H. C. HICKOK, EDITOR.

O. N. WORDEN, PRINTER.

AN INDEPENDENT PANILT JOURNAL.

Issued on FRIDAY mornings at Lewisburg.

JB WORK and casual saveteement in the many second and subjects of general interest not within the range of party or sectaring cases.

All letters must come post-paid, accompanied by the real address of the writer, to receive attention. By Those relating exclusively to the Editorial Department, to be discipled in the second and there are business to O. N. Wenner, Publisher.

Keep up a Good Heart.

Keep up a good heart! and look forth to the morrow. Don't turn to the past, it may serve to depress; The ills of to-day, for the future will berrow A summer of gladness, to strengthen and bless Be firm as the rock that in ocean is planted, Be brave as the tempest that faces the storm ; Go forth, with the step of a here undaquated, Keep Home for thy compass, and life heating warm.

Keep up a good heart! it is useless repining. See glimpses of light on the track of lift yet;
Be hoping and striving, not always distining
A pathway to sorrow, with thorus ill-beset.
This better to watch for the rainbow that shineth, "Each cloud bath a fragment of silver that lin ti,"

Keep up a good heart! never sluggishly wasting Go forward to duty, press on, and he tasting, 'Tis true, we must travel o'er many a mountain, And pant with the life-lead of wearisome care; Yet deep in the valley there gushes a fountain;

Keep up a good heart! 'tis the best way to lighten The yele of existence, whatever thy let; Ere daybreak 'tis darkest—the morning will brighten; Hold fast the assurance, and firm'y relying, Fear not, then wilt resp the remard of the just; There's peace and there's pleasure—a comfort unitying, Who, true to their conscience, make II sycantheir trust in him that he seemed all unfit for any ac. envy it. knowledge with a wild passion. Nature gentle eloquence, and when the subject thoughts. outfit and success in life.

A REVERIE,

AND YET NOT ALL A REVERIE. BY E. W. WEAVIR, 190

ly mood, when he spent a week or two at ca. And so the dream wis yet a dream. feet high, and another on the south-east that chance is nothing, and can be the the home of his youth. He wished the And now Edgar went to Europe, for his corner, over one hundred feet in height. cause of nothing. It is a word which inrambled through Elysian Fields and fair so fair a temple.

LEWISSIRG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1852.

Union county, Peansylvania.

TRE WS $\frac{1}{2}$ for paid within there mounths; $\frac{2}{2}$ of frost paid before the year expires; 5 cents for single annubars. Subscriptions for six months are expired at 50 cents per Pathlisher, except when the year is paid up.

Abreamsylvania, one week, $\frac{1}{2}$ for a year, $\frac{1}{2}$ for a year. Bereaming more dependently and the stars of the stars of the past in all its forms is proved to be an absurdity, like every other species of marble, and of perfect form like the statue river, the night before I came up, when glittering saphires and diadems, but in her cold and soulless mass, and to beat a response to the truthful throb of love. So sloop, cut her in two, and the sloop and spirate, one week, $\frac{1}{2}$ for a year. Bereaming upon him from her eyes with JOB WORK and casual aivertisements to be paid for when handed in or delivered.

The great are Falling from us.

Another sad necident accurred on the gittering saphires and diadems, but in her cold and soulless mass, and to beat a response to the truthful throb of love. So sloop, cut her in two, and the sloop and all hands sunk immediately, the rapidity soul casual aivertisements to be paid for when handed in or delivered.

The great are falling from us.

T a radiance that shamed the pale stars. In divinity of the dream was not yet come. As we passed the Cattskill Mountains, rested to Hexar C. Hector, Eq., Eddor—and those on the child's heart. It thrilled him now his uncle, and of course found changes trees and bushes. Mr. Foster, whose rebushess to O. N. Wonnes, Publisher.

Office on Market street, between second and Third, over the Post Office.

O. N. Wonnes, Propriete.

in the storm and now southed him like a main-mast, towered above.

