FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 30, 1853.

ADVERTIZE!—Executors, Administrators, Public Officers, City and Country Merchants, Manufacturers, Mechanics, Business Men—all who wish to procure or to dispose of anything—would do well to give notice of the same through the "Lewisburg Chronicle." This paper has a good and increasing circulation in a community containing as large a proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers, and dealers, as any other in the State.

P. S.

NOTICE.—The CHRONICLE and the Telegraph offices are now at the OLD STAND Market Square, up stairs, left hand door.

☞ We understand it has been reported that the Lewisburg Savings Institution discounts un-current money, but in return exacts par funds from its customers. This injurious report is altogether a mistake. The Institution has no power to issue notes of its own, and its operations are therefore carried on principally with the notes of other banks, such as Harrisburg, York, Gettysburg, Middletown, Chambersburg, Pittsburg, &c. It pays out whatever kind of money it happens to have on hand, and receives the same in payment, without any discount whatever.

☞ Messrs. Wm. H. Backhus and John N. Lukens, the former a graduate and the latter a member of the University at Lewisburg, sailed for Liverpool, in the City of Manchester, from Philadelphia, on Saturday week. Their destination is the city of Heidelburg in Germany, where we understand they intend to pursue their studies, the former with a view to the Medical profession.

SAD FATALITY.—The Danville Intelligencer says: Thomas Stevenson, residing near Derry Meeting House, in Derry township, Montour county, lately lost his wife and five children, in two weeks, with dysentery. Three others of his children were attacked by the disease, but we understand, recovered.

☞ The Star "CAUTIONS the voters against all frauds and humbugs from Lewisburg and Selinsgrove." We copy the "caution," gratuitously; but don't think it at all necessary to warn sensible people in this region against New Berlin. They are well "hooked up" as respects both parties at the county seat.

NORTH BRANCH CANAL.—We understand that the Canal Commissioners have directed the water to be let into the whole line of the North Branch Canal, on the 15th day of October next. So this long and ardently desired event is coming at last, and in a few days. This will be a joyful opening to Northern Pennsylvania.

☞ THE INDEPENDENTS compose, just now, without doubt, the greatest party in Pennsylvania. In nearly if not quite every county, there are from 1 to 5 tickets in the field—and their names are legion. From such a piecing of the political "forms," there is no knowing who or what may "come up."

☞ Godey's Lady's Book, for October, is a valuable number to the Ladies, containing as it does all sorts of patterns in lace, mantillas, mantles, caps, embroidery, &c. Our first page contains an interesting extract from the Oct. No.

CAPT. E. L. DANA, of Wilkes-Barre, who served with distinction in the Mexican war, has announced himself as an independent candidate for Senator, in opposition to C. R. Buckalew, of Bloomsburg.

☞ A meeting of the Buffalo & Kelly Temperance Society will be held in the Strawbridge School House, Buffalo Twp, on Friday evening, October 7th. Speakers will be in attendance.

☞ Candidates who desire their tickets printed at this office, will please order them soon. We have received some, but shall only print for those who give us orders to do so.

☞ The East Pennsylvania Lutheran Synod have resolved to meet next year in Lewisburg.

The Sunbury Borough Councils have made a subscription of $1000 to the construction of the embankment above town, at the Grant farm. The work will cost $4000 when completed, and will, with the other embankments, render every portion of the town secure from all future freshets. American.

The baneful effects of a popular class of publications are illustrated by the facts elicited on the examination of Chapman, the fiendish murderer of Mr. and Mrs. Cozens, in Massachusetts, last week, that he had been stimulated to such deeds by reading the lives of Dick Turpin and Captain Lightfoot, whose career he desired to imitate.

We learn that Mr. Stiles, of Springfield, N. J., a paper manufacturer, recently received from New-Orleans a quantity of rags, from which he caught a fever supposed to be the yellow fever, and died in two days.—Evening Post.

☞ The Star, conducted by the Ex-Chairman of the Committee, and Organist for the Junto, refused to insert a Card, announcing Mr. Weirick as a candidate for District Attorney. The last No., however, contains a lengthy article in reference to the importance of electing a fit man for that important office, and which must mean Mr. Weirick, for it no more hits Van than Daniel Lambert's coat would suit a dwarf.

☞ Don't forget the County Fair, second day after the Election. If you vote for Division, climb the hills to New Berlin and confirm your vote; if you vote against it, go and repent of it. Go anyhow—and make a good start with it.

☞ We are indebted to C. C. MULLEN, S. P., of Harrisburg, for an official list of the several County Officers.

☞ Our first page contains a historical and a political communication.

For the Lewisburg Chronicle.

