Has the like ever been heard of before! The case has not yet been fully disposed of.—Union Times, 15th inst.

We do not wish a discussion here of cases that are to be determined by the Court; but the above paragraph requires a statement of the real position of this case. We therefore publish the following document as an act of justice to all parties. It contains the material facts. The Court answered the Grand Jury that the whole matter rested with the discretion of the District Attorney.

To the Hon. the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of Union, at September Sessions, A. D. 1853.

In answer to the communication preent term to answer the charge of attempting to bribe one of the Commissioners of Union County-that a Bill has been prepared charging said Kyer with the offence alleged in the complaint, which I am ready and willing and have offered to send to the Grand Jury; but the Prosecutor is un willing and refuses to go before the Gran Jury, or permit the witnesses to be sent unless I will include in the same bill other persons not bound by recognizance to appear at this Court, nor under arres and who have been discharged by th committing magistrate on warrants issue against them, and against whom there no evidence in my possession. Unde these circumstances I deem it my duty t refuse to send before the Grand Jury any Bill or Bills against the persons not under arrest, nor bound by recognizance to appear, and who have been discharged; that I am unwilling in such case to assume the responsibility of public prosecutor, and therefore I decline to comply with what I believe to be the unreasonable and illegal demands of the prosecutor. GEO. HILL, District Attorney.

Sept. 15, 1853.

After the dismission of the Grand Jury, the counsel of Mr. Eyer moved that he be discharged, as the prosecutor had refused to appear against him. The Court, after BY the request of very many citizens—some discussion, held Lim in his own recognizance in the sum of $400, to appear portions of Union county, SAM'L WEIRICK, Esq. has consented to become a candidate ngain at the next Court.