Which, like a main-mast, towered above. the valley of his boyhood. Her words fell and thoughts, though but little more mark. The crops have come in finely. Potatoes on his heart like the dew on the withering ed by years; for time in life is to be meas. are better, and more plenty than for many And Marshfield's giant Oak, whose stormy brow cotemporaneous state of invention in the recently discovered; and although the and eyes and heart to heaven, and prayed tion, and so never advances in life; while your Institution at Lewisburg. Every reached to press the angel-sister to his bo- wild, thoughtless girl he had left just bud- national edifice. Yours truly, S. T.

search for the spirit of his fantasy. True, ness. his dream. He next met me in the city, that way. believed she was the being of his dream. ness and goodness, when the elements of of his own nature. her melody charmed many an evil spirit that he longs to find and worship. Around a being who had the intelligence to conher melody charmed many an evil spirit that he longs to find and worship. Around from wickedness, and lighted the load of many a heart that before was as miserable many and thus unconsciously create a did Mr. Webster choose his laminy grave did Mr. Webster choose his laminy grave did Mr. Webster choose his laminy grave marging and thus unconsciously create a did Mr. Webster choose his laminy grave did Mr. Webster choose his laminy of what the world calls the "practical" while every one praised it, no one dared dishonor. After looking in vain for a far-and blood. He had piled up an immeas. charmer better, and found that her tongue the unassuming, virtuous and modest friends hypotheses of Atheists: and blood. He had piled up an immeasurable fund of learning, and garnered up was only an artful one; and though her whom I know best-I find the vision of larning, and garnered up was only an artful one; and though her whom I know best-I find the vision of larning. lips were sweet, her heart was filled with my dream realized in-ELGERIA." eternal series. opened her great storchouse of hidden se- bitterness. Her song was learnt-not felt. Star of the North. crets to his unwearied toil, until he lived The Siren was a cunning woman, and not upon these as a miser gloats over his gold. the good sister of angels. In sadness Ed-His tongue was of the most persuasive, yet gar turned again to his books and his

he was poor, and depended upon the liber. At length he would meet the being of his Court Room. he was poor, and depended upon the thorshity of a generous uncle for his education, prophecy, and his life should be henceforth | The new edifice erected by the First infinite numbers, for each of the series is | Given under my hand and the great Seal and upon his own unaided energy for his a holiday of sunshine and smiles. He vis- Presbyterian Church, in place of the one supposed to contain an infinite number. of State, at Harrisburg, this twenty-fifth ited the home of the authoress, and though burnt about two years since, is now com- There must have been an infinite number day of October, in the year of our Lord tered the farm house, its respectability and So waxed on the college days of my he found her a lady of brillian genius, he pleted, and is to be dedicated to-morrow. of men. So of plants and animals, which one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, dignity will be confessed. Its occupants sion of law. Little Elgeria, a bright-eyed of the poem he had read. A friend told the model of Grace Church, in New York, numbers, ward of Edgar's uncie, was much wont to him the secret-that the porm was written and has cost over $50,000. It has a tower 2nd. That their existence is casual. tease the wayward student in his unfriend. by a younger sister, and she was-in heav- on the south-west corner, two hundred. This is disproved by the considerations, child, (she was only fourteen,) was a little failing health warned him to leave his The New York Baptist Register-which dicates the absence of any known cause. more thoughtful, for her ringing laugh books. One morning at Rome there came has been published at Utica for the State and signifies merely an ignorance of that his mind communed with unseen spirits heart. In the evening Edgar went into mains commander. The Register has production. carth. When the cold world passed an the dim religious light of the chapel her tion, as the Convention were in debt. This hypothesis is disproved, from the determined on a joke. unfeeling and unjust judgment, Edgar beauty impressed Edgar as if the spirit of Gen. Scott passed through this place last fact, that matter is confessedly without inturned away sorrowing and sad to the betturned away sorrowing away sorrowing away sorrow ter spirits in his own heart. But as he same! And he doubted no longer when somewhat fatigued from his exciting jour- tinuation of it in future, could impart to made a kick. ter spirits in his own heart. But as he same. And at doubter he whole appearance of this sepulchre, was human, in time he began to wonder her voice joined in the Ie deum, for only ney, and as friend after friend pressed it a property, which it had not originally, "Leave that rat alone," yelled Pat, as importance of intelligence, wisdom and the whole appearance of this sepulchre, with the world distinguish to word the whole appearance of this sepulchre. The only thing which would distinguish whether there was no human similitude of the scraph of his dream could have such a through the crowd to greet the hand that at least no excellence. This might be if angre. that guardian spirit of goodness and kind- voice! He learned more of young Agnes had grown old in its country's service, he said, although matter were eternal. But "Leave that rat alone," repeated the ness which alone then had dispelled his next day. She was of a noble Roman requested the numerous crowd to squeeze matter is not eternal, and therefore can not Hoosier, looking at Pat with his mouth full ative interest. ness which alone then had dispelled his next day. Call was now stricken to decay by it softly. A friend pleasantly repeated his be the cause of all things. In supposing of bologna, "what do you want a feller to Col. Isaac Wayne, the only son of revered name of but felt, and which alone, as yet, he had p verty. Her parents were old and fee- request, and remarked that though his matter to be eternal, we must suppose its leave that alone fur?" ble, and lived in the rains of a palace that body was scarred and shattered in his properties and powers to be eternal; but "Because it belongs to me, and I will Revolutionary War, died on Monday last Here repose all that is left of him who so But his dreams were not always those of was failing and falling like themselves .- country's service, yet his heart was whole. if its properties and powers are eternal, it not have it abused." But his dreams were not always those of was failing and failing fine themselves.—

