LEWISBURG CHRONGIA

H. C. HICKOK, EDITOR.

O. N. WORDEN, PRINTER.

LEWISBURG CHRONICLE that sweet voice, which before caused his

AN INDEPENDENT PARILY JOURNAL to the grief his shame had brought upon Issued on Feiday Mornings, at Lewisburg, him. Union county, Pennsylvania

TERMS.—$1.50 per year, for each actually in advance;
$1.50, if paid within three manths: $2.00 if paid within a year; $2.50 if not valid before the year appears of the loss, the extent of which was but a dime—no more!

The progress of the case acquainted us with the circumstances of the loss, the extent of which was but a dime—no more!

The lad's employer, a wealthy, miserly himself and the new patrons (for one year only,) cash in Apprairiements handsomely inserted at 50 cents per

(max) manual discommend and paid up like men 5 runaway or "stopped"

We send papers to Europe, Asia, Canasla and "I S at - and Territories.

Assuming that every paper we print has five readers, the "Chronicle" has 3,500 bearers-a congregation which is punctual In had as well as in fair weather, and is larger than that of the most fat bful preather or the most eloquent fecturer, (but us say, "He forg to where he is. Thinkthe salary considerably less.)

we have clothed it in new type, at a cast Bible." bled - Printing paper has advanced 20 or the h with anger, and turning his flashing 25 per cent.—The sum paid for workmen eye upon the audience, he convinced them is largely increased - Farmers' produce has it was no mistake, saying, "Justice wants raised in price generally.....but our terms no other book." His confusion was gone, have not been advanced. Thus, while and instantly he was as calm as the sober our patronage has increased, our profits Judge on the bench.

obtain an increase of PATRONAGE. The tence: papers above us on the West Branch, and some on the North Branch and elsewhere, We felt our heart throb at the sound of on at our old rates.

rons might be readily obtained.

a small profit indeed. If each one now caused tears, held its hearers spell-bound. In the hearth is a blaze, the wingetting a paper singly will get one or more. The little time that was necessary to dows are curtained, the old circle is narus better profits new one and soul the Cash ($2) for both electricity from hip to hip. one or more sub-cribers.

"Lead us not into Temptation."

sangwhat monorous a midents of vilage infe, we stepped into the room where the court had convened.

man, whose anxious glance from the Judge he is now the Speaker.] to the boy, left us no room to doubt that it was his mother. We turned with sadness of stealing money.

How we pitied him! The bright smile bay of Smyrua." gamed admission to his side, and cheered week. fur. I canony, or that city, has now jowner of the eyes affected population, under the little children trot along, with their lage school of earlier days. He still hears greatly exceeding Philadelphia or Balt. him with the whisperings of hope. But half an acre of strawberries in full growth. not nearer to Heaven, as Hamlet had it, heart to bound with happiness, added only and unprincipled manufacturer, had made Accentrates hardsamely interfed at 50 cents per square, we welt. It cents each subsequent insertion, $5 as year. Two squares, $1 for six months, $7 for a year.

More author subsettlements not exceeding one fourth of a "testing the boy's honesty." It was placed, cannot be a year. Helf square, a half price. Yearly advertisement under helf a square, the cents per line—18 lines to a square long primer, 16 hower, 12 normated.

Discontinuance optional with the Publisher, when all dust are not paid; and longed on all a count due.

A day passed, and the master, to his more use of it, for the purpose of what he called du * are not pait; an l'inicit on all avenut due.

A day passed, and he master, to his mornot shinn the range of party by extrangented. All the financial tiffication, not pleasure, found the coin unletter to a me party to extrangented. All the many and address of the arise to a ration. 22-Those touched. Another. address of the collection of the later of the state of the bis object was not gained. This continued directed to the sate of the sate there and these on the sate of the sate The state of a Normal Path let.

The state of the Mark the letter of the Mark the office of the Mark the late of the lat Consect A will the All contact for that little sister was purchased contact for that little sister was purchased with it. These execumstances were sus
Decim Market Square in the like second sery it and by victal 4 his employer's work
mer above to Post on the like second sery it and by victal 4 his employer's work-O H WOAD B, 27 pricted. 10 in white we are parties to the plot .and they are upon the Jury the neces-A Ward about the "Chronicie." say of making the "httle rouge" an examboft who as the lowerth pow plate others, by punishment. His address had great effect upon all who heard it. H fore, I could see many tears of sympathy for the lad, his widowed mother, and his faithful sister. But their eyes were all line of the changes the past year have dry now, and none looked as if they cared for or expected aught else but a conviction. 75 The accuser sat in a conspicuous place, 119 smiling as if in fiend-like xultation over the misery he had brought upon that poor, but once happy trio.

