CHRONICE LEWISBURG

H. C. HICKOK, EDITOR.

O. N. WORDEN, PRINTER.

lessed on FRIDAY mornings at Lewisburg. Union county, Pennsylvania.

All letters must come party or securian contest.

All letters must come party aid, accompanied by the real attress of the writer, to receive attention.  Those relating exclusively to the Elitorial Pepartment, to be directed to Revar C. Riccast, Est., Elitor-and those on business to 0. N. Wonors, Palitoher.

OFFICE in Beaver's new block on Market Square, north side, 2d story, left hand door.
O. N. WORDEN, Proprietor.

FADED AND BUNE.

Faded and gone are the Samuer's sweet flowers.
Stream by the wintry wind o'er the dark mould.
Similers, when suringfit stale three the soft hours,
Down from you arre their leaves to unfold.
Bright were their beauties when breezes sweet on o'er the bine waters to gather perfame;
Whisperers lovely, new field and gone!
Shinds-reus louely mid childness and goom!
Oh! but the Spring time wild come e'er the plain,
Weoling the whispering beasonin again.
With its soft read on the emerant lawn.
Then we'll not mourn for the field and gone!

Faded and cone are the ones that we cheriched,

Faded and gone are the sures that we cheriched,
Fondly and true, in our besons of yord.
Sumbering bads may awake o'er the pershed,
Tann faded hearts shad unfood no more.
Sweet is the mane that M mery things
O'er the oasis of late's early love.
Where flux the angel on fluttering wings.
Bearing our lost through the startight allows:
Oh! there's a land where the pershed some boson,
Where coincids never a shadow of groom
Fadelses and fair is that glorious days.
Then we'll not mourn for the faded and gone!

Faded and gone are the sweet dreams of childhood,

Faded and goins are the sweet direction of districts when the young sings of he Spirit were free, Fidded or furthed and the scholory with research Sweeting the surface of 10° is sainly see.

Time's fishing finger high sufficiently pure years; Pages of beauty once brilliand yet brief, Wear its deep impress of changes and tears! On: but the blassman of challing distribution lightly again, o'er the shadow of the brightly again, o'er the shadow) on —
Then we'll not marmar for the faded and gone!

INCIDENT AT THE FIVE POINTS her tears and went on :

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.

cellars, where hard featured Jewish dealers "Oh sir, he was such a fine lad. He bling and silent. might well root twice over before devouring you shall never work any more.' purchased as daily food by these poor "I can see him row, sir, as he stood their own reasons for using that wealth and Mary now but me. Won't you try, sir. influence (in opposition to Mr. Pease) to Mr. Pease promised that he would do and messages, and especially the applica- Pease then took a friend and started to They caught hold of their mother's faded ions in France—yes, in the heart of Partions for relief that his slender purse alas! see what could be done. this, and go away ashamed to have lived come-he's come !"

occurrences there.

House and enquired for Mr. Pease. She lines. was told that he was engaged, and asked Poor, lost Mary! till he can see me."

the old lady commenced her story :

many drunken people about the neighbor- older girl of twelve, with a sweet, Madon-TER UK. -$1.50 per year, for each actually in advance
.75, if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if paid within three months; $2.00 if paid within a
.75 if pai expires; 5 cents for but has had no food for the poor little wretched place with a beam of Heaven reserved an absence that the state of the st Acceptable with the second per solution of the second per solution and the second manage to beg in the day time. The sixteen months, (which was not so large square, one seek, 21 four week, 51 as year. Mercantile attertise landlord promised, when she hired the as one of eight months should have been and the second per second promised, when she hired the second country of a column to a year. In the second per second manage to beg in the day time. The second months, (which was not so large landlord promised, when she hired the as one of eight months should have been been as one of eight months should have been been as one of eight months should have been been as one of eight months should have been been as one of eight months should have been been as one of eight months should have been been as one of eight months. make it comfortable, so that "the Croton" and whose little bones seemed almost rest not within the range of party or sectarian contest, need not run in ; but he got his rout and property of party or sectarian contest. Those then broke his promise, and they have not The old lady went up to her daughter. seen him since."

hands, she sobbed aloud. Mr. Pease's where you will be treated kindly." the mother of the lost one.

the world's scorn had only filled her heart afraid to stay here, mother, dear." with a Godlike pity.