The generous girl had become a menial, why is not moral worth more respected must always have produced, what it is now fitting place to lay him? Plymouth Book the rule outer world was closed from bis and sold flowers now on the public high- by political opponents? I have thought, supposed to have produced in every varie- you want with rats?" vision. In one of these a sylph of loveli- way to serve and save her parents. Edgar in view of the slanders so freely circulated, ty. Consequently men, animals, trees, &c. ness and light was his companion, and he often visited the old ruins, and every time that if every slanderer was gagged, as they must have been produced in the same order and right nice ones they make, too." ness and light was his companion, and he offer visited the off thanks and there must have listened to the meledy of her voice as it found new charms in Agnes. Her skin were in Mexico under the Mexican Govern-that they now are, and there must have and bears upon its bosom numerous vessels. listened to the meledy of her voice as it lound new charms in Agues. Her rain were in interior in the and bears upon its bosom numerous vessels of them, emptying his mouth of its contents, and State Senate, besides holding other offices. of commerce, whose tenants, as they anterechoed the highest and holiest thoughts of was as fair as the purest marble, ner form ment, for that crime, both pointers marble, ner form ment, for the crime, both pointers marble, ner form birds of brightest plumage made the grove thing, and Rome is a wonderful place .- to the hour, and so quietly that you can seems to be, there must be a self-existent thousand righest hues, but she was fairest Broglio, who was now dead. The rumor The cars are so convenient, that three perof them all. There were perfumes ... took more certain chape, and Agnes soon sous were seated on one seat, to gentle and creation must have added to the sum tender I him by Pres Pillmore.

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE trancing rapture in those gardens, but her dazzled the Holy City with breath that fell upor his face was more well as with her beauty. And wealth as man (?) between two young ladies, recli- of existence, and must have been "the dered through groves where the stars of a Circean charmer, and though fair as the laughing stock of the passen> the gentle murmuring of a little rivulet in Elgeria grown much older in sentiments a popular practical dentist in Utica. flower-like the voice of friendship on the ured by events, emotions, and the beats of years. The warm fall rains have assisted ear of the long-lost stranger. They knelt the heart, rather than by the ticks of the vegetation, and relieve our farmers from down together on the mossy ground, and, pendulum. The sluggish mind never learns much anxiety. as he clasped her hands in his, raised hands a new thought, or experiences a new emo- I am happy to hear of the prosperity of to the great and good All-Father that they the fitful and feverish child of nerve be- morally educated man, (like a well polished might never be less happy than then. He comes prematurely old. Edgar found the stone in a building.) adds strength to our som, but she had fled-the vision had van- ding into womanhood. She was as much improved in person as in mind; and while From this time Edgar's whole life be- she was modest and good, if she ever erred came a dream, and he lived only in the it was upon the side of charity and kind-but his passion was for the realization of gent invitation I visited him as I came cause, which is either self-existent and pled presperity has attended the peaceful for advancing agriculture. The greatest inal founders sought place of sepulture

For the Lewisburg Chronicle UTICA, Oct. 18, 1852.

Arcadian Groves, and though a thousand But the gift of beauty is a dangerous road. The cars move from 30 to 40 miles If this reasoning be conclusive, as it taste out."

grateful and sweeter than all. They wantruth burst upon Edgar that she was the dered through groves when the shoulder of one, but making of something out of nothing."