We felt that there was but little hope without paying up 11-63 for the boy; and the youthful appearance of the attorney who had volunteered his defence, gave no encouragement-as we learned that it was the young man's maiden plea-his first address. He appeared greatly confused and reached to a desk near him, from which he took the Bible that had been used to solemnize the testimony. This movement was received with general language and taunting remarksamong which we heard a fellow close by ing to take hold of some ponderous law Since the Chronicle came into our hands, book, he has made a mistake and got the

The Bible was opened, and every eve A reasonable inference from these was upon him, as he quietly and leisurely s is, that we must RAISE OUR turned over the leaves. Amidst a breath-RATES OF CHARGES, or our patrons must less silence, he read to the Jury this sen

" Lead us not in. "imptation."

have raised their charges. We choose to those words. The audience looked at each wait-one year longer-at the old rates, other without speaking-and the Jurymen trusting that we may be favored with such mutely exchanged glances, as the approan increase of Sub-cribers, Advertising, priate quotation carried its moral to their and Job Work, as may enable us to keep hearts. Then followed an address whose influence was like magic. We saw the In almost every neighborhood within 20 guilty accuser leave the room in fear of miles around Lewisburg, additional pat- personal violence. The prisoner looked hopeful-the mother smiled again-and, We send out 9s papers in single wrap- before its conclusion, there was not an eve pers. To print, fold, envelop, and direct in the Court that was not moist. The 52 papers per year for $1,50, affords but speech, affecting to that degree which fire-place, the old andirons are wheeled new sub-cribers to join him, the larger transpire before the verdict of the Jury rowed around the old-fashioned fire. packages will go more safely, and afford could be learned, was a period of great Just the season for Saturday nights a xiety and suspense. But when the What blessed things they are, and what One Deliar a year, (and no pestage in whisp ring consultation ceased, and those would the world do without them? Those Union county.) is all the paper will cost hoopy words, " No guilty," came from breathing moments in the tramping march to any old subscriber who will obtain our the foreman, they passed like a thrill of of life; those little twilights in the broad course of our paper, to aid us by getting essful one. He was soon a favorite, and and faces "changed" long ago, smile new represents his district in the councils sweetly again in the hush; when one recountries and our membranees-and we, the old-fashioned fire, and the old armin he strong of 104 - we mance to by the effecting scene herein attempted to chair, and the little brother that died, and have proving a few law is a boundful in- he described, have often been led to think the little sister that was "translated." Parasilvania It now menifold greater is the crime of the Saturday nights make people human the taper, than of the tempted.

respondent of Arthur's Home Gazette, oc with tattoos. enrred in the Court at Harrisburg. The Among the presenters in the box, we saw a lad of but tender years, whese sad and pensuch a lad of but tender years, whese sad and pensuch a brilliant debut, was John C. Kun-doored vaults come to with a bang; up go sive countenance, caused him to look sadly KEL, now one of the ablest and most sucout of place among the hardened criminals possful lawyers in that judicial district. key in the lock. It is Saturday night by whom he was surrounded. Close by for several years he represented Dauphin and Business breathes free again. Home county in the popular branch of the Legis- ward, ho! The door that has been ajar the box, and manifesting the greatest in-terest in the proceedings, sat a tearful wo-state Senate of which distinguished body State Senate of which distinguished body all the week, gently closes behind him from the scene to enquire of the offence of GRAHAM -A resolution has been offered the book, (save the record in the old the prisoner, and learned he was accused in the South Carolina Legislature, pro- family Bible,) and not in the bank .posing to present a sword to Capt. Dancan BENJ. F. TAYLOR. The case was soon commenced, and by N Ingraham, of the United States Navy, the interest manifested by that large crowd, "as a testimonial from his native State for one in which sympathy for the lad existed on board the sloop-of-war St. Louis, in the young sister—a bright eyed girl—had ceived a mess of fresh strawberries last on a level with the tables again! The young sister—a bright eyed girl—had ceived a mess of fresh strawberries last on a level with the tables again. The unates and sanctions the chief lies the path to the vil- the United States in point of shipping, gained admission to his side, and cheered week. Mr. Peabody, of that city, has now owner of the eyes aforesaid, is a Lilliputian, erusbing laws and proscriptive ediets

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1853.

Retrospection.

