SAD SUICIDE .- On Friday last, John Kantz, an old and respected citizen of Washington Tp, Union Co, disappeared; he was found on Sunday morning, about a mile from his house, hanging by the neck, dead-evidently by his own hands. His mind had been for some time distracted by the failure of his son George, who had been trading on the Isle of Que, and had involved the Father to a large amount. The Son is now imprisoned at New Berlin on a charge of Forgery.