To the Vermont State Agricultural Fair.

her speech was the gorgeous imagery of I next met my friend in Boston, on his we noticed the two highest points were her speech was the gorgeous imagery of I next met my friend in Boston, on his we noticed the two inguists of the poet, and yet the simple frankness of return from Europe. He came to re-visit white with rnow, lodged doubtless on the the poet, and yet the simple frankness of return from Europe. He came to re-visit white with rnow, lodged doubtless on the Gaze on each vacant space for contaries.

The winds shall seek them vaints and the sun in farming as in other pursuits, to substitute the first pursuits arrangements were made by gent each vacant space for contaries. in the storm, and now soothed him like comed him very kindly; and Edgar found years since, astonished the public, is now

The Origin of the Universe.

Every thing or event in the series, is have been many infinite series, i. e. many voke the continuance of His goodness.

as soli—such thoughts as ne man gin, and the soul that smiled kindly from and dumb-founded culprits.

This conclusion is unavoidable, of his arm could send it, hastened to the federal party in 1814, in opposition home and tomb of Webster—ever single self been afraid to utter. With her he out her dark eyes, seemed a fit tenant for I have just returned from a trip to New unless we suppose matter to have existed, nearest groggery for a three cent drams, to, to Gov. Snyder. York by way of the Hudson River Rail- without its present known properties. as he expressed it, " take the darned ratty an absurdity, like every other species of alluding to the early history of Vermont, From the highly interesting letters of the

The great are falling from as—one by one,
As fail the patriarchs of the forest trees:

Which, like a main-mast, towered above her

But in time Edgar came to know his bome of my boyhood; and here—among the following are some of the principal the world, and eminently prosperous. The had in view: free institutions of our government have seventh.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

E. S. GOODRICH. Dep. See'y of the Commonwealth.

Did n't Like the Meat.

Address of Hon. Wm. H. Seward

as is the culture of the fields and flocks in ceremony. Although Daniel Webster did Our ang droops midway, full of many sighs; any community, so is always the culture not meet his death at the seat of Govern-A nation's glory and a people's trust

Lie in the ample pair where Wassera lies. stowed. He considered it essential that his country, the privilege of providing for the business of the farmer should be made the rites of burial in the country's name. tute mechanical power for human labor. connected with the State Department, who realin;
A constant and uniform relation

And Ashlued hears no more the voice divine, always be maintained between the state family in all the details. The body was From out the branches of her stately Eim. of agriculture, and indeed of society, and the embalmed soon after death, by a process Oft turned the ocean tempest from the West.

Lies on the shore he guarded long—and now,
Our startled Eagle knows not where to rest! dition of American industry as exhibited attended the burial could look once more at the World's Fair, and argued the neces- upon the features of the great departed. Thanksglving Day-A Proclamation. sity of increased attention to manufactu- His last resting-place is on the hill Fellow Citizens: The Al- ring interests. If farmers would distin- north-west of the mansion, where were mighty and merciful God has guish the generation to which they belong, situated the chapel and burial ground of --) continued his guardianship over they must have a wiser and more enlight- the days of '70. The former, some hunour Commonwealth during the year that ened system of agriculture. This prevail- dred and fifty years ago, was removed is past. Except in a single community ing indifference to agricultural science can about two miles to the west, near its preswhich claims our sympathies, "The pesti- not be suffered to continue. Other nations ent site, and where, in consequence of nat-The argument a priori, for the existence lence that walketh in darkness, and the are busy in improving their systems of ural advantages of location, the town of of God, assumes the principle, that nothing destruction that wasteth at noon-day," has agriculture, and will continue to improve, Marshfield is chiefly settled. The old can begin to exist without a cause. And not had his leave to smits. Health has and we must not neglect to follow, or still grave yard has not been used during the then from our own existence, of which we generally prevailed. The tumult of interhe still searched for hidden lore in the great black-letter books of bygone ages, eternal, or dependent upon one which is pursuits of our citizens. "Seed time and want is that of pupils. No one wishes to among the venerated ashes. The graves and I thought he had again seen his guar
"It is a great mistake," said he to me s. This self-existent being we call God, harvest has returned; our garners have study agriculture—the farmer's sons are all marked with slabs of slate stone; dian spirit. He had heard and seen one one evening, "to be forever looking afar who, as he exists without any antecedent been filled with the finest of the wheat.— adverse to it generally. They do not inwho was idolized as the spirit of song, and off among the subjects of Fame for great. Cause, must exist frem an eternal necessity Our cup of blessings has overflowed. The educational institutions of our Common-against farming is hereditary. The far-ed only with great difficulty. Now that it He was entranced with her melody, and worshipped her as the divinity of his dawnworshipped her as the divinity of his dawnworship dayner has the dawnworshipped her as the divinity of his dawning day of gladness. The world, too, wor- looks in novelty for superior excellencies, phenomena of nature around us. From elevating our National character. General regard it as an humble, laborious, toilsome brow of the burial hill was the precise site shipped her as the genius of music; and when he has within himself the germ of all thence it infers the necessity of a designer, intelligence and morality are on the adone; they fret about its privations and of the old church-building; and just there