Revisiting the disapolated Birth-place of the Writes after an Absence of many Frats. (A FIRST AND LAST ATTEMPT.)

BT JOHN BANNISTER GIRSON. The home of my youth stands in silence and sad

None who tasted its simple enjoyments are there; No longer its walls ring with give and with gladness

The infantile sports in the shade of the wildwood, The father who smiled at the games of the ball, the parent still dearer who watched o'er my childhe Return not again at Affection's fond call.

And the garden—fit emblem of youth's faling flower

No fawn footed urchin now bounds o'er its lawn, The young eyes that beamed on its rose-colored bou Are fied from its arbors -for ever are cone. Why, memory, elling thus to life's jocund morning!

Why point to its treasures exhausted too soon? r tell that the buds of the heart at the dawning, Were destined to wither and perich at noon? On the soat, sadly musing, O panse not a moment-

Twere better than ages of present enjoyment, But Time ne'er retraces the footstops he measures; In fancy alone with the past we can dwell

Then take invited blessing lov'd scene of young pleasu

Dear home of my childhood-for ever farewell! FALL.

Fall! How eloquent the word! The flowers fall in the gardens, the fruits fall in the orchards, the nuts fall in the woods, "the stars fall" in the sky, the rains fall from the clouds, the mercury falls in the tubes, the leaves fall everywhere-and FALL it is.

The wind is sighing around the corners. mouning over the thresholds, singing at the windows, roaring over the chimney-tops, and harping through the forests.

The gray clouds look angry and suller The great, heavy drops come driving against the window-panes; the cattle stand in the fields, with the wind astern; the sheep gather under the lee of the barn. They banked up" the house, yesterday; put the cabbages in the cellar, the day before; will cover the potatoes to-morrow. Mack and Port call for their mitters-the blue

The black-birds, a rabble route, hold high council of flight, on a dry elm in the mendow; there is a twitter, and a flutter. and a great acclamation. Up go the swallows in a cloud; away ride the sparrows on the billowy air. The robin and his wife hear the sound of wings in the thicket, and go too. The owl looks out from his flow tree, and gathers still closer, his russet muffle about his ears. The ridged and tawny fields look like and death in them. cordurey; their rustling and golden glories have departed. The corn stands shivering in long lines, wrapped in rusty overalls, like a regiment of

"Old Continentals in their ragged regimentals," The pumpkins lie in great heaps, here and there, like cannon-shot.

Little "flurries" of snow whirl doubtfully through the cloudy air, and sift over the dark, old fallow. The sun goes down with a bounce; it is dark before night.

The asparagus is bundled out of the and garish glare of noon, when pale yesterin advance. We ask all who approve the The young lawyer's first plea was a suc- days look beautiful through the shadows, f to Commonweith The lad has never members "the old folks at home," and set their hearts to beating softly, as they used to do, before the world turned them [The above incident, narrated by a cor- into war-drums, and jarred them to pieces

The ledger closes with a clash : the iron the world is shut out. Shut out? Shut in, the rather. Here are his treasures SOUTH CAROLINA AND CAPTAIN IN- after all, and not in the vault, and not in Blessed Almanacs.

We were not aware that the late eminent jurist, Judge Port, and he lacks a sheet of paper of impossible to stand erect on this their hours later by the heads of the family, bell, which called his father and forefathers appear that it was his frequent custom; but a fair and speaking of eyes, where native soil, and may therefore be induced to rest, and looking as the spot where his parents are laid to re half the time.

vine in a garden, has run all over the following also passed:] month of December, and leaved and flow- "Whereas, Among the endless devices by some naturalists named "corner loun ered at a tropical rate, some where near of the Pro-Slavery spirit, is the attempt to gers." the 25th. "How many days is it to divert attention from the great issue now Christmas?" "How many Saturdays is before the country, and to baffle the operit?" There is no school on Saturdays, ations of this Society, by raising against it and the little rascal keeps his calender by the most false and malignant outcriesplay-days! Well, let him, for few enough such as that it is an "anti-Sabbath," an of them he'll find by and by, unless he "anti-Bible," an "anti-government," an lives on into the Millennium. "And will "infidel" Society, &c. &c. : therefore. Santa Claus come ?- and how can be come "Resolved, That the only views which down the chimney and the stove-pipe ?- are sanctioned and promulgated by the and does he come Christmas or New American Anti-Slavery Society on these Year's?" There's that vine of his, a week topics, are-That it is lawful on the Sablonger than it was, a minute ego.

