[From the Sept. No. of "THE KNICKERBOCKER."]

-Extract from an epistle to the Editor, from a friend summerizing at one of the many lovely coves that indent the northern shore of breezy Long-Island Sound-I must write from a spot, now sacred to the memory of a mutual friend who has lately become insane on the subject of Shanghai hens. My 'apartments is small,' consist ing only of a single room, whileme inhabited by our aforesaid insane friend. From one of my windows I can enjoy a fine view of a potato-field, while the other commands a delicious prospect of a well-house and fowl-yard. But the breeze re delicious, and fish, clams and periwinkles BY virtue of an order from the Orphans'Court is awful wholesome with respect to the breezes, and dreadful priviledged on account of the clams.' Venturing the other day to ask her how she made certain fine sausages, she rather electrified me by may be had in abundance. As Mrs. Nepturning rapidly upon me, and beginning: 'Take your in'ards, scald 'em, scrape 'em, and stuff 'em !' I changed the subject. She says she can't eat them herself, in consequence of the 'assiduity of her

-We heard a boast of a peculiar American accomplishment the other day, that would have made even our most energetic of tobacco-abolitionists laugh outright: I had n't smoked a single cigar a year ago, and now I can spit as straight as any smoker in New York, I don't care who he is!' Not unlike the brag of a big 'Wolverine' one day at the Astor-House. He was looking and 'practising' at one of the half-bushel spittoons in the gentleman's sitting-room of that vast caravansera, with an evident gout : 'That now,' said he, 'is something like an 'oon : 'I've got six o' them in my house ! Pleasant house to visit, that !

-Mr. Packenbam, late British Minister at Washington, was one day dining at the residence of Hon. Senator Barrow, of Louisiana. Before dinner, and in the temporary absence of his host from the room, Her Majesty's ambassador was accosted by an old gray-headed colored man, who was in the apartment, 'putting things to rights,' with- Massa, is you' name Packingum?' 'Yes,' said the minister. 'Was dat your brudder dat was killed at Orleans in de great battle dar ?' 'He was,' replied the ambassador. 'Well, dere !- somehow or nudder I t'ought so I was dar myse'f. I seen him popped sher wid my own eyes. Great fight, dat, massa!" While at dinner, Mr. Packenham said to Mr. Barrow, 'Your man tells me, Sir, that he was at the battle of New Orleans.' 'He was,' said Mr. Barrow, and acquitted himself manfully in that engagement;' but at the same time he ooked daggers' at the old 'seneschal' for baving broached such a subject in presence of his guest. 'He tells me, too,' continued Mr. Packenham, that he saw my brother fall.' The frown upon the host's face grew darker, and the subject was adroitly changed. The next day 'Sam' came in to Mr. Barrow with a note: 'Massa, dere's a note, and dey say dat it's for me! Eyah! e'yah! And sure enough, it was for him : moreover, it was an invitation to dine the next day with Mr. Packeuham, which he did, and was listened to with intense interest while he rehearsed the events of the great battle.

-A welcome correspondent in Pennsylvania sends us the following specimen of cool audacity in a criminal. It is the great height of his impudence that makes the story so 'tall :' Judge K-, (a) very worthy and excellent judge by the on trial a slippery gentleman, charged with the offence of passing counterfeit money. After a long and tedious trial, the jury returned a verdict of 'Not Guilty, but that the defendant pay the cost o prosecution; as they may do, under the peculiar statute of Pennsylvania. The prisoner had been tried and acquitted several times before for a like offense, leaving upon the court each time an ineffaceable conviction that he was guilty The court very dignifiedly commanded him to stand up, and pronounced sentence in accordance with the verdict, and then said : 'The court take this occasion to say to you that you had not better be again arrested and on trial in any of the counties composing the district over which we have Union Co, Pa, belonging to the estate of Isanthe honor to preside.' The prisoner, with that coolness and impudence which can only be imagined, not described, looked at the court, and said : 'Will your honor have the kindness to inform me what counties compose your judicial district?"

-Caming down the upper-deak of an Albany steamer one day, many years ago, a party of gentlemen, as the boat neared Kinderhook-Landing, were discussing the merits of Martin Van Buren. Some praised, while others condemned him; and while they were discussing the question, the boat landed and lo! Mr. Van Buren himself came on board. One of the party had been dwelling upon his non-committalism, and complaining that 'a plain answer to a plain question was never yet elicited from him," etc. "I'll wager champagne for the company," said he, at length, "that one of us shall go down now, and ask Mr. Van Buren the simplest question that can be thought of, and he will avade a direct answer. Yes : and L'H give him leave, too, to tell him why he asks the question, and that there is a bet depending or his reply!" This seemed fair snough, certainly, for to be forewarned was to be forearmed: One of the party was deputed to go down and try the experiment. He found Mr. Van Buren, whom he knew well, in the saloon, and said to him : "Mr. Van Buren, some gentlemen on the upper deck have been assuring you or for a residence and place of business. of non-committalism; and have just laid a brow contracted; he hesitated a moment; and then replied : "The terms ' east ' and west.' Mr. -- are conventional: but I ... " " That 'll do !" interrupted his in- Esq. terrogator : " we've lost the bet !"

Brown's Essence of Jamaica Ginger,

S a remedy suited to the extremes of heat and cold, and is very beneficial whenever gentle tonic and stimulating influences are required. Its stimulant property being independent of alcoholic nower, its effect as a frequent remedy need never be dreaded. While it strongthens and refreshes the debilitated in summer season, it is not less potent during the inclemency of the winter; by perming with its healthy tonic principle enabling the system to resist the influence of incipient discuses which lurk in a changing clima e. No fullily should be without it, and to travelers by land or sea it will be found invaluable to use few drops in water as a uniformly healthy and agreeable drink, without intoxecation. Caution.
