FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 29, 1853

A DVERTIZE! Executors, Administrators, Public Officers, City and Country Merchants, Manufacturers, Mechanics, Business Meu—all who wish to procure or to dispass of anything—would do well to give notice of the same through the "Lewisbury Chronicle." This paper has a good and inoccasing circulation in a community containing as large a proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers, and dealers, as any other in the State.

New Advertisements. Dr. Locke and Daniel Schrack have removed their quarters—Ladies' Shoes at E. Fisher's—S. & D. Slifer, a new Boot and Shoe establishment—and NEW GOODS of various kinds at Walls', Hayes', Iddings', Tustin's, Spykers', Reber & Vorse's, Beaver's, Browns', Halipenny's, &c., &c.

Several very responsible and experienced Contractors were at the Letting in this place on Wednesday last, and bids were made for the whole line as well as Miss Sanau Pisuen of White Deer. ; for sections. We may learn the result in season for our next week's issue.

graph Company has extended its line to Harrisburg, and is now in connection with Baltimore, having offices at Schinsgrove, Chapman, M'Kees, Dauphio, York, and other towns. We may give definite information as to rates, &c., next week.

Rev. E. W. DICKINSON, of Lewisburg, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Union Baptist church, Pittsburg, to execute an eroes of the Union Baptist church, Pittsburg, to execute an eroes of etc., and attend to Repairing as usual.

Lewisburg, April 24, 1853 pd on Sunday morning next. Mr. D. will leave many friends both as a preacher and as a citizen.

We observe by the Reading papers that Prof. ALFRED TAYLOR, of the Lewisburg University, delivered a lecture on Music at that place the other evening which elicited warm encomiums from his auditors. The Prof. is an accomplished writer and speaker, and will justly receive a cordial reception wherever he may lecture, during his present flying tour for recreation and health.

Bills vetoed by him There were about 900 bills originated in the House, and about 800 in the Senate. Many of these were for the same object, and many were passed together as an "omnibus," but probably half of those prepared, failed of being enseted into laws.

The PUBLISHER of the Chronicle would express his gratification on reaching Gaiters, half-Gaiters, etc. his home and friends, to find his affairs so well managed in his absence, and his office so comfortably housed. Three months-short as the space of time issees great changes made. Many in that merit it. time have been removed by death or emigration; and strange faces are in their stead. Our subscription book also has a dush for a few whose names were more familiar than their faces; but their places are doubly supplied by new patrons. We can hardly realize where we are, when standing on the ruits of the old building used as our printing-office, (one of the oldest tenements in town, and whose someest tenements in town, and whose some-what eventful history should be recorded H Cash or in exchange for country produce in its annals)-and see before us the remains of the only dwelling-house ever consumed by fire in Lewisburg, and of those razed to the ground to make room for more imposing fabries. Change is the destiny of man ; and improvement is the order of

"New occasions teach new duties; Time makes ancient good, enquere; He must upward still, and onward, Who would keep address of Taute."

Our werkmen have been often interrupted, during the season past; we hope bereafter to make the appearance of the Chronicle more regular, and to increase the interest and amount of reading matter.

As an evidence of the harmony and gentlemanly conduct towards each other of the members of our State Senate at the last session, it may be mentioned that the Previous Question was not called during the whole session, (although the "orders of the day" were demanded on a few occasions,) -and that the vote of thanks to Speaker Carson, and to the Clerks and Officers, was unanimous.