him come Christmas!" and eyes, and feet, into the horrible pit of slavery, and to and heart, for that matter, all dance to combine to extract them therefrom: That gether. Have him come Christmas !- the Bible is most foully and wickedly per-There spoke the child of a larger growth, verted, by the great body of the American There peeped out the man, through the clergy, to the sauction and support of disguise of boyhood, thus early drawing American slavery: That any government on the future, like a gay heir in expec. which makes merchandize of human betancy, to make up the deficits of the pres- ings, and hunts fugitive slaves, is to be a man and woman bankrupt for the amount the only Infidelity which the Society of a thousand hopes sterling, and "the un. endorses, is that which breaks the you divided half" of a life of happiness.

of care and toil, if not of tears; but chil. ious, is that which vindicates Slavery as dren have, in their calendar, but four or compatible with justice, humanity, and five days in a whole year-Christmas, New the love of God." Thanksgiving—but they, like great lamps, merce with Japan, &c. light up all the year, and keep the little [Extract from a private L. Der from an American more in China.]

happy, two-and-six pence will make a lad trade of this fifty million to average $1 time and place every week. They never bors. He has as yet been permitted to see and a heavy light in them.

they are like those

"by a cloud in a summer day made, Looking down on a field of blossoming clover." A cloud! Life itself is a morning cloud or secure, or fertile, or civilized. and whether with shadows or glory, glides plan are thus expressed :]

Resolved, That, in regard to the Colon-Plymouth or Jamestown colony; nor whethe tea revenue be cut off. ship, and surrounded by many afflicting a healthy growing trade results from mu-

While I am writing these words, a pair "natural, and not to be removed even by assist in every way he can? el with the table, are following my pen in heart"-(4.) Because it is the bitter, its eccentric movements over the page. malignant, and active enemy of the Anti-even " by the altitude of a copine," than the pressure of which they shall find it three feet. And speaking of eyes, where native soil, and may therefore be induced solemnly following the lead of their part to the house of God, and near at hand is The progress of the case acquainted us with the circumstances of the loss, the extent of which was but a dime—no more! a short time before his decease. Yours, &c. A.R.R."

The progress of the case acquainted us with the circumstances of the loss, the extent of which was but a dime—no more! a short time before his decease. Yours, &c. A.R.R."

