FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 20, 1854.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Public Officers, in City and Country, Mechanics, Executors, Administrators, Operators—all who wish to procure or dispose of anything—would do well to give notice of the same through the "Lewisburg Chronicle." This paper has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing so large a proportion of active, efficient producers, consumers, and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞No Union county paper but the Chronicle "able to be cut" last week.

☞David Taggart, Esq., has only 3040 majority in the Dauphin and Northumberland Senatorial District.

NORTHUMBERLAND, Oct. 19.—Yesterday, Mrs. John Hammer, living on the North Branch about three miles above this place, was missed for about two hours; the family went around to some houses to see if she was there, and afterwards found her in the well. She was in about two hours. It is thought she went to get a drink and slipped over.

German Reformed Synod.

The Synod of the German Reformed Church of the United States commenced its sessions in this place, on Tuesday evening last. In the absence of the President of last year, the opening sermon was preached by the Rev. S. K. Fisher, D. D., of Chambersburg, from Romans XI. 13—"I magnify mine office."

Synod convened on Wednesday morning. The Rev. Robert Douglass, of the Maryland Classis, was elected President, and the Rev. D. Y. Heisler, of Lancaster, Corresponding Secretary. William Heyser, Esq., of Chambersburg, was re-elected Treasurer. The Rules of Order were then read, by the Stated Clerk, after which the President announced the Standing Committees. The various communications intended for Synod were referred to their respective committees. After which the Synod adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Opened with prayer, by Dr. Fisher. Rev. A. H. Kremer, D. Bossler, E. Kieffer, and Elders I. Snapp and M. Rickenbaugh were appointed a committee to report the order of religious exercises observed by Synod, and subsequently reported the following: Hymn, by the President; prayer, in German language, by Rev I. S. Dubs; hymn, by Rev. D. Gans; address, by Rev. Dr. Schneck, in the English language; prayer, in the English language, by Rev. Jacob Zeigler; benediction. As the committees were not ready to report, Synod proceeded to fix time and place of its next meeting; Winchester, Reading and Chambersburg were proposed as suitable places. The latter place was chosen, and the time fixed on the third Tuesday in October, 1855.

The Rev. I. O. Miller, of York, made some statements to Synod in regard to certain papers in the possession of the heirs of the late Dr. Mayer, having reference to the early history of the Church. A committee was appointed to make inquiry and procure them, if possible, for the archives of Synod. The committee on minutes reported in part.

The most important item had reference to a request from Susquehanna Classis, asking Synod to procure a house in Lancaster, and furnish it, for the use of her beneficiary students. After considerable discussion, the matter was referred to a special committee, who are to report on the expediency of the project during the meeting of Synod. After some other business, Synod adjourned to meet in the evening, at 7 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

The religious exercised observed during session were solemn and impressive. The address, delivered by the Rev. Dr. Schneck, an extemporaneous effort, was very appropriate. He dwelt at length on the duty of faithfulness in the Christian ministry, and exposed, in glaring colors, the prostitution of the American pulpit.

The delegation to Synod is full, and their deliberations will, no doubt, be full of interest to our community.

Thursday morning.

☞Beaver, Kremer & Moore, expect a lot of Auction Dress Goods, by Railroad, next Monday—to which they invite the attention of the public.

The Eastern War.

CAPTURE OF SEBASTOPOL!

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE.

The Baltic brings us stirring but confused reports of sanguinary battles in the Crimea, the bombardment and destruction of the forts of Sebastopol, the sinking and dispersion of the Russian fleet, and the final surrender of the Russian Prince Menchikoff, with his forces. After the English allied armies had effected a landing, according to the despatches of the Generals in Chief, they, on the 20th September, stormed the Russian entrenchments, to the south of the river Alma, and forced their retreat, the allies each losing about 1400, and the Russians 4 to 6000. The Russian force opposed is magnified to 50,000 men, which is more than previous estimates put down their entire strength in the Crimea. If the Prince could hazard such a battle, we cannot see why he did not resist the landing of the allies. The account of the subsequent storming of Sebastopol was received in London by telegraph from Bucharest, dated September 28. If the battle took place, on the 25th, the Tribune says the news could have reached Varna in the night from the 26th to the 27th, and could have been conveyed to Bucharest by noon on the 28th, the distance between Varna and Bucharest being somewhat more than one hundred miles, and generally traversed by couriers in twenty four hours. Per contra, it is now understood that no courier arrived there before the 30th. The second news of the fall of Sebastopol was received by the Austrian government on the evening of Oct. 1, and communicated to the London Times by the Turkish Minister at London on the 31. The Paris Monsieur says it was forwarded to the French Government by M. de Buel, who had commanded M. de Hubner to congratulate the French Emperor, on the glorious success which had attended the French arms in the Crimea. The value of this intelligence entirely rests upon the verbal statement of the courier sent from Constantinople to Omer Pasha, which courier, not finding Omer Pasha at Bucharest, started again for Silistria, where Omer Pasha then had his quarters. According to the statement of this courier, Sebastopol had been taken, 18,000 Russians killed and wounded, 22,000 made prisoners, Fort Constantine destroyed, the forts with 800 guns captured, six Russian ships-of-war sunk, and Prince Menschikoff retired to the head of the bay, with the remainder of the squadron, declaring that he would blow them up rather than make an unconditional surrender. The allies had allowed him six hours for consideration. If this courier spoke the truth, the history of the Crimea campaign may be resumed in a very few words: On the 14th and 16th, the army landed at Old Fort, without meeting resistance; on the 19th, it marched; on the 20th, it won the battle of the Alma, and on the 25th, captured Sebastopol.

