Grammatical Blunders.

Who has not laughed at the old Geog- Refers to rapher, who described New York as contuning a great many inhabitants and a large number of houses with their gable ends toward the street? Our newspaper writers are constantly talking about some dozen, some twenty, de. We observe that a new book is announced, the title of which is "A Treatise on Lightning Conductors; compiled from a work on thunder-storms by S. W. Harris and other BARGAINS at the CHEAP STORE standard authors." This means that the Treatise is compiled soldy from the work of Mr. Harris, whose book was written not ouly by himself, but by other standard authors. A frontispiece of that sort does not augur well for the character of the interior. The omission of a preposition or adverb, may not only affect the style as a matter meaning. It is a most question whether figlileo was ever actually confined in the be sold on accommodating terms. prisons of the Inquisition. Milton, when traveling in Italy, visited the old philosopher, and refers to his visit in a noble passage of the Arcopagilica. That passage ought to determine whether Galilco was then in custody or living in his own house, but unfortunately it is expressed so ambiguously as to throw no additional 1 ght on the subject. A single word would have settled the question. So scrupulous were the framers of our federal constitution, that after their labors were finished they submitted their draft of the instrument No.164, Chestout Street, Swain's Building,

WHAT THINK YOU OF THIS? From one of the most distinguised Phys-claus in the City of New York.

"I have been using Christie's Galvanic articles in a quiet way among my patients for about two years past, and I confers I am astonished at their success s quiet way among my patients for about two years past, and I confers I am astomahed at their success. If I am sure a disease is Nercau, I know just what they will do. In Epiteptic Fits, particularly in children; Dosfness and Affections of the Head, in adults; Paralysis and Palay, in all ages, and indes everal other diseases of like nature which have long puzzled the profession. I have found the Galvanie articles of surprising benefit. Although I detest the chimneless quackery of advertisements and news-papers. In must express my confidence and belief in the wonderful virtues of CHRISTIE'S CIRA-TIVES. My name is, of course, confidential, but I shall never hesitate to recommend your articles on all proper occasions."
