

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE
NOVEMBER 11, 1853.

NOTICE.—The CHRONICLE and the Telegraph offices are now at the OLD STAND, Market Square, up stairs, left hand door.

California News.

The steamship Sierra Nevada brought down $1,200,000 in gold dust. The Golden Gate, which left the same day, had $1,130,000 on freight.

A public dinner had been tendered to John Mitchell, before his departure for New York, which was accepted.

The Supreme Court of California has made an important decision, declaring valid all grants made in accordance with the Mexican law. The effect of this will be to restore them the original grantees.

The magnetic telegraph is working from San Jose to San Francisco.

Murders and outrages are occurring throughout the State to an alarming extent.

The city government of San Francisco had retired, after contesting the election, and the new one been finally organized.

The improvements in the city were progressing at a wonderful rate.

Bigler's majority throughout the State is eighteen hundred and five votes.

From Sandwich Islands the news is highly important. Dr. Judd had been removed from the office of Minister of Finance, and Elisha H. Allen, late U. S. Consul, appointed in his place.

A decided step had been taken towards annexation to the United States. The French and British Consuls had protested to the King against such an act, and the American Commissioner had replied in a firm but dignified manner.

In the Martha Washington trial at Cincinnati on Saturday, John Whiteley, clerk to Kinsane, confessed that he perjured himself on his examination before the Commissioner, as to Kinsane's having shipped twelve hundred boxes of candles on the steamer Martha Washington.

Foreign News.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The Times says that the Turkish Manifesto is one of the strongest and most unanswerable state papers that has ever been issued during the present crisis.

The London Post says that, morally, Russia is already defeated, and she will be so militarily. Hostilities on the Danube and the shores of the Caspian Sea are deemed to be inevitable.

A dispatch from Vienna, of the 17th inst., says that Gortschakoff, the Russian Romander in the Principalities, has replied to the Turkish summons to leave within fifteen days, that he has no authority either to commence hostilities, make peace, or to evacuate the principalities.

The Russian subjects in Turkey have been placed under the protection of Austria.

The Turks allow neutral flags upon the Danube up to the 25th inst., but after that they are to be excluded.

Austria and Prussia have recalled their subjects from the Turkish service.

The Turkish declaration of war has been published in full. It is temperate in language, but high spirited. It lays no embargo upon Russian ships, and fully protects the rights of commerce.

Prussia and Austria both give indications that they will keep neutral in the difficulties growing out of the Eastern Question, and French and English diplomats, therefore, consider, that the war being confined to the Turkish frontier, will not be likely to spread throughout Europe.

When the Car of Russia heard of the declaration of war by Turkey, he fell into a furious rage, and swore he would wage a war of extermination with the Turks.

Osman Pasha has notified the Russian Commander to clear out of the Principalities before the 25th, or he would commence hostilities.

It is not supposed that the fighting will commence on the Danube, but in Georgia or on the Black Sea.

Old General Paskewitch is to take the chief command of the Russian army in the Principalities.

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE.—A heart-rending accident occurred at the New Mines, a few miles north of this place, on Sunday night last.

Old General Paskewitch is to take the chief command of the Russian army in the Principalities.

Why are good resolutions like fainting ladies? They wait carrying out.

We learn that at the Sunbury Court, this week, the prosecutions which had been commenced against Dr. Weiser, Charles Weaver and John B. Packer, Esq., for an alleged attempt to bribe one of the County Commissioners to subscribe to the Stock of the Susquehanna Railroad, were abandoned; no prosecutor appeared, no bills sent before the Grand Jury, and the defendants were discharged by the Court.

Sunbury Looking Up.

The American says:—"In consequence of the improvements now making and in contemplation, houses in Sunbury are in great demand, and we cannot see how all, who will be compelled to reside here, in consequence of their business, will be able to get dwellings, unless more houses are speedily constructed.

Of the improvements about Sunbury, the same paper adds that the Engineers have been at work for several weeks past in surveying the ground, late the Scott and Hunter farms, formerly adjoining, but now embraced within the Borough limits, laying out the same in lots and streets, as an addition to the Borough.

The water power is one of the best in the state, having the Susquehanna river as a feeder, and being equal to 750 horse power. These improvements will, of course, add largely to our population and help to build up the new addition rapidly. The lots are not yet ready for sale or disposal, but we are informed by a gentleman who is connected with the company, that he had already engagements for ten thousand dollars worth of lots.

The result of this election is a signal, and we, trust a final rebuke to all those who wish to introduce foreign and infidel changes into our moral, social and political system.

The masses of American people are contented with their institutions as they are. They do not desire the infusion of Red Republicanism, Jacobinism, Infidelity, or any of the crude notions of those who have fled from despotism, yet have been nurtured under their influences, to be engrafted upon our institutions.

A SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—A suit has been instituted in the Second District Court by Antonio Pons, a fruit dealer, against the Postmaster of this city, claiming damages in the sum of five hundred and sixty dollars, for loss sustained by him in the unlawful detention, in the Post office, of a letter addressed to him, with advices and bill of lading of a shipment of lemons from Vera Cruz, was deposited in the New Orleans post office, on the 11th of September last.

Boy's TAKE NOTICE.—A boy of Salem, Mass., was last week fined $5 for mutilating a handbill posted up in a public place in that city.

The death of the Rev. Jas. Gallagher, late chaplain to the House of Representatives, is announced. He is reported, by telegraph, to have died at Brunswick, (Me.) on Tuesday last.

The Canal Commissioners have fixed commencing of the term of service of the officers appointed by them, as follows: Collectors of toll, Weigh-masters, Cargo Inspectors and State Agents on Railroads, on the 1st of January.

Collectors of toll, Weigh-masters and Cargo Inspectors on the Canals, on the opening of navigation in the spring.

New York Oct. 31, P. M.—The Bank of the State of New York was this afternoon robbed of thirty seven thousand dollars.

Anecdote of Tristram Burgess

The N. Y. Atlas is responsible for the following: Mr. Burgess had not long been at the bar, before a little incident rendered him famous.

The Janitor of the Court was a Deacon William Gibbons, an old man, very fond of snuff, tobacco, the fair sex, and New England rum. This janitor deacon always encased himself in black satin smalls, silk vest, cauliflower wig, and brogans decorated with very large diamond buckles.

It so happened that on that very day, in the midst of animated argument, Mr. Burgess found it necessary to make a call on the janitor deacon for a tumbler of cold water.

FAMINE IN THE BURMAN EMPIRE.—A terrible famine is said to be prevailing in Rangoon and Prome, in the Burman empire, and thousands of men, women, and children will perish, if not relieved.

The crops last year entirely failed.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION IN THE SCHOOLS.—A decision has just been made by the New York Secretary of State, who is also Superintendent of the Public Schools on the right of school teachers in the public schools of that State, to compel students to read and study the Protestant Testament.

The motion for a new trial, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Jas. Brass, in Northumberland County, was called upon on Monday last, and resulted in granting him a new trial. The case then coming up for trial, a Jury was empaneled, but there being no prosecutor or witnesses present, the Major was promptly discharged by the Court.—Mucy Luminary.
