of Union county. This was done to enable them to cross over to Muney and proceed thence to Williamsport on that side of the river, in case the S. & E. road should cross to this side at the Muncy Hills. We speak by authority when we say that the Susquehanna road will now be completed to Williamsport regardless of the movements of all other companies. The Susquebauna company has now succeeded in fully accomplishing every measure undertaken to build up and strengthen this great enterprise; and the local intrigues and assaults of the S. & E. Company, have at all points as signally failed. We congratulate the friends of the road, and of Union Co. interests, upon this auspicious and gratifying result.