Rescue of a Mother and Three Children me once; she respected religion and re- on which she was lying, and pushing the forest scenery opened by the new railroad largely affect the health of the men, who escape from a part at least of the evils of Last week I attempted a faint sketch of church, but lately sir, God knows she has "Get away, you impudent little thing! fident they were there,) some good, hearty, by their avocations, but the health of wo-Mr. Pease's labors at the Five Points House almost broke my heart. Last spring I you are just like your grandmother. I fresh looking lads and lasses among the men (ergo the constitutions of children), tail, the best modes of ventilating now in Mr. Pease's labors at the Five Points House almost broke my heart. Last spines a you are just like your grandmother. I fresh looking lads and lasses among the of Industry. It was only a sketch. To took her home, and the three dear children; tell you all," said she, raising herself on the able to appreciate Mr. Pease's toils and but she would not listen to me, and left one elbow, and tossing back her auburn We were, for the most part, disappoints ces heated in this way, must gaadually several works, especially devoted to the from Washington says: sacrifices and self-denying labors, one must without telling me where she was going hair from her broad white forehead. "I ed. Certainly the men, especially the give way under the influence of the poison subject, published lately. In our volume visit the locality: one must wind through I heard that there was a poor woman livthose dirty streets and alleys, and see the ing in a basement in Willet street, with never! I love this place. So many fine air, are healthy and robust. But the of thousands of the sex in America. wrecks of humanity that meet him at every three children, and my heart told me that people come here, and we have such good daughters of the farmers—they are as delstep; he must see children so dirty and was my poor lost Mary, and there I found times. There is a gentleman who takes leate and pale as lilies of the valley, or some blind lover of stoves, "that the air ventilation—from Arnott's chimney valve step; he must see candren so dirty and the street is a gentleman was takes leade and pale as lines of the valley, or some bind lover of stoves, "that the air ventilation—from Arnott's chimney valve care of me; he brought me some candles ladies of the Fifth Avenue. If one catch—of a room heated by a close stove is dele-which may for a small cost be easily placesqualid that they scarcely resemble indicate by a close stove is delewhich may for a small cost be easily placbeings, playing in filthy gutters and using bed, as if her heart were breaking—such last night, and he says that I shan't want es a glimpse of rose in their delicate cheeks terious?" Very easily, indeed, if you ed in the chimney flue of any room to language that would curdle his blood to a place : My Mary, that I used to eradle for anything if I will only get rid of these it is the pale rose of the hot-house, and listen to a few words of reason. hear from childhood's lips: he should see in these arms to sleep, that lisped her littroublesome children—my hasband's chilnot the fresh glow of the garden damask.

It is well established that a healthy man which the largest apartments, of every gislation to be introduced into both houses. men, "made in God's own image," bru- the evening prayer at my knee-my Mary, dren." And she hid her face in her hands Alas, we soon discovered the reason. They, must have about a pint of air at a breath; room in the largest house may be warmed twenty years) reeling about the pavements Pease, wishing to turn the current of her "just as soon as you like—baby and all; The fire-places are closed up, and ruddy pute, he requires about fifty-seven horseless. We assure our readers, that we are the a trace of feminity in their vicious faces; member of any church. She said yes, of love it. A great many fine people come Occasionally, indeed, one meets with an Besides this, it is equally well settled, they are so apathetic. As they would he should mass the rum shops, where men the ----street Baptist Church. She said here to see me." and women are quarreling and fighting and she was a widow, and had had one child The poor old lady wrung her hands and Hebe, whose rosy cheeks and round, elas-

swing out faded refuse garments, (pawned did all he could to make me happy; but by starving virtue for bread,) to sell to the he thought, that if he went to California either go with me or I'll send for an officer spirits force them out continually in the mixed poison (nitrogen). needy, half-naked emigrant for his last he could make money, and when he left penny; he should see decayed fruit and he said 'Cheer up, dear mother; I'll come Which will you do?" vegetables which the most ravenous swine back and give my money all to you, and creatures; he should see gentlemen (?) there, with his eye kindling. Poor lad! threading these streets, not to make all poor lad! He came back, but it was only the last thread of hope to which many a care for you, mother-I know it-when Five Points House of Industry. tempted one is despairingly clinging. I'm gone to Heaven' Oh! if I could One must see all this, before he can form have seen my poor girl die as he did, be- of the girls, how very pleasant it is to ride But, alas, on the other hand, as compared air for breathing. a just idea of the magnitude and import- fore she became so bad. Ob, sir, won't ance of the work Mr. Pease has single- you take her here?—won't you try to make that dirty place; we shall be so happy now, frames abroad, American beauty is as evhanded and nobly undertaken; remembers her good?—com't you make her good, sir? mother; and Edith and the baby too; anescent as a dissolving view, contrasted up, to begin with. The room is shut up.

