

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE

OCTOBER 21, 1853.

Disastrous Fire.

The most serious fire ever witnessed in our town broke out on Saturday evening last, about 11 o'clock, in the steam saw mill, and boat yard of Messrs. Frick, Sifer & Co., totally destroying the mill, the new county bridge over Buffalo creek, three boats on the stocks, just finished and ready to launch, for the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company, and a large quantity of valuable boat stuff and sawed lumber. Two boats lying under the bridge in the creek, were greatly damaged, but eleven others were fortunately saved uninjured, together with a considerable amount of lumber, boat ribs, &c. Frick, Sifer & Co. estimate their loss at $20,000—insurance only $2,500. The bridge cost $4,200 and is a total loss, except a portion of the materials in the abutments and pier. The fire spread with unexampled rapidity, raging so furiously as to cut off all possibility of reaching either mill or bridge.

The air was providentially very calm, and numerous ware houses and dwellings further down stream doubtless owe their safety to this circumstance alone. As it was, sparks and burning cinders fell from a great height, all over the southern part of the town, causing much apprehension, but luckily doing no damage except burning a hole in the roof of Mr. Dentler's stable, in the rear of the Lutheran church. Quantities of cinders were found next morning as far south as the barnyard of Mr. Thomas Penny, three miles from town, causing much wonder until their origin was heard of. As severe a proportionate loss as this, was the destruction of about thirty chests of tools, belonging to as many German workmen, very few, if any, of whom are able to replace them, and not only need but deserve friendly assistance in this emergency.

As no bells were rung, a portion of our people remained in blissful ignorance of the disaster until next morning, but the remainder labored energetically at the fire, the ladies as usual doing more than their share, while male bipeds calmly stood with their hands in their pockets, enjoying the "sublimity." Great credit is due to the Milton firemen who were on hand in a very short time with their engines and hose carriage—forty minutes, we believe, was the running time of the hose—and performed timely and most effective service. Supper was provided for them by order of the Town Council at Blair's, Weidensaul's and the Misses Black; and Mr. William Frick set a full table at his own residence.

On their return, Mr. HENRY FRICK, editor of the "Miltonian," and another fireman named James Murphy were accidentally run over by an engine, and seriously injured, but at last accounts were slowly recovering.

The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary. A young man named Benjamin F. Stone, who had that day been discharged from the yard, and is said to have made threats against the proprietors, was arrested at Northumberland on Sunday morning, and after a protracted investigation before John A. Mertz, Esq., of this place, was committed to jail at New Berlin in default of $5,000 bail. We understand he is to have a hearing to-day before Judge Marshall on a habeas corpus.

A portion of the machinery of the mill can be repaired for service, and F. S. & Co expect to have a new mill up, and saws running again in about three weeks.

The most important queries now are, how many more narrow escapes must Lewisburg have before suitable engines and hose will be provided for her safety, and ought not some definite, reliable arrangement be made to have alarm bells rung hereafter?

Mr. Editor: I had the pleasure of attending the Third Annual Fair of the Northumberland County Agricultural Association, at Milton on Wednesday last. There was a host of people in attendance; very many of them from Union, and quite a number from Montour and Lycoming. How this Fair compared with its predecessors, I have no means of knowing; but the (first) Union County Fair compared exceedingly well with this. The Horses and Cattle were seen a short time only on Tuesday, when I was not there; but the Premium Lists contain the names of Thos. Wilson and And'w Heckel of Kelly, Thos. Hoff of White Deer, and also others we believe from Union county. There were far more Union county people in attendance in New Berlin, than there were of Northumberland county people at Milton. Our ploughmen beat theirs, decidedly—our Ladies' work was greater in variety, and with our Cabinetware, I think superior to that of Milton; while in the line of fat Hogs, Shaghaies and Bantams and all the intermediate grades of fowls, and in big Beets and other garden "vegetables," Union must surrender to "old mother Northumberland."

Mr. J. L. Meikel exhibited excellent horse Powers; James White, a 138 pound pumpkin; Stadden, Marr & Co of White Deer Mills, most beautiful Flannels; D. Gantt, Esq., of Northumberland, a very quantity of the feathered tribe, wild geese not excepted; Cranberries of John Macchimer, Chillisquaque; and there were doubtless other productions of skill and gifts of nature (including a three-headed cabbage) worthy of particular notice.

The address by David Taggart, Esq., was well written, and very happily delivered; lacking somewhat, perhaps, in pertinency to the occasion, and practical thoughts, and as a literary production incapable of being properly appreciated by a fatigued crowd standing under a hot sun. It would read well in print, after a little pruning of some expressions in reference to Woman which the orator's good sense when revising his production will doubtless suggest.

