BE It is only laving up 'the profit of a loss' to attempt to go ahead in business, in this age of the world, without advertising. A sign-board is of small account unless multiplied indefinitely through the public press, and your business and location thus brought to the notice of thousands, instead of dozens. The Chronicle has a much larger circulation than any other secular paper in Union county, and is therefore by all odds the best advertising medium in this locality. If people will neglect to profit and prosper from facilities neglect to profit and prosper from facilities thus readily accessible, they at least can M'Farland, M'Murtrie, Quiggle, Robertson, not blame the printer for their want of luck.