Dr. Judd, the recently deposed Minister, throughout the country, who have any ing that men of wealth and influence have I can't give Mary up. Nobody cares for all he could, and sent a person out with One should spend an hour in Mr. Pease's the old lady, to visit "Mary," and obtain house, to see the constant drafts upon his particulars : he soon returned and corobotime and strength, in the shape of calls rated all the old lady's statements. Mr.

is often not able to answer; he should see In Willet street is a rickety old wooden his unwearied patience and activity, admire building, filled to overflowing with the rethe kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted
the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted the kind sympathetic heart—unaffected by fuse of humanity. The basement is lighted by fuse of human toil or the frowns of temporizing theorists with two small windows half under ground mother! -ever warm, ever pitiful, giving not only and in this wretched hole lived Mary and Reader, would you know that mother's understood in the old world than in the much again air as he expires from his him out. The Doctor resigned, and the region is general. We notice that there "the crumbs from his table," but often her children. As Mr. Pease descended after history? his own meals to the hungry-his own the steps into the room, he heard some one wardrobe to the naked; he should see say, "Here he comes, grandmother! he's Saviour's feet with her tears, and wiped is a much longer time passed daily in the cither breathed over, or is so mixed with strance of every one of the old Chiefs, There has also been a defenency on the maimed, and sick, and lame to Bethesda's in the corner lay Mary, "my Mary," as lena. In the virtuous home of her aged tilating the rooms in which they live. the old lady tearfully called her.

some time since, at the House of Industry, womanhood! Her large blue eyes glared blessed. and which serves as a fair sample of daily with maniac wildness, under the influence of intoxication. Long waves of auburn One morning an aged lady, of respect- hair fell, in tangled masses, over a form able appearance, called at the Mission wasted, yet beautiful in its graceful out-

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1853.

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE dropped over her wrinkled face-" in a hand a sweet child of eight years, with had place in Willet street, in a basement. large, bright eyes, and auburn hair (like There are rum shops all around it, and poor Mary's) falling about her neck. An

"Is the woman respectable?" enquired who is willing to take you to his house, if

Ir. Pease.

"Yes—no—not exactly," said the poor "Get out of the room, you old hypoold lady, violently agitated. "She was crite," snarled the intoxicated woman, "or well brought up. She has a good heart, I'll-(and she clutched a batchet beside an idiot laugh.

was the father of her two little girls: six laying her little hand upon her arm—"dear almost every one he meets in the streets of dered, and here that the ghostly expression in America has a ghostly paleness about advices, an attempt was made to commit years ago he died, and—the poor thing— mother, don't, please—don't hurt grand- large towns—every other man looking as oh! sir, you don't know how dear she is to mother. She is good and kind to us; she if he had lately recovered from a fit of ill- lowever healthy a person may be, he what is to be done? "American as a gnostly priced and nere that the gnostly expression in America has a gnostly priced and nere that the gnostly expression in America has a gnostly priced and nere that the gnostly expression in America has a gnostly priced and strongly updates a cession of the islands to the United States. But it me." and burying her aged face in her only wants to get you out of this bad place, ness. The men look so pale and the wo-tion, without the pain of an explanation. younger sister, bending her little curly vigorous physical condition of transation- depends upon pure blood, and there can ened and better informed throw them aside, Minister of Foreign Relations. In the weeping woman before him he saw head over her, "mother, you said once tie men and women, scarcely credits the be no pure blood in one's veins unless it the great bulk of the people will not. But, on the whole, the indications that you would go. Don't keep us here any assertion of old acquaintances when they be re-purified continually by the action of Stoves are, we are told, in short, essentially the Islands are to be annexed to the Uni-Yes, she was "Mary's" mother. Pov- longer, mother. We are cold and hungry. were "never better in their lives." erty could not chill her love; shame and Please get up and take us away; we are With this sort of impression weighing the lungs (the whole purpose of breathing We answer, let us ventilate our rooms, unmistakeable.—N. Y. Tribune.

is your dress; put it on, won't you?"

swearing, while childhood listens and bears beside Mary-a son. And her face lighted wept, while the children clung round their tie figure would make you believe that the the other unhealthy, (nitrogen), the air to death, all the more vigorously in qrebers. Indeed, these same members are won't frighten us with the hatchet any till forty-five or fifty.