The progress of the case acquainted us where his parents are laid to rest, to emigrate to Africa—(5.) Because the ucutar turn of conscience, and looking as the spot where his parents are laid to rest, and where, when his time has come, he and where, when his time has come, he ation, down to the time when the less shall be laid by his children. These are thing into a cutery that they are a short time before his decease. Yours, &c. A.R.R." Subject yourself for a balf hour to one and (7.) Because, from its institution to of rest, all is peaceful and proper. But in cannot point them gold cannot buy them: of these youthful inquisitors, and you are the present time, the objects of its professed the afternoons a new class appears, neither they flow out of the deepest fountains of more of a philosopher than I take you to commiseration have unceasingly borne the inclined to religion or excitement, to mo, the heart; they are the life spring of a be, if he doesn't pose you, in less than strongest testimony against it as uncalled tion or rest—a species of human vegetable, fresh, healthy and generous national charbath day to remember the millions of our "Oh! have him come Christmas! Have fellow-countrymen who have been plunged and lets the oppressed go free; and the Men have a weary train of days-days only Christianity which it rejects as spur-fellows percunial candidates for hope. As to the trade and resources of Japan, conversation in the true meaning of the 1 ca. 1 rooks austinaning such that Australia How much happiness is purchased for its population and general civiliant how little in the Holidays! And it is most exaggerated coinings annear in harse sweeted by another with the same spirit as falteringly in his work, sowing his seed and easy calculated there is a structure of makes the population lifty million, and the if the same words were said at the same trusting to God for a blessing upon his laapiece; and all this trade of two hundred laugh, or, if they do, not naturally, but as but few converts from among the Malays, Who wouldn't invest in such property! million dollars is going straight into the if it were expected of them to do it just but he has seen some, and we know not But those eyes; there they are yet, look- pockets of merchants, as soon as the count then, like a clock is expected to strike the how many more there mey yet be in whose ing over the table's edge, and I can not try is opened to their ships. It is a mis- hour. They don't appear to care anything hearts the seeds of divine truth may gerhelp dreading the time when they will take to reckon on such data. I judge from about each other, or in fact about any minate and bring forth fruit unto life eterlook down upon it, and one can see shathe extent of the arable land, and habits thing else, but each individual vapidly nal. Of late, a special movement among dows in them, and the coming of a real of the Japanese; their love for hunting stares about and gets through his wretched the young men who were formerly his patear in them-for children seldom weep- and sports-which augur large areas of role, and when the san goes down, the pils furnishes one carnest of of mountains, and other data, that twenty, and they all go to their own place. True, there are shadows there now, but million of people is a high figure for a Do they actually delade themselves into improvement. One article of their constiization enterprise, we make no issue on and twenty million dollars worth of En- nature hat d vacuity. any of the following points—whether Afglish and American cargoes unsold, which It was all very well for Mr. Turveydrop through the country for whom there is no rica ought not to be reclaimed from barba- they will not buy in these troublous times to go out to show his deportment, but even missionary at all—what is to be done? rism and idolatry; nor whether black mis- while our merchants are all alive at the that excuse can scarcely be claimed by These Chicese, amalgamated more or less sionaries are not better adapted to its apprehension of a short supply of tea and these corner cacti, although a waggish with the Malays, seem destined to superclimate than white ones; nor whether it silk, and prices are constantly rising for friend has suggested that from their consede the original inhabitants of these parts, is wrong to assist voluntary emigration to these two articles, although money is only tinual looping they permaps have a claim and, as I remarked in my former letter, the shores of that continent; nor whether to be had at 5s. 10d. and 6s. per dollar, to consider themselves well bred.—Philo. their children are readily collected in the Slave trade has not been crippled, or and even Ss. at Shanghai. The Chinese Register. driven from their localities by the colonies care really very little for cottons and metalready established; nor whether the settlement at Liberia has not attained, in the Englishmen can not do without ten and her the condition of the free colored peo- The Japanese and we will perhaps be ther the condition of the first the first the condition of the first the first the condition of the first circumstances; nor whether, to those who tual wants, and a knowledge of what other are held in bondage, exile with penniless nations can supply; and this interchange equal-more strongly than another, the A very peculiar train of providences brings freedom is not preferable to a life of chattelized servitude; but it is, what are the to meet the Americans peaceably, and condoctrines, designs, and measures of the sent to remove her ridiculous seclusion as American Colonization Society, and is it soon as she sees it can be safely done; for, worthy of the countenance and support of a by so doing, she will avoid, perhaps, a worse heavens, a portion is his—his from the The citizens of Pottsville propose establishment. orthy of the countenance and support of the sound and support of the countenance and support of the sound and countenance and support of the sound and countenance and support of the sound and supp the Colonization Society for the following serious evils will come first, among which among other reasons:-(1.) Because it will be the opium trade, which English sanctions the infernal doctrine, that man and American merchants here will push as will follow him, and to whom he is to transcan rightfully hold properity in his fellow far as they can, sacrificing even present mit a home. man-(2.) Because it is managed and gain to future hopes, in order to urge on controlled by Slave-holders, whose aim is this cursed traffic. Times and seasons are from his forefathers. They have gone to within two months to furnish the balance to give quietude, security, and value to the rapidly changing the appearance of these their last home; but he can trace their foot-Slave system, by the removal of the free Eastern Nations, and all for the hope of steps over the scenes of their daily labors. rious one, and we hope will prove successblacks—(3.) Because it declares the lep seeing them receive the Gospel. Does The roof which shelters him was reared by full more expressed the cares of the aged. His The editor of the Savannah News re-"Union Questions" in hand, replaced some from his wine for, hateful, persecuting, and unnatural." hebdomadally drawn forth by the sun from lacter. But small as he is, his ambition, like a [On motion of Wm. Lloyd Garrison, the bricks and mortar of certain favored Letter from Prof. John Silsby, of the localities These curious objects have been of as a nuisance. He is reported to insult ladies in a cowardly manner, and even, relying on the numbers of his party, to openly disparage the exterior of weak-looking men. His general tone of conversation, also, is ent—an extravagance, that has made many execrated and repudiated for ever: That keys caudal appendage. But our corner he week tor the adult Malays. numbers show a little individuality by "It should be remembered that Mr. K. Year's, and Birth-day, Fourth of July, and Thanksgiving—but they, like great lamps, misapprehension Concerning Gomgive some uniformity to the band, and thus spoken of by the report of the 'Singapore arranged there they drearily stand and Union' in 1830; and similar views, I un-forest and mountain lands—their ranges group fades away "like an exhalation," These young men have recently formed group of islands not much larger than an idea that this is enjoyment? In this tution declares their rejection of Mahom-Great Britain, and not so well governed, plorious world is there no object for a medanism and their belief of Christianity. young, healthy man to attain, which would They have requested Mr. K. to meet them The trade to these insulars will be of keep his mind above the level of a stand-once every week, and aid them in the study swiftly and silently by .- BENJ F. TAYLOR. slow growth, for they need nothing of us, ing pool? Is there no field for thought, of the Bible. This movement is altogether and copper and camphor, and perhaps study, feeling, open-nothing to do under voluntary on the pert of these young men, Abolitionists on Colonization, &c. lacquered-ware, and silk, are the only arti- the sun? Why even animal action is no one baving suggested it to them. The American Anti-Slavery Society was cles they have got for us, and ton ships a something, and the dog that frisks and "Mr. K. however, greatly needs help formed in Philadelphia in 1833, and this year will supply the world with these, barks in the pure air, the mocking bird his school demands most of his time, and month celebrated its Second Decade in the Even here, in China, after a trade of two that you let out of its cage into the parlor exhausts his funds. What is one man same place. Its views of the Colonization centuries, the people are so indifferent to to take a holisay flight, is higher in the among so many? And then, the thirty every sort of goods brought here (except scale of being than one of these corner or forty thousand Chinese here, and the epium) that there are now between fifteen boards that only point out where larks same number in the adjacent town of Ma-same period, as high a position as did the raw silk, nor their Government get on if which he lives—by the laws of civilized confidently of the claims of this place, and nations - he is the rightful and exclusive I have now the offer of a school of one owner of the land which he tills, is by the hundred and thirty native Chinese and constitution of our nature under a whole. Malay boys; for the support of which the any source. He feels-other things being dellars a month. Ought I to accept it? character of a man as the lord of the in- this offer to me. But I have not now t me animate world. Of this great and wonder- for details. Moreover, this is to me a tryful sphere, which, fashioned by God, and ing climate But if the Master calls, I upheld by his power, is rolling through the shall be most glad to obey. round of duties, and he feels himself con- frequent accidents in the coal region. Hon. nected by a visible link with those who F W. Hvernes offers to contribute $5,000.

