

DEMOCRATIC FLAG.

FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. FRANKLIN PIERCE, OF N. HAMPTON.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, COL. WM. R. KING, OF ALABAMA.

FOR CONGRESS, GEN. CHRISTIAN SEILER, OF DAUPHIN.

Democracy to the Polls. We can not too strongly urge upon the Democracy the vital importance of closing up the ranks...

Judge Woodward's spotless purity of private life, his brilliant talents, and profound legal attainments, eminently qualify him for the high judicial station which he now occupies...

Another Convert from Whiggery. At a most enthusiastic meeting of the Pierce and King Club, of this place, on Saturday evening last, Dr. WILLIAM HARRIS, formerly a resident and, we believe, a native of this county, but now living in Carlisle, Pa., in a brief and eloquent address...

We are informed that Mr. Webster lately remarked to a young lady of this State, substantially as follows: "There is no Whig party left; it is broken up entirely. If you wish to be anything, you must be a Democrat."

The Whig Standing Committee of Union County have resolved to present a BANNEK to the Election District giving the largest increased proportional majority for SCOTT & KING.

On Friday, Col. REAM FRANKLIN of Millburg addressed a large meeting at Millburg and the same evening this energetic champion of Democracy, by special invitation, gave our citizens a brief taste of his fiery and impetuous eloquence...

The Whig Standing Committee of Union County have resolved to present a BANNEK to the Election District giving the largest increased proportional majority for SCOTT & KING.

This is about the richest political nation we have heard of this fall; and however promising it may sound, should be largely calculated to procure a loud laugh at home. A safer offer for the pockets of the Committee could not well be made...

The Speeches of Messrs. Casey and Pollock at the Whig meeting in the Town Hall, were listened to with patient attention, but we have never heard speeches from these gentlemen so full of inconsistencies and transparent sophistry...

Another Rebuke. Gen. Wm. H. Irwin, of Lewistown, the Whig candidate for congress in that district, made a speech last week at a Whig meeting in Williamsport, a portion of which, is thus spoken of by the Leaning Gazette:

"Gen. Irwin took occasion to speak a few words in regard to the charge of cowardice made against Gen. Pierce, which did him infinite credit as a high-toned gentleman and a chivalrous and generous soldier. Our brave whigs had paraded, on his left hand, their banner with the inscription 'Fight but don't Faint'; but the indignant soldier could not restrain his outraged sense of honor, at the unblushing indignity offered to a brave companion in arms, and he scouted with scorn and contempt the authors and propagators of this foul and calumnious falsehood. If we shall hereafter be able to recall to our mind his eloquent and scathing words we shall reprint them as still another evidence of the truth in regard to Gen. Pierce and the contemptible malignity of little-minded partisanship. This castigation was no where better deserved than where it was received, and we hope it will be remembered."

At a most enthusiastic meeting of the Pierce and King Club, of this place, on Saturday evening last, Dr. WILLIAM HARRIS, formerly a resident and, we believe, a native of this county, but now living in Carlisle, Pa., in a brief and eloquent address, openly and above board renounced the doctrine of federalism, and declared himself for PIERCE and KING. His speech, throughout, was such a tribute to the nation and the signed policy of the Democratic party, such a triumphant endorsement of democratic measures, past and present, and such an open, manly and frank recognition of former errors of opinion, as we have no idea we shall ever hear again. We welcome him, as those who heard him did, with hearty cheers, as a new and efficient member of the great Democratic family.

There is no Whig party left; it is broken up entirely. If you wish to be anything, you must be a Democrat.