Mary cursed and raved, but finally put national poison.

light of the little creatures was unbounded. most common thing, even finer complex. through the crevices to supply any vacuum. mended. All the rum influences were ardress, saying, "Didn't we tell you, mother, is, and especially among the peasantry, air. If a single person requires 57 hogsthat you would have a pleasant home who are almost wholly in the open air heads of fresh air per day, it would last interest took advantage; and the British connected by them as most likely to an

so long and done so little to help the The door was opened. On a pile of rags name is no longer written Mary Magdamother, she sits clothed in her right mind, FANNY FERN.

mind, (says the Fredonia Advertiser.) for On this side of the water, if a person tute of all elasticity the air is. their advantage as well as that of the local say a professional man, or a merchant—is

And this is the air which four-fifths of American residents acted promptly in the disseulty in getting the products of their press, that for every county paper deliv- seen regularly devoting a certain portion our countrymen and countrywomen breathe matter, and the King appointed Mr. Allen mines to market. Every men who can ered by them to subscribers, they are en- of the day to exercise, and the preservaif some one else would not do as well. "Such a place!" as her mother had, titled to retain of the Post Office funds, tion of his bodily powers, he is looked from choice! She said respectfully, "No; my business weeping, said. Not a table, or chair, or is with him; I will wait, if you please, bedstead, or article of furniture in it, of their interest as well as that of our publiany description. On the mantle-piece shers, that the county papers be prefered, soul! and his friends daily meet him with cars, closed up in winter, and heated with desire of the American residents. Mr. Pease immediately came in, when stood a beer-bottle with a half burnt candle in its nose. A few broken, dirty dishes tions or keeping accounts thereof, as on ter," etc. As for ladies, unless there is entire days.

From the Horticulturalist.

The Favorite Poison of America.

There is a curious but indisputable fact ing the free air for a couple of hours daily, somebody must say it) touching our pres- or should shun the duty of exercise, is ous compared with the air-that is breath- and his Government according to his exent condition and appearance, as a nation suspected of slight lunacy; and ladies who ed by hundreds and thousands in almost all pectations, this functionary subscouently of men, women and children, in which we should prefer continually to devote their our crowded lecture-rooms, concert rooms, united with the French Consul, and pro-Americans compare most unfavorably with leisure to the solace of luxurious cushions public halls, and private assemblies, all over tested against the cession of the islands to the people of Europe, and especially those rather than an exhiberating ride or walk, the country. They are nearly all heated this Government. It seems to us that this of northern Europe-England and France are thought a little tite monter. What, in by stoves or furnac s, with their imperfect gentleman has quite overstepped the bounfor example. It is neither in religion or short, is looked upon as a virtue there, is ventilation, or no ventilation at all. morality, law of liberty. In these great only regarded as a matter of fancy here. Is it too much to call it the national King's Government by his proceedings. essentials every American feels that his Hence, an American generally shivers in poison, this continual atmosphere of close From what we can learn it appears that country is the birth-place of a larger num- an air that is grateful and bracing to an stoves, which, whether traveling or at the feeling of the Hawaiian travernment ber of robust and healthy souls than any Englishman, and looks blue, in Paris, in home, we Americans are content to leans strongly toward annexation. It is saying, "Mary, dear, this is the gentleman other. But in the bodily condition, the weather when the Parisians sit with the breathe, as if it were the air of Paradise? known that while Mr. Judi was only sursigns of physical health, and all that consticasement windows of their saloons wide We very well know that we have a pected of being in favor of it, that Mr. tutes the outward aspect of the men and open. Yet it is, undoubtedly, all a matter great many readers who abominate stoves. Allen, whom the British Consul has most women of the United States, our country- of habit; and we Yankees (we mean those and whose houses are warmed and ventila- unwittingly managed to intrigue into his men, and especially countrywomen, and of us who are not forced to "rough it,") ted in an excellent manner. But they shoes, is strongly and openly committed compare most unfavorably with all but the with the toughest natural constitutions in constitute no appreciable fraction of the thereto, and has so avowed himself on all sir, but a bad head, and then trouble has her)-I'll show you! You are the worst absclutly starving classes on the other side the world, nurse ourselves, as a people, vast portions of our countrymen who love occasions prior to his appointment. But discouraged her. Poor Mary—yes sir, it old woman I ever knew, except the one of the Atlantic. So completely is this the into the least robust and most susceptible stoves—fill their houses with them—are we do not understand that any proposition must have been the trouble-for I know you brought in here the other day, and fact, that though we are unconscious of it physiques in existence. her heart is good, sir. I"—tears choked she is a devil outright. Talk to me about at home, the first thing (especially of late so much for the habit of exercise in the tion and fresh air physiological chimeras, or is held in immediate contemplation by the old lady's utterance. Recovering her-being good!—ha—ha"—and she laughed years) which strikes an American return-open air. Now let us look at our mode of which may be left to the speculations of the existing Government. At a meeting,

