Congress—Hon JOSEPH CASEY. Assembly—Dr FREDERICK SPECK. Commissioner—MARK HALFPENNY. Auditor—HENRY S. BOYER.

Fourth of July in Lewisburg.

An informal assembly of the citizens of Lewisburg and adjacent townships, (with-out distinction of party) met in the College Chapel on Tuesday the 4th, and organized as follows:

President—FRANCIS WILSON. Vice Presidents—Messrs. Wm. Wilson, James Kelly, T. H. Hayes, G. F. Miller, Eli Sifer, Peter Weaver, Joseph Glass, Secretaries—Clinton Welch, S. F. Lyndall, C. W. Schaffle.

Committee on Resolutions—G. W. Anderson, Geo. R. Bliss, John Chamberlain, L. C. Hickok, and D. D. Guldin. The Declaration of Independence was read by Prof. Bliss, and extemporaneous addresses were delivered by Clinton Welch, Prof. Anderson, H. C. Hickok, and Rev. Dr. Malcom.

After dinner, the people were again collected to the stand, by the music, both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Fisher, Christ and others composing the Glee Club, won for themselves the laurels on that occasion; their singing would have done credit to the Lewisburg Baptist Choir, and we were permitted to express our humble opinion, we would pronounce it the best we have heard since the Bakers' visit to Union county.

Rev. Mr. Kieffer delivered the closing speech. He stated that a country had come to town, a few days previous to the 4th, inquired of Esq. Youngman where the 4th of July was going to meet, and after being informed where the celebration would be held, stated that "their school house would come in too," which singular expression formed the basis of some very entertaining and instructive remarks from Mr. K.

Another song by the Glee Club, and the procession was again formed and marched to town with swelling hearts, smiling countenances and perspiring faces, joyful in the remembrance that they had again served their country. NEBRASKA.

towards the Grove, near town, where preparations had previously been made for the occasion. The Chief Marshal, Capt. John B. Smith, led the procession, and attracted considerable attention in his official costume. We were not a little amused at hearing the inquiry, from a junior farmer, whether the "man with the ribbons was the Indian Chief?" On reaching the Grove, the exercises were opened with prayer and reading of the Declaration of Independence. The oration, by Wm. C. Hesser, was a masterly production for a young man of his age. It embraced what may be called the common bonum of a good speech, namely, pointedness and brevity. Mr. H. promises fair to become a prominent and useful member of that community.

Hon. Jos. Casey next followed with a short speech, prepared for the occasion, and although he professed being "kicked twice to making a 4th of July speech," he acquitted himself nobly, and no doubt made a favorable impression.

The music by the Band was cheering, and although the members are few in number, their pieces were well selected, and played in such a manner as to rank them among the first musicians in this region of country.

After Mr. Casey's speech, the Chief Marshal announced that Mr. Trotter, of the Columbia House, had prepared a public dinner for the occasion, and all hands were invited to partake at fifty cents a couple. Several hundred of the ladies and gentlemen present (all good soldiers) accordingly surrounded the board and partook of the bounty set before them in the grove.

After dinner, the people were again collected to the stand, by the music, both vocal and instrumental. Mrs. Fisher, Christ and others composing the Glee Club, won for themselves the laurels on that occasion; their singing would have done credit to the Lewisburg Baptist Choir, and we were permitted to express our humble opinion, we would pronounce it the best we have heard since the Bakers' visit to Union county.

Letters on Nebraska. [The Committee appointed by the Sullivan county, (Pa.) Anti-Nebraska meeting held at Laporte, on the 23d of May, for the purpose of requesting the opinions of the several candidates, upon the Nebraska question, report that they addressed letters of inquiry to James Pollock, William Bigler, Jeremiah S. Black, Daniel M. Smysers, George Darsie and Henry S. Mott. They have received in reply, the annexed three letters. T. J. INGRAM.]

MILTON, June 19, 1854. Gentlemen—Your letter of the 27th ult., with accompanying interrogatories, has been received. To your first question I reply, that, regarding the passage of the Nebraska Bill, as reckless and ill advised—as a wretched breach of national honor and planted faith—and as an open and undisguised attempt to extend the institution of Slavery to territories now free, I am "in favor of re-negating that portion of the Missouri Compromise which prohibits Slavery in the territories of Kansas and Nebraska."

To your second question, I say that the re-negation of the provision referred to, would necessarily exclude slavery from those territories; and the "unconditional unmission" of all slaves there, could not be regarded as a moral or legal wrong to any party. For Slavery can have no legal existence in those territories either by Act of Congress, or under the false pretense of "popular sovereignty." The power to establish slavery can only exist in express grant, or as an incident of absolute sovereignty, and as the Government of the United States is not absolute, but a limited, constitutional sovereignty, and as the Constitution contains no grant of this power, express or implied, it follows that Congress has no power to establish, directly or indirectly, by positive act, or by permission, under the plea of "non intervention," slavery, in any free territory of the United States. If therefore, slavery enters those territories, it will be there, not only without authority of constitutional law, but in violation of all law. Under these circumstances, the restoration and preservation to freedom of those territories, would be sustained by every principle of law, and justified by every consideration of national faith and national honor.

