TEWISBURG CHRONICI VOLUME IX --- NO. 17. H. C. HICKOK, EDITOR.

O. N. WORDEN, PRINTER.

-----LEWISBURG CHRONICLE

AN INDEPENDENT FAMILY JOURNAL. Issued on FRIDAY mornings at Lewisburg. Union county, Pennsylvania,

United CONTENTS, Formers, and the set of t

St for any anomalie, st for a year. More made wire e-taking, not exceeding one furth of a volume, for a year, doi: Wolfk and excend alternation at the be public when handed in or delivered.

when handed in or delivered. Conservation and subjects of general infe-ped not within the many of years of sectors contest. All letters noted segme part paid, new openied by the n of

The Farmer's Flough.

DY DE. C. W.H SALL.

Clear the brown path to used his confter's cleanit Lo, on he come, behind his machine from, With tell's brack dew drops on his much much how, The hord of corth, the inte of the play.

First in the field had re the red tening on, First in the sincheses where the day is done, that in the sincheses where the day is done, this with the broad meres where his best base read. Marks the broad meres where his best base read. Sill where he treads the stables is clock d with. Still where h i treads the stabilisem elects if wide, The smooth, tread further opens deep and when thatted and dense the transfel turr in planaver, Methow and dense the transfel turr in planaver, Methow and dark, the richty confided beaver, Up the steep hill still where the hiltering thin the long track that mores the local plana; Throng h the most value value of the defined way! At every turn the lossening chains resumd. The semiging physical efforts defined any! At every turn the lossening chains resumd. The semiging physical efforts due rand, The semiging physical efforts and rand, and the was held and bellow wante appears. And wearied hards under the papear start.

These are the hands whose patient labor beings The peakent's look, the golden pomp of kings; Then is the page whose letters shall be seen. Charged by the sum to works or him, grown. Then is the scholar whose bases rule peakers. This is the relating science frames that year regular the first boson from the first the ment These are the first, or . Better remains that of the Third fift the dead - the charter of the soil?

g gracious Mother, where be nignant bread O gracients Mother, where beingmost 1 read Wakes us to life and finds us all to rest: How spreed thy fratores, kind to ensure clime. Mock with their sample, the distribution of The We stain thy flowers—they blows to a for the deat We stain thy flowers—they blows to a for the deat We stain thy flowers—they blows to a for the deat We stain thy flowers—they blows to a for the deat We stain thy flowers—they blows to a for the deat We stain thy flowers—they blows to a for the deat we see the grow a planta to stirt is been been at the stain thy flowers of the transition of the blow ways the grow a planta to stirt it is been been at the blow of the deat is the grow in gradin.

Yet, O. our Mother, while tracative of charges. found the fresh charp of their successing arms, Let not our virtue in thy loss decay, And thy find weakness white our size in the avery

Not by these hills, whose betters now displayed. Not by these hills, whose betters now displayed, In identity evolution Authinian has intraved. Fy y at twee result, and first to re-appear to disreduce, and first to re-appear in the set of the plane has mean to interve evolutions. And teed in otherse from its dark readers: True to their bounds these finitum ation should be it around with power theor near unbinitied well. And, true to doct, to Freedom, to Morkind II for chained bounds ("Intervention", and the other and, true to doct, to Freedom, to Morkind II for chained bounds ("Intervention", and it unbind. These startely forms, find theorem even near the bound they strong monologies of the land. The same strong monology of the land. The same strong income to the final head. The same strong income to the plane hand. The same therm is in the same right hand.

Annual Report of the Committee of Publication of the University at Lewisburg, Pa.

During the University year just closed, as may be devised to reduce the expenses

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., FRIDAY, AUGUST 28, 1852.