The striplings who officiate as spokesmen for the New Berlin Whig Junto, refuse to give Saml Weirick Esq., a hearing, and also CAUTION the Party against Col. Wagenseller. Now these men were fighting the Whig battles at a time when those upstarts were "muling and puking in their nurse's arms." "What mean do these our Cæsars feed on," that they hope to destroy gray-headed Whigs with their pen! By-the-way, were not they the same Editors who CAUTIONED the May Grand Jury to "prepare to receive a petition" [from New Berlin] "so numerously signed, and couched in such language, as will COMPEL them to report favorably to a new Court House!"

Not daring to send this to the "Star," lest it should CAUTION the Whigs against me, and perhaps advertise Col. Wagenseller, Mr. Weirick, and myself, as runaways, with packs on our backs, just put me down as A CAUTION FROM HARTLEY.

[We believe the CAUTIONS! appeared during the administration of the same nominal Editors; but there are several in the "great metropolis" who emit editorial Star-light.]

"I DIGEST."—SOUR IS THE TRUE MEANING of the word "PEPSIN," or of the two Greek words from which it is derived. This is the significant and appropriate title of the TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, or GASTRIC JUICE, prepared by Dr. J. S. HOUGHTON, of Philadelphia, from the fourth Stomach of the ox, for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is Nature's own remedy for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It requires GOOD EATING perfectly combined with HEALTH. (See the figure of the OX, in another part of this paper.) 1y451

POISONING.

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of Castor oil, Calomel, &c. are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of teeth, a wreck of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hohensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their children's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hohensack's Liver Pills.

☞ "Be not deceived," but ask for Hohensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOHENSACK, as none else are genuine. (1y469

"I HAD RATHER BE RIGHT, THAN PRESIDENT."—Henry Clay.

Life and Speeches of HENRY CLAY,

WITH A PORTRAIT AND A VIEW OF HIS BIRTH PLACE.

In one large octavo volume of 1300 pages, beautifully bound in cloth, gilt. PRICE ONLY THREE DOLLARS. Or, bound in Two Volumes, cloth gilt, $3.50.

THE work here presented is intended to trace clearly the career of Mr. Clay, from his entrance on the stage of public life down to the period of his death—mainly by the light of his own lofty, persuasive and impassioned eloquence. Mr Clay's parliamentary efforts, clear, direct, and vigorous, embody all the information that is needful to their full understanding—the great importance, variety, and indestructible interest of the topics he generally discussed—the character and ability of the Orator, the direct and exact bearing of his arguments on the controversies and in creat of the times—all combine to render his speeches among the most valuable contributions of Patriotism and Genius to the enlightenment and restauration of the American people.

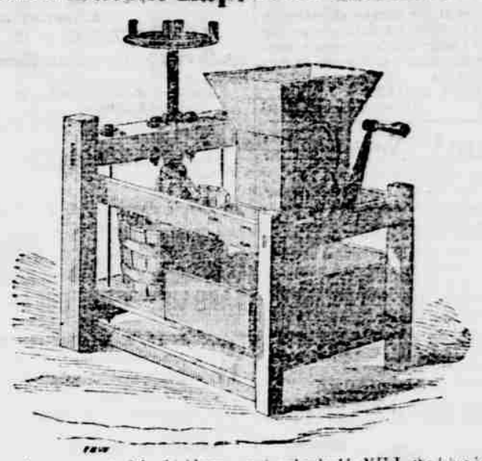
Hickok's Patent Improved CIDER MILL.



IN the present arrangement of this highly approved and valuable MILL the labor is divided by arranging a cutting Cylinder to break the apples, and then deliver them to the lower cylinders to be reduced to pomace. By this arrangement the work is performed faster and with much less labor.

The Press is arranged with a much larger screw than formerly, and by a very ingenious device the use of the bag is dispensed with, and the Tub made to open at will to deliver the pomace while at the same time the Cider is let clear, and the work can be done with much less labor than by the old method.

The Cylinders are covered with heavy sheet Zinc, both on their peripheries and ends; the wood in them is arranged so as not to swell, and the whole work on the Mill and Press made in the very best manner, and arranged with especial view to their durability and service.

NO FARMER, who uses the Mill carefully and according to directions, WILL BE DISAPPOINTED; but, on the other hand, he will find this one of the most valuable and efficient machines on his farm.

The Machine is made to run by horse, steam or hand power, and when the apples are ground a boy of 14 years of age can press the pomace with all ease.

☞ This Mill is warranted superior to any other Portable Mill in existence; and the Proprietor is ready at any time (on fair notice being given) to test it with any Portable mill that is not an infringement on it.

Farmers! examine this NEWLY IMPROVED MILL, before you buy any other.

One great advantage of this Machine over all others is, that IT WILL NOT CHOKE UP, and hard or soft apples can be ground, and yet the Cylinders will always remain clear and in grinding order.

The price of the Mill and Press is $10. W. O. HICKOK, Harrisburg.

☞ Persons in Union County, and the upper part of Northumberland can obtain these Mills on application to the subscriber. H. C. HICKOK.
