Old Folks at Home.

AS SUNG BY E. P. CHRISTY, OF THE CHRISTY MINSTREES.

Way down upon the Shawnee river, Far, far away: There's where my heart is turning ever, There's where the old folks stay. All up and down the whole creation, Sadly I roam; Still longing for the old plantation, And for the old 5 lks at home.

Gitonts. All the world is sail and dreary,

Everywhere I roam : Oh! brothers, how my heart grows weary, Far from the old folks at home!

All 'round the little farm I wandered. When I was young: There many happy days I squandered--Many the songs I sung. When I was playing with my brother,

Happy was 1; Oh, take me to my kind old mother, There let me live and dis.

All the world is sad and dreary, &c. One little hut among the bushes, One that I love,

One that I love. Still sadly to my memory rushes, No matter where I row. When will I hear the bees a humming, All 'round the comb? When will I hear the ruitsr tumming, Down in my good old home?

All the world is sad and dreary, Everywhere I roam : Oh! brothers, how my heart grows weary, Far from the old folks at home!