The Curators feel much interest in | Situated as this Institution is in a short, the custom had become so universal, honorably. At length they got to fighting the laws. The others were acquitted, and the establishment of the Fenale Seni- region remarkably healthy, beautiful to that a man was considered churlish or mean among themselves. After this it was pro those convicted were pardoned and disment to the finer feelings, and will beget nary contemplated by the originators of the eye, among a comparatively virtuous that did not treat his neighbors to a dram posed and carried, that they should march charged. Thus ended this folly and mad other sentiments of kindred nature, just the Institution, and approve of the purpopulation, exactly central as respects our whenever an opportunity offered. chase which has been made of the large North and South State lines, and also cen- The country remained in this state till country, the excise officer there, and catch by a few hot-headed, aspiring, political For this reason, the proposition can not and beautiful dwelling, designed for the tral as regards Pennsylvania and New about the year 1791, when Congress laid a and try him and Reagan both together. demagognes, who had raised their spirit fail to strike the Northern mind favorably 10 residence of the Principals and a limit Jersey, the proposed roads will make it duty or excise of four pence per gallon on They set out accordingly, taking Reagan to such a height, as at one time to threaten But the extract : Decombination in the proposed roads will make it duty or excise of four pence per gallon on They set out accordingly, taking Reagan to such a height, as the horizon period number of pupils. The situation is also a central point on the intersecting all distilled spirits. The long war with the most elevated, airy, and pleasant, routes. With these advantages in pro- England had greatly exhausted the public house, he was not there, so they set fire Now, fellow citizens, I presume that the most elevated, airy, and pleasent, routes. With these advantages in pro-in the centre of the town, from which the spect-with its present enlarged and en-treasury, and this was thought to be a tax Academy and College edifices, and the larging facilities-wish its full beard of that would assist the revenue with as little The left an am bush near the ruins, in or-houses of worship, are easily accessible. It is and competent instructors, capable injury to the citizens as any other that der, if they could, to seize upon Wells. frankly, that it was with reluctance I re-incidentally from the institution. The Academy and College edifices, and the larging facilities-with its fall beard of that would assist the revenue with as little The left an am bush near the ruins, in or took in the unhappy affair. I confess, This department will be opened with next of teaching double the present number of could be devised. The people, however, Next morning he was taken, but during mained a neutral spectator. Had it not separation of husband and wife, parent This department will be opened with next relations of the writer, to review a value, but during relations of the writer, to review a value, but during relations of the writer, to review a value, but during relations of the writer, to review a value, but during relations of the writer, to review a value, but during relations of the writer, but during relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with next second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with the second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with the second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with the second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with the second advice of my venerable relations of the shall be opened with the second advice of my v ments are in progress for supplying the the further patronage of its founders, and tendurance. "What," said they, " shall they let him off without further molesta- than my own inclination, I should have most University, immediately, with a scleet and the increased confidence of the community, we, who within twenty years have success- tion.

The Whiskey Insurrection.

extensive Cabinet of Geological, Minera- in general. mens, from France. It will be one of of October.

the best and most useful collections in the United States, at a cost of $100, which has been met by a donation of that amount Aug. 21, 1852. from the President of the Faculty. Other friends in and near Philadelphia have agreed to farnish a suitable room at their (The following address on the subject of the

during the coming vacation. We wish Over one thousand specimens of geolory, &c., have already been presented to the University. The Library has been increased 1000 volumes, altogether by domatiene

The amount received on Tuition Bills and beloved by all who know him, for the ur-the past year, is about $2,500, and there banity of his manners and the integrity of his are $850 now due -$3,350 in all. The life. Gasper Tarr and Finlip Regan, Esgra. Thus a very great excitement was raised, of unquestionable loyalty with the whiskey salaries of the seven Teachers have been mentioned in the narrative, have both died and a large majority were willing to go boys; whilst those who would not were $5,450. The extra charges, for rent, fuel. library, &c., have, it is believed, covered Regan at the very advanced age of one hon-situation, government sent out three infludred and seven .- Pitteburg Lispitch. Liberal friends of the Institution have

