A very good plan to obtain early peas is to tack two boards slightly together, so as to make a trough shaped like a V. Into this put earth, and then plant your peas in it and put in a warm situation. These will come up and grow, and may be protected until the weather is sufficiently warm deep to admit the trough, which may be put into it. Pull the nails out of the boards, press the earth up against the outside of them and then slip them out, leaving the row of peas in the trench, all ready to go ahead in their growth. We have frequently practised this with good success .- Maine Farmer.

THE ONLY TRUE PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON.

TUST published, T.B. WELCH's magnificent Portrait of WARRANGE TON -engra-ved (by permission) from Struart's unity origired (by permission) from Strant's only original portrait, in the Athanaeum, Boston.

This superb picture, engraved under the superintend-ence of THOMAS SELLY, Eng., the eminent and highly giftet artist, is the only correct likeness of Washington ever politiched. It has been characterized as the greatest work of art ever produced in this country. As to its fallifly, we refer to the letters of the adopted son of Washington, Gionae Washington Passac Cerrs, whereas, "it is a faithful representation of the celebrated original," and to Court Juantill's server of the Superine Court of the United States, who ways, "As a work of art its excellence and beauty must artike every one who sees it; and its moles happy in its likeness to the Father of his country. It was my good fertune to have soon him in the days of my beynhood, and his whole appearance is yet atmostly impressed on my memory. The portrait you have lessed appears to me to be an exact blowers, representing perfectly the expression as well as the form and features of the face. And easy Spavor Cost, it is a life like representation of the great original. Financies of this source, which is dimirably executed and ensimply worky of the partoning of the politic. Say Manishar, the siminar work is admirably executed and ensimply worky of the partoning of the politic.