Corner Loungers.

rous spirit of complexional prejudice is one wish to be among these changes and assist in every way he can?

The root which is being. Some those to whom he owes his being. Some interesting domestic tradition is connected who was consisted here on the charge of with every inclesure. The favorite fruit On our Sundays, it is very pleasant to tree was planted by his father's hand. He

WHOLE NUMBER, 503.

VOLUME X .-- NO. 35.

Siam Mission.

[Mr. and Mrs. Silsby are spending a littime at Singapore. He has there beome a good deal interested in the work in behalf of the Malays. The following are extracts from a letter written by him September 15th :]

"I have been employed in Mr. Kevabury's school, thus giving him opportuniy to devote his time to the work of presaid to be offensive, from its obscenity and a too liberal establishment with eaths. All Malay population of these parts. Mr. K., these strictures are probably deserved; but as you know, was formerly connected with fortunately or otherwise we have never the mission which the London Missionary seen an instance of this positive obnoxious Society had established at this place, and ness. Our attention has been solely direct when, upon the opening of the gates of ted to the phenomenon that human creation, that Society withdrew its mission tures with apparently the ordinary peace from this place, Mr. K. felt it his duty to establishment of faculties could possibly remain, although he would thus be comfrom choice pass their time in such a queer pulled to depend upon his own exertions way as we see them. There are, near a for support. He still continues his labors lozen, lounging in various positions, each among the Mulays, being aided by occamore uneasy than the other, yet each with sional donations from Europe and America, a masquerading air of seeming comfort. by contributions from the citizens of this You first notice their "get up" on ap- place, and by his own earnings. He has old from that in male attire until the school of about thirty Mslay boys, and French fashions prevail of re-introducing regular preaching every Sabbath, as also sky blue and searlet a la mode of the mon-more or less religious instruction during brightness of vests and fabulous richness labors for a people who have long been reof French metal feb-chains, which combind garded as the most unpromising populawith soap-locks and never failing canes tion in all these regions. They are thus stand. You never hear them engaged in derstand, were entertained concerning themselves into an Association for mutual schools. But my object is not now to rep-

The Farmer ... A Pretty Picture. resent the demands or wants of this place The man who stands upon his own soil, nor do I know what our duty is in regard some influence, not easily imbibed from citizens contribute more than one hundred mit a home.

Perhaps his farm has come down to him for the exection of suitable buildings) if the other responsible persons will agree

who was concirted here on the charge of