MR. LOBINGIER'S ADDRESS. been visited the past year by the Financial Agent of the Board of Trustees, with a view to the permanent endowment of the Presidency of the University, and of the key Insurrection, in the year 1791. In hear the Commissioners, and scarcely de- ing now could restore order, but the strong Greek Professorship. The former is un. doing so, I shall have to depend almost sisted from insulting them. They were arm of the nation. The President called dertaken to be filled in Pennsylvania, and entirely upon my own memory, having no plainly informed by the Commissioners, out the militia from the eastern part of the latter in New Jersey. We hope soon documents to which to refer. I have, how- that the law neither could be, nor would Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, and to hear of the accomplishment of both ever, lately had a conference with Gasper be repealed so long as the citizens resisted Virginia. Upwards of five thousand men, announce, from time to time, such plans siderably in the occurrences.

O. N. WORDEN, Committee. JAS. P. Ross, A. D. GILLETTE, own expense; while Prof. Anderson has Whiskey Insurrection, was delivered in Mount submission to the laws, and that they sho'd before any injury was done. They marched under the spurious names of democracy started to make the selection, gratuitously, Pleasaat, Westmoreland county, Pa. by the petition Congress for redress of grievances, on nonewards, taking redster a term sub- to take possession of our people. Pleasaat, Westmoreland county, Pa., by the petition Congress for redress of grievances, off homewards, taking Webster a few miles and liberty, the same evil spirit was about will be acceptable to many of our readers, as frenzy was such that the man who talked missive, they ordered him to mount the him a happy voyage, a successful effort, furnishing them some facts and incidents, by frenzy was such that the man who taked stump, and repeat his promise, hever again of submission or moderation, was in great stump, and repeat his promise, hever again a person who was an eye-witness, and, in some degree, an actor in one of these scenes of mad. danger of getting his person abused or his to act as collector of excise, and to hurrah ness and misrule that sometimes take posses. house burned. Public meetings were held three times for Tom the Tinker, after which sion of whole communities as well as indi- in different sections of the country, inflam- they dismissed him. This Tom the Tinkerviduals. Judge Lobingier, though ninety years matory speeches made, and liberty poles was a new god added to mythology at this tive man, venerable for his age, and esteemed "Liberty and no excise;" "No asylum whiskey-stills and still-houses. Whoever since the delivering of the address-Tarr in any length in opposing the collection of branded as traitors to this new deity, and about the seventy fifth year of his age, and the tax. Whilst affairs remained in this to their country.

ential Commissioners to the disaffected either the Government or the people must counties, in order to persuade the citizens submit, and for the Government to have I rise to give you my recollections of to submit to the law. The excitement, done so, under the circumstances, would the Western, or what is called the Whis- however, was so high that they would not have been an end of Government. Noth-Tarr and Philip Regan, both of this neigh. it, and that the dignity and stability of the consisting of infantry, cavalry, and a few It will be especially gratifying for us to borhood, whose recollections aided me con. Government required that it should en- companies of artillery, promptly obeyed force obedience to the laws by the strong the call of the President. The Pennsyl-Before I proceed with my narrative, I arm, if nothing else would de. The effect vania and New Jersey troops came through the smiles of Heaven have rested upon of obtaining a literary and scientific edu. will give you a short account of the first of this menace was, that a general Conver. Somerset, and halted in three divisions on our youthful but already vigorous Institu- cation with suitable moral culture, for settlement of this part of Pennsylvania, tion of citizens was called, to consider this side of the Chesnut Ridge. The adtion for the promotion of learning and those not favored by friends or fortune. with the manners, customs, and habits whether they would submit to the law or vance division came on to where this town work is by the author of "Washington

