But, as it is, this assassin-thrust at their own allies, before the ink was dry which attested the fidelity of their nilegiance, only proves alresh that there are men in the world who keep faith . under no circumstances, with whom it is dangerous to not in concert, or exchange a proffered grasp of friendship, and whose political morality is not up to the level of the maxim "honor among thieves." Its tendency, and very possibly its covert design, was disorganizing, and especially ill-timed, at a moment when the remarkable disaffection in the Whig ranks held out to the Democracy-if prudent counsels should prevail-the most flattering hopes of success. It is quite likely, however, that the New Berlin clique do not, in reality, care much about that, but think the Whig nomince good enough for them. and therefore wrongful embarrassments are thrown in the way of the very first attempt | For the cure of File, Speams, Cramps, and all no more than just to add that Mr. Barber PERSONS who are laboring under this disclaims any share in the responsibility assumed by a few of his indiscrect and assumed by a few of his indiscrect and reckless friends, and expressed to us much reckless friends.
