HARRISDURG, Jan. 8, 1853. Mr. Editor: On leaving you, Friday night, I promised to drop a line if I had time. At Northumberland, I met with that noble specimen of humanity, David Taggart, Esq , who informed me that the

Northumberland County Agricultural Society would probably not fix the time of their next Fair until the April or the siness in earnest, and as nearly two-thirds August Court. So that your Union County of its Members are fresh hands at the work, Society must " take their own time," and Northumberland must conform to it. There may be many Members to your Officers of the Pennsylvania Legisla-Society obtained on the other side of the