tion for the promotion of learning and those not lavored by friends or fortune. piety throughout this Commonwealth. Public aid is not demanded for the richer, which the settlers acquired under the pe-The lives of its Board of Trustees have but for the more indigent. We also re- culiar circumstances in which they were kinson's ferry (now Monongahela City) in at Lobingier's Mills. They remained in "Jesus and the Poor," &c. The lives of its Board of Trastees have but for the more indigent. We also re-been precious in the sight of the great joice that facilities are offered for a choice placed. The settlement commenced about the carly part of the space of eight. Since the introduction and sale in this wood, the late Judge Woodbury, presiding on an important pub-Disposer, although they have been called of studies to those whose inclinations or the year 1769. The whole country at The majority of the Convention passed days; during which time the cavalry, con-Disposer, although they have been called of studies to mose memations or to lament the loss of Henry Funk, a pa opportunities do not permit them to take that time was an entire wilderness, cover-to lament the loss of Henry Funk, a pa opportunities do not permit them to take that time was an entire wilderness, cover-upon the bench of the United States Cirto lancet the loss of Henry Funk, a pa opportunities do not permit them to take tron and former Trustee. One member of the full course. At the same time, we ed by a heavy growth of timber. The set-should be brought in immediately by force, But chiefr all theore who had taken an an tron and former Trustee. One member of the full course. At the same time, we the same time and that their commissions should be taour Board has been called away-Rev. A. urge all who can with propriety, to master A. Anderson, of Huntingdon county. every study taught in the Institution, that year 1776, when the Revolutionary War ken from them, and a promise extorted the A. Anderson, of Huntingdom county, every study taught in the Institution, that having served his generation by the will they may become strong and useful in having served his generation by the will they may become strong and useful in the foot, expired in the prime of hits, whetever honorable department of human of locusts that period, many of the foot more than one or two. The part of frontier inhabitants were driven from their was made by them they should be burned not more than one or two. The part of a house has escaped the scourge. kaving a good example for us who survive, and an exhortation to work while it is yet and an exhortation to work while it is yet and an exhortation to work while it is yet and an exhortation to work while it is yet and an exhortation to work while it is yet and an exhortation to work while it is yet and an exhort the provide the day. One of the students in the Acade. the movements which promise to give the lost their lives, and some returned to the was fast drawing to a crisis. day. One of the students in the Acade. the movements which promise to give the my died daving the last vacation, and one University at Lewisburg all the advan-they movements bedy of the Yough, in Washington county, where they movements bedy of the Yough, in Washington county, where they movements bedy of the Yough, in Washington county, where they movements bedy of the Yough in Washington county, where they movements bedy of the Yough in Washington county, where they movements bedy of the Yough in Washington county, where they movements bedy of the Yough in Washington county, where they movement be the Maryland and Vire was carly called from the Primary Depart. tages of Railway connection with the they had come. Others, not willing to armed men, made their first attack on the they were met by the Maryland and Virtent-but no other decease has occurred more populous and favored portions of the give up their settlements, creeted tempo- dwelling house of Gen. Neville, the excise ginia troops who had come up through off, right away, to Ben Wells, of Fayette ness, into which the citizens had been led as surely as that thought begets theught likely taken an active part with those that characteristic illustrations of the system. fully contended with Great Britain on ac- The next attack was made on Captain were outraging the laws of their country. Now we can see no great evil or inconve logical, Botanical, and Zoological speci- The next Session commences the 21st count of a tax on tea, now submit to be Webster, of Stoystown, the excise officer Through his instrumentality, I was fortutaxed for whiskey?" When the excise for Somerset county, by about one hun notely saved from a course of conduct. taxed for whiskey?" When the excise officers came around to collect the duty, they were hissed at and insulted, and threatened to be tarred and feathered if they made him promise never again to act as fore this time, that the Jacobin spirit had or availability of slave property-and persisted in executing their office. Other collector of excise An attempt was made overthrown the French Government, and would prevent in some cases the viol ney efficers were sent, and were treated in the by some of the party to fire his haystacks, drenched the nation in blood ; and many done to the feelings of such connections same manner. Some few recommended but it was prevented by others of them good and reflecting men began to fear that, by sales either compulsory or voluntary.

Genius at a Discount.

