No paper was issued from this office last week.

The proceedings of several division meetings south of the creek, will be found on the first page. They indicate an intelligent zeal and perseverence on this subject worthy of imitation in other parts of the county, where the public opinion is equally settled and decided in favor of the division, but less pains have been taken to satisfy the law-making power of that fact. It is not enough that the people wish an enactment of this character, if they neglect to furnish the legislature with satisfactory evidence, in some shape or other, that they are in favor of it, and are in earnest about it. Wherever there are petitions yet back, they should be forwarded to Harrisburg, at once, and without delay. We burg, at once, and without delay. We

By Balance due Treasurer by County

Order, No. 322, drawn by the County Commissioners for two hundred dollars as a retaining fee to Isaac Sionker and James Pollock, Esquires, in the case of patition of the Sucquehanna Railroad Company for a Mandamus on the County Commissioners and paid by the Treasur, the Auditors reject on the ground that the order was unauthorized, inasmuch as the application is made to compel the Commissioners to perform what is alleged by the Relators to be a part of their official duty, and if such view should be sustained, the expenses of resisting it should be borne by the Commissioners themselves, and also on the ground that the Attorneys were retained without any agreement as to the amount of their compensation and with the privilege of making as large an additional charge as they might see proper. But being paid, the drawers should have the amount refunded to the Treasurer. See minutes of the Commissioners and voucher on which said order was issued. MMEDIATELY, a Journeyman Watchma ker.