men so delicate, that his eye, accustomed sound health long, if he is in the habit of especially the new country; they are cheap, in its favor, and this was given by the kind heart interpreted the old lady's emo
"Yes-dear mother," chimed in the to the higher hues of health, and the more breathing impure air. As sound health labor-saving, clean. If the more enlight mover, who is an Englishman, and the disagreeably on our mind, on returning being to purify and vitalize the blood), it and learn to live more in the open air. If "Yes, Mary," said the old lady, hand- from Euro; e'a ely, we fanc el it worth our follows, that if a nation of people will, our countrymen will take poison in, with After a brief pause she brushed away ing her down a faded, ragged gown, "here while to plunge 200 or 300 miles into the from choice, live in badly ventilated rooms, every breath which they include in their millions in the United States Treasury is interior of New York. It would be pleas. full of impure air, they must become pale houses, and all their public gatherings, looked upon as a splended prize by all the Mary raised herself on the pile of rags ant, we thought, to see not only the rich and sallow in complexions. It may not let them dilute it largely, and they may ligious people, and used to love to go to eldest girl across the room, screamed out, to Lake Erie; but, also, (for we felt con- are more or less called into the open air taking it in such strong doses.

talized beyond his power to imagine; he should see women (girls of not more than should see women (girls of not more th but I never will go from this place. I complexions have vanished with them, of air in twenty-four hours.

in this nice carriage, and to get away from with the elastic figures and healthful But let us take the case of a room hea- there. Our information comes from diff. lite, the fashionable, the gentlemanly, the see, he is laughing: he likes to ride. - with a real and living landscape. What The windows are made pretty tight to keep was beset by enemies on all sides. He political tact or diplomacy in humbugging You will love sister Edith and baby, and is with us a sweet dream, from sixteen to out the cold; and as there is very little air had incurred the hostility of a number of both houses of Congress into measures and me, now, won't you, dear mother? and you twenty-five, is there a permanent reality carried out of the room by the store-pipe, influential chizens on merely personal projects calculated to take money out of Arriving at Mr. Pease's house, the de- of climate, were it not that we saw, as the amount) there is little fresh air coming in one or two other officers they had recom- purpose, to reach Washington physical health; which is so much better more. But as a man renders noxious as by the French Consul, succeeded in getting plaint of a scarcity of boats in the coal them with the bairs of her head,"-her open air by all classes of people; the sec- impure air which has been breathed over, who constitute the House of Nobles, and North Branch canal during the whole sumond, the better modes of heating and ven- that it is all thoroughly poisoned, and unfit who will, although the Doctor has ceased mer. As there will be over one hundred

I will relate an incident that occurred, God of mercy! what a wreck of beautiful "and her children rise up and call her both as a duty and a pleasure, is something an ordinary unventilated room, heated by But though the British Consul succeedlooked upon in a very different light on a stove, to perceive at once, by the effect ed in ousting Dr. Judd, he was discomficted County Postmasters should bear in the two different sides of the Atlantic. on the lungs, how dead, stifled and destia poor unfortunate woman and three children She is living now "-and the tears

The grandmother was holding by the stores, and only half ventilated the reason, as it appears, that Mr Juli for an execus of most stored would be found the foundation of the procure the removal of Mr. Juli for an execus of most stored will not average more than from six to thing in the world.