Dropping in upon a friend yesterday clations of city life," " horrible murders," without eliciting a reply.

ligate life," and wound up by saying that edge on which to prescribe a preventive for the several works are "elegantly illustra- this evil. We know of no better than to ted with splendid engravings," all for the theroughly whitewash the granary, in every ow price of 124 cents.

The parties so highly favored as to re- timbers if possible, before the grain is put larly requested, in a note at the bottom, to stop their entrance.

preserve the same until called for ; and, in Where grain is already infested, air order that they might the better under- slacked lime, perfectly dry, sieved over stand how very important it was for them and mixed through the grain, as the lime to be at home if they intended to sceare can be blown away by running through the copies of these highly valuable publica- fan.

" the orgent will call but once." As if the be conferring a favor on the agricultural above were not enough to secure purcha-sers, we are unblushingly told that the lication withou celay.-Germantonen Tel.

ment humane in character is an encourage

WHOLE NUMBER, 437. *

"The South has a great moral conflict to wage; and it is for her to put on the cases sometimes occur which we observe are seized by these foreign fanatics as nience, but much good, in the prohibition by law of such occurrences. Let the hus We are satisfied that it would be to the advantage both of master and slave to promote marriage, and the observance of all its duties and relations."

Weevil in Grain.

We are informed from various quarters, morning, our attention was attracted by a of the serious depredations of the wereit pile of hand-bills lying upon his table, in the wheat granaries of our farmers-m gorgeously displayed in large type and some instances the grain being almost enold, is still, we are happy to learn, a hale, ac- raised, with such devices on them as these : time, and was supposed to preside over purport of which were to notify our eiti- tent as to be unfit to manufacture into small type, with " picturs tue match," the tirely destroyed, or injured to such an exzens that an agent was in town from whom flour. Several persons have inquired of us hurrahed stoutly for Tom the Tinker, was they could procure in due time " works of a remedy; and we see the same inquiry intense interest," containing " exciting rev- made in several other agricultural journals, the "vicissitudes and hardships of a prof- We have but a small amount of knowlpart, inside and out, as well as the under ceive a copy of the circular, were particu- in. This, we think, if well done, will tions, without which no family library can be complete-are modestly informed, that of our readers possess a better, they will appointed to that office.

themselves " apt to teach."

ory, New York, Ohio, and Maryland. Analy than at present.

chorts.

among the members of the Institution ; State. Two Companies-each sustained rary forts and block-houses, into which officer in Washington county. Neville Cumberland and Uniontown. Whilst their gans on their shoulders, placing sen-place of Rev. Mr. Anderson, dee'd. In One is the great Central Railway North the fields, while the other of all persons, a few names only excepted, to come forward at a certain time and place. place of Rev. Mr. Anderson, dee'd. In One is the great Central Hallway North the Board of Trustees, the vacancy occa- and South, running directly north from the Board of Trustees, the vacancy occa- and South, running directly north from has given a more startling illustration of a coveral annext, for all sioned by the resignation of Mr. Harker, Washington, Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, from the Indians. of Pittsburg, has been supplied by the Sunbury, Lewisbury, Williamsport, to In this perilous situation they suffered the mean time, had abandoned the house, past offences. This was generally acceded election of Jos. Lippincott, of Mt. Plea. Elmira, thence northerly, westerly, and many privations, until peace was restored, and the assailants, meeting with no resis- to by those who had taken an active part structive malady, was at our doors, our sant, Westmorehand Co. Mr. Walker casterly. The other is the grand East in 1783. After that period, many of the tance, set fire to it and burned it down. in the late illegal movements. The comhaving resigned his station as Treasurer, and West roate, long contemplated by the old inhabitants returned, with increased The next movement was made against manding officers having now full assurance Joseph Meixell of Lewisburg has been more enlightened portion of the Philadel numbers of emigrants, and the country Philip Reagan, the deputy excise officer in that the eitizens would submit to the laws, cleanse and purify; but if a moral evil is elusion, that it is preferable to cut corn by phisms, designed to construct, ultimately, improved so rapidly as soon to supply the Westmoreland county. The attack was and no longer resist the collectors, pro-Stephen W. Taylor, L. L. D., the inde- a chain of Railway from that Emporium, inhabitants with abundance of every kind made in the night, by a numerous body of posed to the citizens, that, if one or more the Presidency of Madison University, -making the shortest route between the This was the more an evil, as they used commenced from the house, and the as- called upon, they would remove the army and their general health has been good. Rev. Dr. Maleom, by virtue of his office as Frenident of the University, is now a Valley, in one or two years, a cordial ies to work their little fields of corn, with warned them to desist, or he would fire on member, but I think about fifteen.

