☞The anti-divisionists vociferate that the $50,000 bond is a humbug and is worth nothing. This cry wont avail you. Why is it not good, and upon what authority do you say so? We assert that it is in all respects valid and binding, and can not be successfully impeached or evaded, and we defy you to produce the written opinion of any respectable lawyer to the contrary. And if you think it is not strong enough or binding enough as it is, employ the best legal talent you can to prepare a stronger or a better one, and we pledge you it will be signed by the same persons who signed the one now on file. Here are two distinct and unequivocal propositions. Now, gentlemen, meet them fair and square if you can. Face the music like honest men, or else forever after hold your peace. The people are waiting to hear from you, and they want something else besides twaddle.

☞The Whig Congressional Conferees for the district comprising Union, Lower Mahanoy, Dauphin, and Lebanon, met at Harrisburg, Thursday of last week

Dauphin and Lebanon counties claimed that Union county two years ago pledged itself not only not to ask for the re-nomination of Mr. Middleswarth, but also that the County should not claim the Office at present for more than that Term; and the two counties had agreed upon JOHN C. KUNKLE, thus ensuring him a majority. Upon this frank representation of the state of the case, Mr. CASEY promptly waived a contest, and Mr. Kunkle received the unanimous nomination. The Conference did not undertake to decide between the rival claimants from Union, all of whom recorded their votes for Mr. Kunkle.

This county was naturally desirous of having the Representative in Congress; but no one without her borders could be more acceptable (party politics aside) than John C. Kunkle. As a public speaker, he had not a superior during his five years' services in the Legislature; and his love of human rights, and fearlessness of power, render him peculiarly fitted, in this eventful era, for a representative of the land of Penn, of Franklin, and of the Congress of '76.

—Mr. Mengas is the democratic nominee on the part of Union county, and Maj. Lauman on the part of Dauphin.

☞The Whig Senatorial Conference of this district met at Beavertown on Saturday last, and unanimously concurred in the nomination of Mr. SELLERS of Juniata.—The Representative Conferees met at the same time, and made no nomination.—Neither Conference attempted to decide between the rival claimants from Union.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference met at Mifflintown on Tuesday. A rumor states that Mr. DOTY of Juniata received the nomination for Senate, and that no nomination was made for Representative.

—Should no democratic candidate for Assembly be brought forward, the contest would lie between Messrs. SPECK and SIMONTON, and afford a tolerably fair test on the Division question.

☞The Star supported Maj. Simonton, "subject to the decision of the Whig Conferees." The Conferees have decided not to nominate Simonton. Considering that last year both Union and Juniata agreed to support him, their present refusal to nominate him is equivalent to a rejection. All the efforts of the New Berlin clique to bully and entrap the Juniata people and Conferees, proved failures.

—From all we can learn, the people of Juniata county are entirely dissatisfied with Maj. Simonton as a Representative, and will give 400 to 600 maj. against him.

☞Mr. Gutelius some time ago challenged the opponents of Division to public discussion, but the New Berliners did not take the challenge up. Since the Bond appeared, however, they appear to think "something must be done," and Messrs. J. Swineford and C. Merrill announce themselves as ready to do battle for Longstown.

FALL RIVER, Sept. 11.—The wife and daughter of the Hon. Nathaniel B. Borden, died of cholera between Saturday morning and last night.

BUFFALO, Sept. 11.—The deaths by Cholera here during the past week number 38, of whom 12 were Americans.

Political Intelligence.

Gov. Bigler had an attack of illness at Waverly, New York, on his northern tour, but was recovering.

Judge Pollock was to pass from Pittsburg to Erie, and thence it is stated thro' the Northern counties.

The democrats of Susquehanna county have unanimously nominated Mr. Grow for a third Term in Congress, and Wm. J. Turrell Esq. (Free Soil Dem.) of Montrose, for Assembly. The Convention adjourned by a vote of 25 to 22, without passing any resolutions.

James Geddes Maxwell, of Danville, is the democratic nominee for Assembly in the Columbia and Montour district. (Our towns-folk will recognize one of their former gentlemanly clerks in Mr. M.)

