

O. N. WORDEN, PRINTER.

The Lewisburg Chronicle.

AN INDEPENDENT PANILY JOURNAL, Inued on Friday Mornings, at Lewisburg, Union county, Pennsylcania.

TRRMS -$1.50 per year, for each actually in advance; $1.75, if oaid within three months: $2,00 if puid within a year; $2.50 if not paid before the year expires; 5 etc. for a single number.

Approximation of their time, for the gusta of the con-advertisements under the state of the st column, 50 a roar. It is a quere, 30 cents per line -18 of certisements under holf a quere, 30 cents per line -18 piece for a square long primer, 10 bereier, 12 nonvareit. Discontinuances optional with the Publisher, when all dues are not paid ; and Interest on all accounts due.

The are not paid; and Interact on all scould due to the second due *.Offee on Market Square, north side, second story, 34 when buffeted on the one cheek by the Losses by Sea and by Fire.

which have met with disasters reported in stoicism to all criticism, whether made in American papers, in some way connected a manner uncalled-for or unkind-they with American trade, embracing inland are at once set down as the most unmantrade, exceeds 4,000 in the last twelve ageable, irascible class of persons in the months. The whole reported from every world. Now, we do not deny that singers part of the world is over 10,000.

from every section reach 3,000 per an- the solemnity and importance of public num. The loss of the last twelve months praise than do congregations that expect exceeds those of any three previous years. them to sing sacred words while subscrip-vessels the last year not heard from are : agreeable things done ; sometimes we are Packet-shipe Constitution and Waterloo, full car. tenmer City of Jinegow, total loss WRECKS.

WBECKS. Loss by fag-Steamer Humbolit, Halbfax Harb. 1,200,000 Ship Monteauma. Bhip C. J. renet. A Bremen ship - 500 passengers. Distance Action

The steamer San Francisco, with troops, commonly-received opinion that singers and many others.

Companies for the last year, in New York organizations. Why should they be ? Is alone, exceed $12,000,000.

Two hundred and one vessels were re- moral conformation of a singer that makes ported in a single week in The Journal of him a menster ? We have never discov-Commerce.

A gentleman who has prepared for me must have a delicate and well-developed these statistics, assures me that the losses sensibility-must feel keenly, else he can on land, by fire and storms, for the last not give expression to musical sentiment twelve months, are not less than EIGH- and passion. But refinement of sensibili-TEEN MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, making not ty does not necessarily make a man quarless in all than Thirty Millions of Dol- reisome. If you could bring together from lars !- Henry Ward Beecher's Sermon on all the choirs of the land the persons sho the loss of the Arctic.

1799-Thomas M'Kean 37,244 32,642 James Ross M'Kenn's

Are Choir-Singers, Quarrelsome? A pix in a string is a troublesome still, to managed two pix in a string are more troublesome still. to a degree, perhaps in propertion to the courses of their distances: a ram in a halter is also proverbial for obstimary : makes are collected for their pertinarity, and donkeys for their stupidity, but all the pixs, rams, mules and asses in the world, put together, would be more easily monaged than a compound of singers in a village church.--Histour or Systema Choin.

The gusto with which bard things are oftentimes money, for the good of the congregation, should exempt their private foi-

News from the East in advance of the Mails. Connected with the Office are ample materials for most kinds of JOB PRINTING, which will be excuted with as a hornet's nest into which it is neither O. N. WORDEN, Proprietor. deacon, and members of the congregation generally, for delinquencies imaginary as well as real, they do not meekly turn the The full extent of losses on vessels other also, and exhibit a superhuman have faults as well as other people. They Up to 1850 the average losses reported sometimes entertain no higher ideas of Over fifty vessels in that time have not tions are being taken, the contribution-box been heard from. Among the missing passed, and other tedious and perhaps distriffing, and unbecoming the house of God; though if we may trust our own observation, instances of this are much more rare then is generally supposed. But even ad-2.600.000 mitting all this, we are by no means pre-T,200.00 pared, without examination, to accept the

are more irascible than others, or that The losses paid by Marine Insurance choirs are more unmanageable than other there anything in the physical, mental, or cred it. To be a musician, it is true, one make trouble in them, they would turn out to be, not the ones who have the most Elections for Governor, Pennsylvania. music in their souls, not the genuine lovers of the beautiful, not the most intelligent and refined, not those who have an elevated conception of divine praise : but they will be found to belong to one of the following classes : 1st. A stupid, thickheaded class of persons who have no musical appreciation, and are constantly tread-5,266 ing on people's toes because they don't know any better. 2nd. Persons who have some little appreciation and love of music, but who love their own petty plans of self-aggrandizement more. These are the ones who, though unfit to occupy the head seats, 48.710 care more for them than those do who really are fit. 3d. A brainless and consequently narrow-minded class of fops and 21,533 would be belles, who pretend to be the very quintessence of refinement, but who seek to conceal their ignorance and inability to read the music selected by the chorister by turning up their delicate noses at 1.605 it, and resorting to smelling-bottles and fidgets as a means of indicating the terrible martyrdom their musical susceptibili-25.787 ties are undergoing. These are the different classes of one-

love music, love the praises of God's house

LEWISBURG, UNION COUNTY, PENN., FRIDAY, NOV. 3, 1854.

no more about cheir-singers being more of the wealthy men are Germans, some of cal views and opinions. No act of mine irascible than other people. - N. Y. Musi- whom yet speak the German language, shall wantonly disturb that relationship." worthless poplar or a Balm of Gilead; how pelled to return by the early setting in of cal Review

From the New York Journal of Comm STEWART HOLLAND.