Assistant in the Academic Department. far-sighted men; and although collisions bors.

turned to resume the attack. Neville, in and accept of a general amnesty for all the head of the'r respective Departments, of the up-river routes where they run used. It was the medicine for almost ev- they would neither abuse nor destroy his of November.

fatigable and highly useful acting Presi- by Sunbury, along the West Branch just of provision. Unfortunately, about this men ; Keagan expected to be attacked, and militia companies in each county, would dent of the University from its origin, opposite Lewisburg, through Williamsport, time, or a little before, they began to con. had prepaped himself with a number of pledge themselves to the Government to having last year resigned, and accepted to the noted harbor of Eric, on that Lake vert their surplus grain into whiskey. guns, and one or two men. The firing support the constitution and haws, when

N. Y., a change has necessarily been made in the Board of Instruction. The Facul-one-fifth of the State to the enterprise ty has been enlarged by the election of of the Lumberman, the Manufacturer, the principal article of trade, and became a set fire to Reagan's barn, which they burn- heartily fired of them, and the officers and Rev. Howard Malcom, D. D., as President, Merchaut, and the Farmer-and making kind of standard of value for other articles; ed down, and retired for that time. In men were very anxious to return home. and Professor of Moral and Intellectual one of the most important of the iron and the man who had plenty of whiskey the course of a day or two after, the as- I do not remember how many companies Philosophy ; Charles S. James, A. M., as chains that shall indissolubly bind the in those times, was regarded by his fellow sailants, with a force of one hundred and pledged themselves to support the laws, Professor of Mathematics and Natural East with the West. Both these great citizens nearly in the same light as a man fifty men, returned to renew the attack .-- but one of the Westmoreland companies Philosophy ; and of Mr. M. F. Taylor, as works are now pushed by energetic and is now who has more money than his neigh- After some parleying, Reagan, rather than that did so I had the honor of command-shed blood, proposed to capitulate with ing myself. The army came here, to the Professors Bliss, Anderson and Taylor, and Messrs. Loomis and Ball, remain at the choice of position in those portions reflect upon the quantities of it that were orable terms, and give him assurance that and have performed faithful services, as parallel-and although a few narrow- ery disease, and was a constant beverage property, and would agree on his part to The excise officers resumed their duties, specified in the report of your Committee minded and interested individuals, with wherever people met together, whether to give up his commission, and never again and met with no further opposition. The on Government and Instruction. The neither truth nor consistency to actuate assist each other in labor or amusement. to act as an excise man. These stipula- prisoners were taken to Philadelphia, which well known crudition, piety, activity, and them, are endeavoring to obstruct the car At military trainings; at elections, funer- tions were agreed to, reduced to writing, was then the seat of the general govern-experience of the new President, have of progress by pandering to all the igno- als, and weddings; at raisings, log-rollings, and signed by the parties. Reagan than ment, under the administration of Presibeen exerting a salutary influence upon rance and prejudice they can discover or grubbing frolies; in harvest fields and at opened his door, came out with a keg of dent Washington, and there, in order to slavery journal, even unto the dissolution the University, and upon the community ; manufacture-still, we will hope that the eorn huskings; in short, wherever the whiskey, and treated them all. In a short expose them and mortify their feelings, of the Union, in the following expresses and the other new instructors have proved great State want will ere long be supplied; people met, and whatever they met to do, time, however, after the whiskey was drank, they were marched through some of the a sentiment both humane and considerate great State want will ere long be supplied; people met, and whatever they met to do, time, however, after the whiskey was drank, they were marched through some of the size of In the Collegiate Department, last year, Engine will both be "abroad" in all the perilous times through which they had that the old rascal was let off too casy, upon their hats. They were afterwards journals would not dare venture. It is in 48 names have been added; in the Aca- romantic and fertile Susquehanna valley; passed, and from the very nature of the and he ought to be set up as a target to be tried in the Federal Court; two only were favor of prohibiting by law the separation demie, 60; and in the Primary, 9-117 and that thus our University may be ap employments in a new country, the peo- shot at. Some were for tarring and feath- convicted and sentenced to be hanged, the of slave families. Although the arguin all. The whole number who have preached at all times, from North, East, ple got into a habit of doing almost all ering him, but others took his part, and one for treason, and the other for intercep ments advanced to support the recommen been in attendance last year is 211, from South, or West, by one or both these me- their ordinary labor in companies, and said he had acted manfaily, and that after ting and breaking open the U.S. mail for dation are cold and calculating in charac- pare results, until we have proved corn to all parts of this State, and from New Jer diums, for more conomically and comfor these were a kind of convivial meetings capitulating with him they were bound by that greatly fostored whiskey drinking; in everything that was sacred, to treat him Government were about to take relative to truth and referm, know that every moved to add certainty to reason and analogy?

