

Lewisburg Chronicle.

C. H. HICKOK, Editor. J. O. N. WORDEN, Printer. $1.50 each in advance, $1.75 in three months, $2 paid within the year, and $2.00 at the end of the year.

Lewisburg, Pa. FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 9, 1853.

ADVERTISEMENTS:—Executors, Administrators, Public Officers, City and County Merchants, Manufacturers, Wholesale Business Men—all who wish to procure or to dispose of anything, would do well to give notice of the same through the "Lewisburg Chronicle." This paper has a good and increasing circulation in a community containing as large a proportion of active, solvent purchasers, as any other in the State.

The Editor is still absent. The news of the massacre of Lieut. Gunnison, U. S. A., and of several of his party, by Western Indians, is confirmed.

These warm days and cool nights offer excellent opportunities to become experimentally acquainted with ague and fevers. Dress warm, keep dry, live very temperately, and avoid night and damp air as much as possible, if you would have comfortable health.

Lewisburg escaped the infliction of any "Circus" proper last season, but has recently suffered from the deprecations of a "Circus-horse Theatre" upon the morals and pockets of her youth. The company was composed of the poorest fagade of city theatres, but in low buffonery and degrading and belittling tendency was equal to a "first-class" run-hole or brothel filler in New York. While we pity the unfortunate beings who take out a miserable existence by such methods, we indulge the hope that the time may come when a people professing as much religion as ours does—so much zeal for the Maine Law—may have a Burgess who will not tolerate such pernicious exhibitions, and heads of families who will not rent rooms for them. They serve no good purpose, but in their influence upon the manners and morals of the young, are a deadly scourge.

Look here, Borrowers and Postmasters! We not infrequently receive letters like the following: Nov. 27, 1853. Please send the Chronicle any more my way of getting it is inconvenient and then they have been well overhauled and present, torn in two, and for this reason I wish to have it stopped, for I am not disposed to keep the Township in papers. Yours, &c.

We would seriously ask Postmasters who allow subscribers' papers to be used by non-subscribers—and we would ask non-subscribers themselves—if this be fair treatment? Subscribers may not complain to the P.M. or to their neighbors, against such abuse; but the Printers suffer by it. We offer three observations: 1. Postmasters may be prosecuted for giving A's paper to B. without the order of A. 2. Papers are now so cheap that every man can have his own, and is entitled to have, first, the news which he pays for. 3. We will send a paper gratis to any P.O. where we have half a dozen subscribers, provided every subscriber's paper is kept for him unopened. The extra paper for the use of the loafers and the poor.

Chief Justice Tupper has recently decided in admiralty, in the United States Circuit Court, that lumber rafts wrecked on the Susquehanna or any public navigable river, while being floated down or anchored in the river, is not the subject of salvage; that they are not subject to admiralty jurisdiction, as they are not intended for the navigation of the Sea or arms of the Sea; and that any salvage rendered to such rafts, when in danger of being broken or swept down by the current, is not a salvage service, and makes no liability to a recompense, that all intermeddling with such property in such cases is at the risk of those intermeddling.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that the Mary Lewisburg, that Mr. John Bower, son-in-law of William Edwards, of Muncy Creek township, was instantly killed on Saturday evening last, at Bellefonte, by being thrown from a horse. Mr. Bower leaves a wife and one child to mourn his sudden and untimely death.

A student of Allegheny College, at Meadville, Pa., was badly burned on the 12th ult., by the breaking of a camphine lamp.