She is living now "-and the tears

The grandmother was holding by the eight cents per year.

elf, she continued:

"She had a kind husband once. He "Mother," said the eldest child, sweetly countenance of friends, acquaintances, and it is here that the national poison is engen
"Mother," said the eldest child, sweetly countenance of friends, acquaintances, and it is here that the national poison is engen
"Mother," said the eldest child, sweetly countenance of friends, acquaintances, and it is here that the national poison is engenfresh air upon it, through the agency of democratic and national.

and have you carried to the station house. open air, so that she has, as yet, in that Now, a room, warmed by an open fire work, and the nation is insensible. way escaped any considerable doses of the place or grate, is necessarily more or less Pale countrymen and countrywomen, on the dress the old lady handed her, and

Now that we are fairly affoat on this tion going on; because, as a good deal of given us an atmosphere of pure, salubrious, has been a mystery to a great many peoconsented to go with them. A carriage dangerous sea, we must unburden our the air of the room goes up the chimney, health-giving air, forty-five miles bigh, was soon procured and Mary helped inside: heart sufficiently to say, that neither in besides the smoke and vapor of the fire, a and rentilate your houses. Mr. Pease lifting in the baby and the two England nor France does one meet with corresponding amount of fresh air coming this misery less, God knows, but to sever to die. His last words were, 'God will little girls, and away they started for the so much beauty—certainly not, so far as in at the windows and door crevices to charming eyes and expressive faces go to- supply its place. The room, in other "Oh, mother!" exclaimed the younger wards constituting beauty -as in America. words, is tolerably well supplied with fresh the Sandwich Islands, giving us full de- will bring together during the next and ignorant of their evils, and think ventila- looking toward annexation has been made.

(the stove is perhaps on the air-tight prin- grounds, and that of some of the mer- the Treasury. We expect half of Wall more, or hurt dear grandmother, will you? We should think it might be a matter ciple, that is, it requires the minimum chants by not appointing a Collector and street, with plans and circulars for this lungs, it actually happens that in four or King, whose prejudices had been aroused, is a great scarcity on the Schusikill canal, Another "Mary" hath "bathed the The first transatlantic secret of health, five hours all the air in this room has been accepted his resignation against the remon- as well as the Delaware and Hudson for healthful respiration. A person with to be a member of the Government, take miles of new canal opened next spring on Regular daily exercise in the open air, his senses unblunted, has only to go into his advice as much as ever.

exception; some bright-eyed young, rustic that as common air consists of a mixture shake a man about falling into that state grandmother, with half averted faces, trem- world has not all grown "delicate;" and, we have once breathed, having, by passing portion to his own indifference and unconif you inquire, you will learn probably through the lungs, been deprived of most sciousness to his sail state, so we are the Mr. Pease said to her, "Mary, you may that she is one of those whose natural of the healthful gas, is little less than un-more emphatic in what we have said, bcause we see the hational poison begins to ventilated, by the very process of combus-rouse vourselves. Consider that God has

The Sandwich Islands.

tails of the events recently transpiring following session of Congress, all the po-of an Englishman to fill his place. The season as possible, or there may be great thwart their efforts. Mr. Allen had pre- there will be employment for all that can

"I came, sir," said she, "in behalf of stood upon the shelf, and a quantity of

VOLUME X -- NO. 31. WHOLE NUMBER, 499.

On the other side of the water, a person —the air breathed by countless numbers, was suspected of being favorable to the who should neglect the pleasure of breath- both walking or sleeping. dary of his duties, and really outraged the ted States, at no distant day, appear to be

The Lobby Members.

political gamblers about the country, and a desperate attempt will be made at the next session of Congress to get hold of the money in some specious form or other, miscalled improvement or public good. A correspondent of the Herald, writing

There is every appearance of a prodigious accession to the class of lobby members during the next session of Congress. The host of ex-members of Congress, and of disappointed office seekers of all parts of the country, are coming to Washington to look after the jobs att l contracts and side, in lobby, by various members of that

House rent increases very much, in conmost splendid in their entertainments of any set. For several years past, one of these gentleman has actually kept two splendid houses here, entertained in the most elegant style-one for society of the first rank and the other for out siders. How ple not in the secret of lobby membering at Washington. The truth is, the thirty millions surplus, to be expended in some We have received private advices from mode by contracts and government grants the North Branch of the Susquebanna, all persons interested in the coal trade of that rich region should take measures to have