race is sometimes visited.

cars would be greeted with daily proclamations, from the Sanative Committee, to to be met and overcome, the proneness is the roots both as to the yield of fodder rather to court the calamity than to destroy and grain. As to the quantity of fodder.

Generals," (not Headley,) it becomes the stalks which would hardly sustain life ountry press to use its influence against. As to the yield of corn by the two meth

Barre Telegraph.

The Southern Press, the great radical and a stand and a stand and a stand of the s lie occasion, in his robes of magistract their tents and marched to the forks of benign influences of the press, occans of ly, in the face of his party, but true to his we think the time has arrived, when we he believed the liberty of the friendless may begin to say something about the and the stranger. Within only four months curses it inflicts, by scattering throughout from that time, that Judge was haid in his every variety of "mysteries"-a moral upon the deceased, enlarging most elothe grave facts he tanght, in his own sud-If the cholera, or any other equally de- den and melancholy decease.- Boston Be-

Harvesting Corn.

W., of Ira, N. Y., has come to the con I will not speak, but simply state the fact

If we are to be inflicted by this uncea- which has come under my observation ing flood of moral palsy, widening, and relative to the quality of corn stalks out at deepening and strengthening as it goes, the roots. Cattle will cat them at least half poured out upon us through the agency of the time in preference to good hay; surely the city press, and canctified by the name they would not be likely to turn from have of the "Author of Washington and his eating, on which they might grow fat, to it, and, for one, we shall ever esteem it a ods, I have heretofore been satisfied with part of our duty to caution this communi- forming some conclusions from reasoning ty, as well as every other, where our voice and the trials of others, and guessing at may be heard, against its influences, under the rest-a way of doing things for which And in all kindness we would council by ond a doubt, that several kinds of I will offer no apology. Yet it is decided this and all similar agents, to so far reduce grain are better, both as to quantity and the number of their calls as may be neces. quality, when cut before the kernel is hard sary to omit them altogether. Wilkes and enough is known of the nature of fruits, to make conclusions drawn from habits, out of place when applied to grain. Accurate and continued tria's are needed, by close examination into every circum stance which might affect the result particular noting of ripeness to which the before being husked. Why may not quite a number try the experiment this year, and compare notes through the medium of the Cultivator, and continue to try and com-