Yours, respectfully, JAMES POLLOCK. Thos. J. Ingram, Henry Metcalf, Jas P. Taggart, & Co., Committee.

Messrs. Darsie and Smysers replied in similar terms to the first inquiry, and Mr. Darsie to the last, which, being a judicial question, Judge Smysers deemed it not proper for a judicial candidate to answer.

Washington, July 3.—Father Ritchie, the venerable editor of the Richmond Enquirer, died at noon to day.

Harrisburg, July 3.—The time for receiving the proposals for the sale of the main line of the Public Works expired to-day, at twelve o'clock. Governor Bigler was present to receive the bids, but none were made, and consequently no sale can take place without further legislation.

The Whig Nominations "take" extremely well among the people generally, without regard to party. Not a word can be urged against them. But it has disarranged all the plans of the N. Berlin wire-pullers, and they know not which way to turn!

More Tears to be Shed!—Saturday last, the Union County Democratic Committee were called to assemble, when, but one member (only) the Chairman at New Berlin, and with great unanimity proceeded to call the Convention, some time after the Mormon disorganizers have tried to see whether they can sunder the glorious Whig party of old Union.

We expect the New Berlin process which mourned so much over the absent Whigs, will drop a tear or two over the absentees on the above occasion.

UNION AND VICTORY! For Governor, JAMES POLLOCK!

The undersigned, being a majority of the Whig Standing Committee of Union County, do hereby, for the sake of preserving peace and harmony in the Whig party, call upon the Whigs throughout the County to meet in their respective Districts on SATURDAY THE 24TH INST. or JUNE INST. and elect two Delegates to represent in COUNTY CONVENTION on MONDAY the 26th day of June inst. (Signed) 1. M. H. TAGGART, 2. M. H. TAGGART, 3. O. N. WORDEN, 4. M. H. TAGGART, 5. W. F. WAGENSSELLER.

The undersigned, members of the Whig Standing Committee of Union County, have viewed with much concern and regret the division and distraction prevailing in the party, and are anxious if possible to avoid the necessity and bad effects of holding two separate Conventions, and having signed their names to a BLANK Call, without date, for a Convention of Delegates, hereby, for the sake of peace and unity, RECALL the same, and respectfully recommend to all the Whigs in the County to meet on SATURDAY, the 24th of June inst., and elect two Delegates to represent them in COUNTY CONVENTION on MONDAY the 26th inst. This recommendation is made without pretending to decide on the rights of Mr. Wagensseller or Mr. Merrill to act as Chairman of our Committee, and for the sole purpose of harmonizing the party and securing the success of our nominees. (Signed) 6. JOHN CRAIG, 7. DANIEL LEES, 8. J. W. PENNINGTON, 9. WILLIAM RIEHL, 10. R. V. B. LINCOLN, 11. WM. S. CLINGAN.

16 June, 1854. *The Committee originally consisted of 20 members, one of whom (Mr. Wm. J. May) has since removed from the County—leaving but 19 members in the Committee. 17 Other members of the Committee have not been seen, and have therefore had no opportunity to sign the above Call.

In accordance with the foregoing Call, the Delegates assembled at the time and place appointed. The following Districts were represented: Hartley, West Buffalo, Millfinburg, Buffalo, White Deer, Lewisburg N. and S. Wards, East Buffalo, Union, Penns, Selinsgrove, Washington, Center—13 of the 23 districts.

JAMES MCREIGHT of Buffalo was chosen President, and J. D. FORREY, of Hartley, Secretary.

The first business in order was the nomination of a candidate to represent this Congressional district, when Hon. JOSEPH CASEY of Union county was unanimously nominated, and Messrs. Sifer of Lewisburg, Gibson of Union, and Snyder of Selinsgrove, appointed Congressional Conferees.

For Senator, Judge Marshall of White Deer was named, but declined in favor of a Junata candidate. Dr. Howe of Freeburg was then named, who also concedes the right to Junata. Messrs. James Marshall of White Deer, M. C. Wright of Buffalo, and Gutelius of Selinsgrove, were then elected Senatorial Conferees.

For Representative, Messrs. Speck of Selinsgrove, Howe of Freeburg, Simonton of Buffalo, and Wilt of Hartley, were nominated. The vote stood—Speck 15, Howe 3, Simonton 4, Wilt 4. So Dr. FREDERICK SPECK, of Selinsgrove, was declared nominated, and Messrs. W. F. Wagensseller of Selinsgrove, Dr. Seibold of Hartley, and Worden of Lewisburg, appointed Representative Conferees.

For County Commissioner, Messrs. S. Boyer Jr. of Penns, Aarand of Middleburg, and Halfpenny of Hartley, were put in nomination. After several ballottings, MARK HALFPENNY, of Hartley, having received the highest number of votes, was duly nominated.

For Register & Recorder, Messrs. Smith of White Deer and Pennington of Millfinburg, were nominated. The vote stood—Smith 11, Pennington 15, when JOHN W. PENNINGTON of Millfinburg was declared nominated.

For Auditor, HENRY S. BOYER Esq. of Washington Tp. was duly nominated. The Millfinburg Academy having passed out of the control of the County, the usual formality of nominating Trustees was dispensed with.