David Taggart Esq. of Northumberland has the unanimous whig nomination for State Senate in the Dauphin district. His opponent is not announced. We expect to hear from China often, the three years coming.

The democratic Conferees for Schuylkill county nominated Joseph W. Cake, Esq., of that county, for Congress, while those of Northumberland declared Maj. Wm. L. Dewart of Sunbury to be the nominee—the Conference having met, and failed to agree, both are in the field. The whigs have agreed upon James H Campbell Esq of Pottsville—and the Natives run Kimber Cleaver of course.

The Galena Jeffersonian calls for a general Convention of the democrats of Illinois for the purpose of reading Senator Douglas and his adherents out of the party.

The democrats of Lycoming declared for Allison White for Congress, and re-nominated Messrs. Eldred and Beck for the Legislature, Green for Prothonotary, Runyan for Register, and Blackwell for Commissioner. (The re-nomination of five old officers, is a pretty strong approval.) The Convention endorsed the State and National Administrations, Nebraska inclusive, and Gen. Packer made a labored and eloquent argument against the Know Nothings.

J. Ellis Bonham, and Lemuel Todd, Esqs. of Carlisle, are up for Congress in the York, Cumberland and Perry district. Both democrats—Mr. Bonham the nominee and Mr. Todd a volunteer.

The democratic Convention of Sullivan county was but partially represented, and its proceedings do not state that any resolutions were adopted. Mr. Deegan was re-nominated for Assembly, and Judge J. Richter Jones recommended as candidate for Congress.

At a late election for Justice of the Peace in Portsmouth, Ohio, the Know Nothing candidate was elected by a majority of 350 votes. He was a prominent Democrat, and the town usually gives 70 to 80 Whig majority.

Mr. Douglas was not prevented from speaking in Chicago, as reported by the telegraph. He spoke over an hour, when he had catechised the "sovereigns," and the "sovereigns" retorted in a style which put both parties in a bad humor, and at length Mr. D. quit the stand, shaking his puny fist at 5,000 men. No violence was attempted, but the condemnation of the Nebraska champion was undoubted and severe, (in his own city, too.)

The democracy of Bradford county has passed strong Anti-Nebraska resolutions at their regular County Convention.

The Temperance Convention assembled in Williamsport on Tuesday evening made no regular nominations for members of assembly. Conferees were appointed and T. Woods, Esq., of Muncy, was recommended as a suitable man for nomination.

We learn from the Tioga Eagle that Gov. Bigler failed to reach Wellsborough on Wednesday last, in time to meet his appointment. He was detained at Waverly by a sudden indisposition, from which we are glad to hear he is fast recovering. The Governor spoke at Coudersport on Saturday.

Galusha A. Grow, Anti-Nebraska democratic candidate for Congress, has no opposition in the Wilmot district.

"The Rescue" is the name of a Dewart paper just started in Pottsville.

The Maine Election.

BANGOR, Sept. 12.—The vote for Governor is close. The majority for Morrill, the fusionist candidate for Governor, will be very small, though there is no doubt but that he is elected by the people. The following Congressmen, all Whigs and fusionists, have been elected: Wood, Perry, Knowlton, Benson, Washburn, and Milliken. This is looked upon as a general Anti-Nebraska victory.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12.—Returns from 107 towns give Morrell, 21,600 votes; Reed, whig, 4,694; Paris, Dem., 10,215; and Carey, the wild cat candidate, 1,977.

The Argus says that everything from Congress down has gone by the board. The papers ascribe the result to the action of the Know Nothings.

Vermont Election.

Last year, the people failed to elect a Governor, and the Legislature failed to elect a U.S. Senator. This year, the Anti-Nebraskaites have united and carried the State by 12,000 majority—State Officers, all three Congressmen, and every Senator!

☞No Foreign News of importance.

Cholera at Columbia.

COLUMBIA, Pa., Sept. 11.

The mortality from Cholera continues, and there is much excitement among our citizens. Up to this morning there have been 53 deaths since Friday Among those that have died are the following: Dr. R. E. Cochran, a member of the Legislature; Richard Spatz, conductor on the railroad; Edward A. Howard, of the Green Tree Hotel; Francis Bradley, Notary Public; John Gilbert, Constable; Joseph Strickler, Mrs. Deick, Mr. Felix, Mrs. Davis, Mr. Henry Lichty, and Miss Hauk.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 11.

