our wind, you see it was no credit to us, it not being out of the way of our cruise. Pretty soon we made it out; it was a vessel bottom up, law was to give Philadelphia the alvan- with the grant, and made part and parcel in Whitemarsh township, Montgomery plantation, struck us as being controlled since to fulfill this intention; but until sensibly from the assurance of the Doctor.

Ardenheim Farm.

we were cruising off the Capes, having run out of Hampton roads, just after a run out of frampton roads, just after a hard blow from the eastward was over, and ing found sufficient provisions for subsis-

We were running out under jib and seemed inevitable. But when they heard east than Sunbury. By this, their origi- upon us the necessity of giving to this But this is not all. The section says as that of the late respected Mr. SHEAFF Preserving Fruits without Sugar. have time or not. God knows how many a poor fellow had stood alone on a wreck when a vessel has passed in plain sight, supposing it to be abandoned. Ah yes, it was abandoned after that vessel passed on those cruelly careless descriters could ever for her and her little ones! And now, grantees from the State of the same pri-terms by Chief Justice Marshall in Bil- it misreads the first proviso by disregarding these cruelly careless descrters could ever know. Oh, I wish that people would think of this, for what is the satisfaction of a few hours shorter passage to that of rescuing a fellow creature, or of having indeed, lest our cance should be swallowed indeed, lest our cance should be s had the will to do so, from a miserable death. Yes, a man who, from such mo tives has boarded a wreck, even should it wretchedness can compare, we shoved off only for family supplies-but excellent in quality. The fine shelter for the implevalue of his estate, estimating the land

北京の小田田田