Ten Nights in a Bar Room,

And what I saw There.

BY T. S. ARTHUR.

Ten Thousand Copies in a Month.

THIS powerful work, acknowledged by all who have read it to be the best ever written by Mr. Arthur, depicts the evils of Intemperance in a series of thrilling sketches, illustrating the effects of Tavern keeping and Rum drinking, not only on individuals themselves, but to community at large. The story of little Mary Morgan and her father, who is reformed by her devotion and death, is alone worth the price of the book.

Temperance men and others can do more for the cause by its circulation than by any other means.

Agents are wanted in every town and county of the United States, to sell an edition cotton up specially for them, beautifully illustrated with a fine mezzotint engraving by Sartain.

☞A Specimen Copy will be sent (post paid) on receipt of the price, 75 cents.

The largest commission will be paid. Address

The Far-Famed Medicine!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

These Pills being composed entirely of medicinal herbs, are of a most harmless nature, while the extraordinary virtues they possess have rendered them universally popular in every part of the world. The immense numbers over they have met with throughout the States is most extraordinary, owing, it is presumed, to their wonderful efficacy in the cure of bilious complaints and disorders of the Liver and Stomach. Persons who persevere in using them according to directions, seldom fail in being restored to health.

Weakness and Debility.—Restoration to Health of a Gentleman, aged 45, when at Death's door.

Copy of a Letter from the Rev Charles Smith, dated Norton, St. Philips, near Bath, Somersetshire, 17 Aug. 1853.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR—A Mr. Joseph Pearce, formerly a resident of this place, had been in a declining state of health for upwards of three years, gradually wasting away to a shadow in mighty perspiration and want of appetite, which caused great inconvenience to his friends, as he had resort to various medical men to little without effect. He at last used your Pills, and under Providence was restored to health by their means. He (at present) resides in New York, and has just written to say, that he was never better in health, and believes he to owe that happy state to the circumstance. I ought also to mention that the wife has derived great benefit from the use of your Pills.

I remain, Sir, yours respectfully,

CHARLES SMITH, Dissenting Minister.

A permanent Cure of a diseased Liver of many Years' duration.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. ——, Chemist, Powell, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir—In this district your Pills command a more extensive patronage than any other proprietary medicine for the public. Amongst the many cases of which they have effected a cure, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and Digestive organs; her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not thought she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life.

I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,

July 29th, 1853. (Signed) J. GAMIS.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague	Dropsy	Jaundice	Secondary
Asthma	Dysentery	Liver Complaints	Symptoms
Bilious Com-plaints	Erysipelas	Lumbago	Tic Douloureux
	Female Irregu-larities	Piles	Tumors
Blotches on the Skin	Rheumatism	Ulcers
Bowels	Fevers of all kinds	Retention of Urine	Venereal Affections
Colics	Fits	Scrofula, or Evil	Worms of all Kinds
Constipation of the Bowels	Gout	Sore Throats
Consumption	Head-ache	Stone and Gravel	Weakness from any cause
Debility	Indigestion	Inflammation	&c. &c.

Sold at the Establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar, London,) and also at his house in New York. To Wool-Growers.

50,000 pounds Wool WANTED. The subscribers feel thankful for past patronage conferred upon them, manufacturing operations, and hope in future that the well-wishers of their country will feel disposed to share abundantly by patronizing "Home Industry and Enterprise." Farmers, Merchants, and Mechanics, we invite you all to give us a call, as we intend keeping constantly on hand a good assortment of Goods of our own manufacture, such as to exchange for Wool or sell low for Cash, Grain, Lard, Soap, or any other marketable Produce. They will also Wholesale to Merchants, and save them the Jobber's profit, which is from 10 to 15 per cent.

Cash will be paid for WOOL at all times, the regular market price. We do not expect to run Wagons to collect Wool—we think it is better for both Wool Grower and Manufacturer to deal at the Factory, where there is a variety of goods to select from, and the manufacturers have a much better chance to render satisfaction to their customers, than when a few goods are hauled out in a wagon.

By strict attention to business, they hope to merit a goodly share of public patronage.

Very respectfully yours,

SPATTEN, MARR & CO.,
White Deer Mills, Union Co., Pa.