The arrangement of the grounds at both New Berlin and Milton, in the opinion of many, was deficient. If the articles upon exhibition were all within one enclosure, to which none were admitted but Members and those who should pay for the chance, our Fairs would be much more useful; the crowd of thoughtless gazers would be less, and every article could be far better examined by those disposed; and all who had any benefit or gratification, would be compelled to bear a just share of the expense by which they were secured.

—It was truly a gala-day in Milton. The Alabama Yankee with his "magical, magical three minutes' cure for the tooth-ache, head-ache, heart-ache and back-ache," was auctioneering off his vials, often at the rate of a dollar a minute. And the Fair was closed by the parade of 15 or 20 "Fantasies" on horseback, escorting a similar group in a boat on wheels drawn by oxen which were as demure as their riders.

A VISITER.

The following was the vote upon the question of a Division of Union county, arranged in Districts according to their geographical location:

Table with 2 columns: FOR, AGAINST. Lists names and votes for Perry, Chapman, Washington, Penns, East Buffalo, Lewisburg, Kelly, White Deer, Union, West Buffalo, Middlebrook, Hartley, New Berlin, Middlebrook, Centerville, Beaver, West Beaver.

Considering the little effort put forth by the Divisionists at this end of the county, the vote is much better than we expected. It blocks the game of a new Court House at the "great metropolis," and puts all of our particular friends in both parties there on their "good behavior."

The Official Returns of the Union County Election foot up as follows:

Table with 2 columns: MAJORITY, MINORITY. Lists names and votes for Judge Sup. Court, Canal Com., Aud. Gen., Assessor, Dist. Atty., Trustees, Auditor, and various other officials.

Democrats 18—Whigs 14—Native Am 7

THE HOUSE will probably stand 70 Democrats to 30 Whigs. The Democrats have lost 4 in the County, but gain 1 in the City, 3 in Chester, 2 in Northampton, 1 in Northumberland, 1 in Cumberland, 1 in Franklin. The Democrats also gain a Senator in Blair, 1 in Clarion, and 1 in Allegheny.

A claim in Tr. Clk's Department, invites us (the Pub.) to spend the winter with him at Harrisburg. Really—really, we should be happy to oblige you, but we don't exactly like the political complexion of the Senate, and we have very pressing business at home. Besides, we did our best to get everything right on the Hill, last winter. We fear the best we can do to save our country in this hour of peril, will be to get the wheels of State again in motion, initiate our ambitious successors into the mysteries of Senatorial potholes, and retire into the shade of private life. Our country, my dear fellow patriot, must lose our services at some time, and may as well make the trial now as ever. If she can not get along without us we can, Cincinnatus-like, obey her call, and rush to her rescue. For the present, we respectfully ask to be excused.

All the surviving members who served in the War of 1812, in their respective Companies, and now residing within the counties of Lycoming, Union, Northumberland, and Adams, are respectfully requested to meet in the borough of Milton, at the Public House of J. M. Huff, on Tuesday, the 22d day of November next, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the Convention of old Soldiers to be held at Philadelphia, January 8, 1854. The Captains or officers to bring their books, pay-rolls, &c. The object of the meeting is to ask from Congress a pension and back payment to the old officers and members of Companies that enlisted from the counties above named.

GRACE GREENWOOD, the popular and gifted American Poetess and Authoress, was married on Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the village church adjoining her parents' residence at New Brighton, Beaver county, Pa., to Mr. Leander K. Lippincott, of Philadelphia.

They will reside in Philadelphia, where Mrs. Lippincott will edit "The Little Pilgrim," a paper for children.

The Washington Sentinel says, several days ago, a wealthy northern manufacturer, offered to subscribe $100,000 for the purpose of converting Mount Vernon into a National Agricultural College. The idea is an excellent one. The location and the lands are admirably calculated for such an object.

Joel Haywood is nominated as the Whig candidate for Governor of New Jersey.

Horatio Needham, Free Democrat, was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives of Vermont, on the first ballot on Monday, by a vote 119 to 55 for Grandy, (Whig) and 2 for Bingham, (Dem.) C. F. Davey (Whig) was elected Clerk, unanimously.

Mr. Fluens, of Lancaster, Pa., has received $10,000 from the New Haven Railroad company, for the loss of his wife who was killed at Norwalk.

Colonel James Polk, of Baltimore, declines the Consulate of Bordeaux. This is the second office he has declined.

Within a few days the Canadian government journals have announced that the project of uniting all the provinces, with Quebec as the federal capital, will soon take place. Each province is to be allowed a separate Legislature. Lord Elgin is said to have gone to England for the express purpose of arranging the important matter. The British provinces now contain three millions of inhabitants.

The Savannah Republican has received returns from every county in the State, of the vote for Governor, and the aggregate majorities foot up $952 for Jenkins, Union Whig, to 9154 for Johnson, State's Right Dem., leaving a majority of 202 for the latter.
