To the Whigs of Union County.

The Star and Folkesfreund have a call for a second Whig meeting, to be held on Tuesday of Court week. It is signed "By the Standing Committee : GEO. MERSILL, Ch'n."

As undisputed Secretary of that Commit-Chairman. Col. Wagenseller was fairly chosen its permanent Chairman, by a quorum of the Committee, called together by Mr. Merrill, the temporary chairman named by the county convention. All parliamentary laws confirm the natural rights of Committees to select their own permanent officers. No meeting of that Committee has since been called through its Officers. and Mr. Merrill has no authority to make an appointment for the Committee.

The call far the Monday meeting was made before, and without any knowledge of, Mr Merrill's disorganizing call. O. N. WORDEN.

Some depositions were taken last Friday, in the Bribery Cases, before Esqu. Mertz, on the part of the Defendants, to be used at the February Court on the argument of the motions to quash the bills of indictment. Some important witnesses refused to attend, but will be examined at the Court. Others refused to answer material interrogatories-one in particular, an active agent in the prosecutions, repeatedly answered under oath " It is none of your business," "It is none of the defendants' business." Another witness deposed that he was called before the Grand Jury, but had no personal knowledge whatever of the offence charged against Messrs. Gundy, Eyer and Gutclius, but testified only to the declarations of George Heimboth secretly communicated some months bet e. When this was objected to by a Grand juror, as hearsay and therefore illegal testimony, and the opinion of witness, as a lawyer, solicited, answer was made that it was corroborative testimony and therefore legal-a monstrosity in legal doctrine, and an outrage in practice, capable sulta.
