Wit and humor.

From the "Knickerbocker" for January.

Some two miles up the river from St Johnsbury, Vt., is a primitive sort of a little village called "The Center." Here not long since the youth of the vicinity congregated for a dance. One interesting young man, having imbibed too freely, became "fatigued" during the evening, and wisely concluded to retire for a time A door a-jar near the dancing-hall revealed, invitingly, a glimpse of a comfortable bed, of which he took possession. It so inppened, however, that this was the ladies' withdrawing-room, and no sooner had he closed his eyes, than a pair of blooming damsels came in from the hall, and began adjusting their disordered ringlets, the dim light of the tallow-candle not disclosing the tenant of the bed. The girls had tongues (like most of their "seck") which ran on in this wise : " What a nice dance we're having! Have you heard anybody say anything about me, Jane?" " Lau, yes, Sally, Jim Brown says he never see you look so handsome as you do to-night.

Have you heard anybody say anything about me?" "About you—why sertin."

Brown's Essence of Jamaica Ginger I S a remedy suited to the extremes of heat and cold, and is very beneficial whenever gentle tonic and stimulating influences are required. Its stimulant property being independent of alcoholic power, its effect as a frequent remedy need never be dreaded. While it strengthens and refreshes the debilit ted in summer season, it is not less potent during the inclemency of the winter; by warming with its healthy tonic principle enabling the system to resist the influence of incipient diseases which lurk in a changing climate. No family should be without it, and to travelers by land or sea it will be found invaluable to use few drops in water as a uniformly healthy and agreeable drink, without intoxication. Caution.