I often wondered for what good purpose on earth nature had designed my young on earth nature had designed my young as a lost-soul. Her singing was such that upon Divine Wisdom to believe, as too mind assumes, itself, that these objects ter its consolations to the contribute and pure, led from the farmer's fireside: and the on earth nature had designed my young as a lost-soul. Her singing was such that and the friend Edgar Lincoln. He had so little it seemed the only thing on earth which, and the of his tomb, except between it and the friend Edgar Lincoln. He had so little it seemed the only thing on earth which, and the of his tomb, except between it and the farmer's fireside; and the friend Edgar Lincoln. He had so little it seemed the only thing on earth which, and the only thing on earth which, and the farmer's fireside; and the farmer's fireside; and the of his tomb, except between it and the original to believe, as too can neither be the effect of chance, or of and inspire them with the hopes of immor-farmer and his wife must do this themselves. It is as true in this case as in the ing to break the view; and Mr. Webster, off mysterious shrine, I am again in the never written, nor a house built by chance. As a nation, we are at peace with all more practical one which the rustic poet while lying on his bed of death, in a secand a brighter promise dawns upon the stituted and highly advanced society like ing the progress of improvements, there, The absurdity of this theory is thus future. To God, most great and good, we ours, intellectual cultivation relieves men he had but recently ordered. The size owe all our blessings. To him our thanks from labor, but it does not at all exempt of the lot is about forty feet square. Some them from labor, but it does not at all ex- fifteen feet from the front, and towards the dependent on some other thing or event, Under this solemn conviction, and in empt them from the practice of industry; respective sides of the plot, stand three and consequently the whole is dependent. conformity with the wishes of many good and that notwithstanding the current use plain marble columns—two on the let FRIEND WORDEN: As the "Empire" If the whole is dependent, then it is not citizens, I, WILLIAM BIGLET, GOVERNOR of the figures of speech, "wearied limbs, and one on the right. The columns are gentle cloquence, and when the subject thoughts.

One day he read the poem of a gifted and the "Keystone" States are neighbors, self-existent or eternal. Again, each better the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do sweating brows, hardened sinews, and about four feet high, resting on granite. music of his words would burn conviction music of his lost vision I should be reight of his lost vision I sh music of his words would burn conviction on the mind of an auditor, but the large when he found the spirit of his lost vision on the mind of an auditor, but the large when he found the spirit of his lost vision on the mind of an auditor, but the large when he found the spirit of his lost vision on the mind of an auditor, but the large when he found the spirit of his lost vision on the mind of an auditor, but the large avocation in our country that rewards so marble. The stone nearest the centre on al Thanksgiving and Prayer throughout liberally with health, wealth and honor, a the realization of his dream. These were The United States Hotel in this city, a Again, of every individual in the series, the State, and carnestly beseech the citigiven application of well-directed industry, animation, and fascinate with a resistless there words, for thus had she spoken to him large brick edifice, built originally, as you it may be said that each had a beginning, zens of the Commonwealth, of all classes, as does that of the farmer. If he is surcould have understood his mission; for his in the ramble of the memorable dream; remember, for a Theatre, is now leveled but if every individual had a beginning, that, setting aside all worldly business on passed by persons in other pursuits, it is beart, when he opened it to your gaze, was heart, when he opened it to your gaze, was and he read again and again with new asheart, when he opened it to your gaze, was a mine of beneficence and kindness. But sucance, new hope and a new recognition. commodious City Hall, and United States existed in an eternal series, there must Almighty God for His blessings, and in- to his own, but because, while he has negleeted education and training, they took