The passengers from Columbia, Pa., this morning, represent the ravages of the cholera at that place, as awful. Up to 4 o'clock this afternoon, 67 deaths had occurred since the commencement of the disease, and 18 new cases were reported today. Just as the cars were leaving 17 patients were brought in from the Santee Furnace.

We have received the following additional names of those who have fallen victims to the disease: R. Spratts, J. Strickler, H. Lichty, Miss Ziegler, Mrs. Hippey, Mrs. Reese, Miss Fisher, Miss Katon, Mrs. Derrick, S. Hinkle, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Dix, and Mrs. Keesey.

The Philadelphia physicians have discovered the condition of the reservoir of water to be the cause of the disease. Those drinking spring water are exempt. It is supposed that the disease will now be checked.

The trains arriving here, this evening, brought four car loads of citizens, with their families, down to York and that vicinity, from Columbia.

Terrible Storm at Savannah.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 12.—The storm at Savannah on Friday did almost incalculable damage. Not a tree was left standing in the city. St. John's Church was nearly ruined. Trinity Church was unroofed, and several other churches were more or less injured. Several light buildings were blown down, and the Medical College, Theatre, and State Bank sustained much injury. The wharves were overflowed, causing a great destruction of property. The steamers Jenny Lind, Oregon and Sam Jones, were wrecked. The Rice crops were ruined, Dr. Scrivins alone losing $25,000. The Light Houses on Fig Island and Tybee have disappeared. The water is six feet deep on Hutchison's Island. An immense amount of Cotton is ruined.

To the Voters of Union County.

The undersigned would respectfully inform the voters of Union county, that he has been recommended as a candidate for the Office of REGISTER AND RECORDER, without his solicitation, and afterwards nominated by the Democratic Convention assembled at New Berlin. I would therefore say to my friends, and also to all others that may consider me competent to attend to the duties of said office, that being reasonably well acquainted throughout the county, I hope you will excuse me for not calling on you personally before the election; but should you favor me with your support, and elect me to said office, I will premise to attend to the duties thereof with strict fidelity, and to the best of my ability.

Yours respectfully,
GEORGE DREISBACH.

"THE CABIN BOY'S STORY,"

A Semi Nautical Romance of intense interest, by the Author of the "Pirate Doctor," the "Lawyer's Story," the "Old Doctor," &c. &c.

THE success hitherto enjoyed by the writer of the above popular works, is a sufficient guarantee of the favor with which any production emanating from his pen will be received by the public. "THE CABIN BOY'S STORY" is a romantic narrative, illustrating the horrors of the Slave Trade, as carried on in the coast of Africa. The author has served in the navy—and the descriptions and characters are painted from personal acquaintance with them. The story is full of exciting interest and adventure as the celebrated work of Defoe, "Robinson Crusoe," and has the advantage over that glorious fiction, inasmuch as it is founded on facts of every day occurrence. The history of the heroine of the story, Zuleika, the Circassian Slave purchased at Constantinople, educated and married by the reckless, yet chivalric, Seymour—the commander of the Albatross, is simply the narrative of a fact painted from the life, and all the numerous characters portrayed throughout the story are vividly and graphically drawn.

The publishers have already received orders for the whole of the edition it was originally their intention to publish; consequently, they have been induced largely to increase it; and they respectfully request that all orders may be sent immediately.

They confidently expect that the work will create as much interest as any work of fiction that has of late years emanated from the press, so, notwithstanding since the publication of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," works relating to slavery in America, pro and con, have been numerous, none have appeared having relation to the system of negro holding classes on the African Coast, written by one who has witnessed it in all its hideous deformity. The work is written in chaste and pure language, and will be a welcome and instructive addition to the family library.

The work will form a beautiful octavo volume of 120 pages, handsomely illustrated with fine engravings, and elegantly bound in cloth. Price, in cloth, one dollar; in paper, 75 cents, at which rate copies will be sent by the publishers to any part of the country free of postage.