So waxed on the college days of my friend, and he began to study the profes. saw at once that she was not the authoress. The imposing structure, I learn, is after involves the absurdity of several infinite and of the Commonwealth the seventy-will regard their dwellings and grounds not as scenes of irksome and humiliating labor, but as their own permanent home, and the homestead of their children and their posterity. Affections unknown before, and new-born emulation will sug-Pat Flannery is not only an efficient of gest motives to improvement, embellishseemed to him so very wild, and she in her to him a young flower-girl of most won- Convention about thirty years-has been which occasioned, or produced any partic- ficer, but something of a wag. Fond of a ment, refinement, with the introduction of merry romp so very regardless of the feel- drous loveliness, and in the sweetest voice transferred to A. M. Beebe, L. L. D., (who ular phenomena. Experience is against good joke, he never misses the opportunity useful and elegant studies and arts, which ings of others more sedate than herself .- asked him to buy a nosegay. He gave her has for twenty-seven years been its Editor,) this hypothesis. We know of nothing of playing one. A few evenings since, he And yet in his kindness he always forgave a piece of money, took her flowers; and for $2,500 -a fair sum for the name and that ever took place by chance, but many was sitting on the Uncle Sam corner fronther, and went again to his books and his her eyes brightened up as she tripped along "good will" only, without a type, or press, things we have observed to occur by intenthe marble pavement with a lighter step. or scrap of paper. It is understood that tion or design. The regularity everywhere deck hand passed him holding in one hand and satisfactory to their ambition. Then to be brought and deposited here immedi-In his aspirations for the beautiful and Next morning she came again with fresh he will continue the present publisher discernible in the works of nature, is a clear an 'acre' of gingerbread, and in the other the good Edgar became an enthusiast, and nosegays, and again went off with a merry (Mr. Bennett) at the helm, while he restep he would satisfy the cravings of his conferred on candidates for professional alized. At the back of the family burial who profuned not his holy thoughts by a little chapel, and among the many who been an influential paper, and the sale to Srd. That the universe occas its existence with a bite from each of the aforesaid arletting them touch any ignoble thing of came to vespers was the flower-girl. By Mr. Beebe is pleasing to the denomination of nature.

call for increased attention to the coaserv-

Major General Anthony Wayne, of the at his residence in Chester county, in the nobly represented that name. Is it not a excellent citizen and well worthy of the is almost in sight of his tomb. The Pil-"Make belogna sausages of them, sir, distinguished name he bore. In early grims rest all about him; and the oceantimes he took a prominent part in the pol- which spreads before the extended view, merry with their minstrelsy, her voice And now there came dark whispers that read or converse with great case, and at and eternal being, who is the cause, a crewarbled more gently in his ear than any Agnes was a Counters, and had when very the same time feel safe—a result long ator of all beings and things besides himor all others. There were flowers of the young been wedded to a wealthy Count wished for, and now gratified on this road, self. This being must exist distinct from to Great Britain, has, after deliteration, no public display. He shook hands very of an early proclamation of the Empire. ly proceeded to his residence.

WHOLE NUMBER, 447.

VOLUME IX -NO. 27.

The Resting Place of Webster. Yesterday all that was " mortal of Dan-Ex. Gov. Seward, of New York, after IEL WEBSTER" was consigned to the tomb. its natural advantages, and the proofs of correspondent of the New York Times, her industry and prosperity around him, written from Marshfield, we make some said-To improve agriculture is wise; for, further extracts connected with the sad A constant and uniform relation must have studied the express wishes of the oud-story room looking out upon the north, The wife test must husband, as well as the man, or fareaed thy husbandry, do what thou can."

Let them remember that in a well conted for himself, and spent hours in watch-

"GRACE WEBSTER, Wife of Daniel Webster Born January 16, 1781, Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

The adjoining stone is sacred to the me of Mr. Webster's daughter-

"Jetta Waneran. Samuel Appleton Appleton. Born January 18, 1818.

Let me go, for the day breaketh." The column to the right commemorates-" Major Enwann Wensten. Born July 28, 1820.

in the military service of his country.

January 23d, 1848.

A dearly beloved son and brother." The remains of these members of the as rigorous as that endured by those who lies six feet below the natural level of the The speaker alluded to the political ered with a luxuriant sod, forming a green importance of intelligence, wisdom and the whole appearance of this sepulcire. pansion of our country will, year by year, it as a place of unusual interest is, the small, plain, marble slab over the door, on which are inscribed, in bold characters, the bis mournful requiem.

THE HON. ABBOTT LAWRENCE arrived We learn by late Fereign Arrivals. at Boston in the steamship Niagara, on that Louis Napoleon has returned from Napoleon III , it me only can determ ..