"Amidst all the terrible incidents attendar struction of the Arctic, which we have been destruction of the Article which we have been rec-these two days part, there is one that impresses us the feeling of aver and admiration, and shows all the that the age of heroes is not altogether gone by. Ye for to the young man, STRWART Hotaxo, whose p-duty throughout all that trying scene, was the fir-a shoal gun, at intervals, in the bops of attraction sitention of vessels form a distance to the sense of far. While all around him were death and deeps held relief there he stood (like Hops hereif) with calm determination of a true here, dictarging gun ware. Here was a courage and manimeter a defau death and an adhesion to duty- we might walk over thest far an abhesion to duty- we might walk over and an adhesion to dutr- we might walk over the transme battle fields in bistory to look for aver Be may in the very act of firing as the respect diag of before the westers." Flag of the Braze' take newer light On every stripe and flowing fold, That symbol feedoms' radiant might

In their deep heaven of stars unrolle Oh. not in vain our mortyrs sighed-And not in vain our heroes cried. "Tis sweet for one's own land to die ;" The soul of yore, the soul tast gave Their glory to our soil and wave, From Vernon's mount and Ashland's grave Still lightees through the skyl Death on the waters! herk! the ery Of hundreds in their agony Who, helpdes, crowd the deck ; There manhood sternly marks his tomb, And woman walls amid the gloom,

As slowly sinks the wreck But who is he that calmly stands, The lighted brand within his hands Beside the minute gun? What quict grandeur in his air-Amid the cannon's quivering glate And mist-wreaths colling dun ! Save, save thyself." the Captain cried-"The craven crew have left our side-I go where goes my glorious tride, My own majestic bark. Bot thou art free-thy mother waits Her son beside the cuttage gates?" How answered Holland !-hark! His minute gun again-and by The flash that lights the sea and sky Behold the hero's firm, Grant as a young Greek god who smiles When shake the proud Olympian piles, And quiver all the misty folce wath the tolted storm !

In vain, in vain the loud gun roarsre for him the calm green shores For him no more the home: But still undaunted there he stands. The lighted brand within his hands, Above the wild white foam. See! see I the vessel reels-a cry Of shivering horror rends the sky O, God! can no one save !--The proud ship sinks-and sinks-agai upon thunders to the main-Then naught but mist and wave here but a few brief hours ago The rider of the billows here In pride four hundred joyous souls To an expectant shore!

Soul of the Brave! when sounds the trump 'Mid red browed battle's glorious pomp, And rolling drum and thrilling fife Lond on the dark and desperate strife, While gorgeous banners rise and fall Majestic o'er the soldier's pall, And enger nations turn their eyes Upon the Hero's savrificetis not then, it is not there, With gory binds and yongsful air, The grandest wreath is thine : 'Tis when with calm, untrembling breath, The hero, smiling, faces Death Upon the land of brine,

And knowing not if e'er his name Shall murmur from the harp of Fame, But looking from a troubled m To God, and to his God alon Brave Hottaxp! such a wreath is thine. An 1 millions shall rejoice that they May build to ther a giorisms shrine, And round it deathless laurel twine Nor let thy m mory fide away-For still despite of reeling deck, The vawning wave, the sinking greek, The record of thy deed remains, Stamped on the pyramid that time For hero-sonis of every clime, Has reared on Glory's plains O deally of the cease and should Ware wider, wider yet thy wing Itoli back, roll back the tempest's shrout, And broad above the thunder's spring; A newer spleador lights thy plume, And fresher vigor nerves thy flight Amid the South's soft, souny bloom, Or through the Norland's wintry night? Twas not in valu our martyrs sight. And not in valu our beroes cried, " 'Tis sweet for one's own land to die !" The sort of yore, the soul that gave Their glory to our soil and wave, From Vernon's mount and Ashland's grave Still lightens through the sky ! Naw Yoax, October, 1554.

even to peruriousness, they cannot be pre- ship. Holding religion as a sacred thing, everywhere that a railroad goes, it is an line in the Mediteranean, and afterwards vailed upon to make money more rapidly and claiming the privilege of worshiping unmitigated curse in the eyes of the was appointed Governor of Van Dieman's than by their old method, if it comes by God according to the dictates of his own people for the first year of its operation. Land, from which post he was recalled in sixpences. It is regarded as scarcely cred- conscience, he granted the same right to But a locomotive along a track soon burns March, 1843. Returning to England in itable to sell any article in smaller quan- every living being. Believing the out such old time prejudices. It is not the spring of 1815 he was intrusted with the tity than a wagon load. They have accord. Constitution of our country sufficient to many years before the farmer sees that he command of the fatal expedition in which ingly confined themselves to raising some guard and protect the rights and privileges gets for the produce that used to rot in his his life has fallen a sacrifice. The two resof the great staples. There is no better of all, he desired that all might receive the granary, or never was deemed profitable sels. Erebas and Terror, in which the and than exists in some of the tributary benefits of its wise provisions as a common enough to raise, a price that astonishes younger Ross had accomplished his expevallies of the Susquehanna in this part of blessing. He paid an elequent tribute to him. The surplus of every crop he turns dition to the South Pole, were selected for the State, and our farmers have become the intelligence and patriotism of the straight into cash. The garden bed that the voyage, and two distinguished officers, rich, built great house-looking barns and people in their repudiation of the Nebras- yielded a peck of vegetables beyond the Captains Crosier and Fitzjames, were apbarn-looking houses, and thus until within ka bill and the attempt to perpetuate the demands of his kitchen, he converts directly pointed as his companions. The expedia few years they have lived satisfied, and cause of slavery in our land by Congres- into money. The stock that he cannot tion sailed on the 19th of May, 1845, arsupposed that every change must be in a sional legislation, and said that freemen winter, he exchanges without the trouble rived at the Whale Fish Islands on the retrograde direction. But changes are going on in spite of all ing and perpetuating oppression, and that silver. The tree which shaded his corn time in Melville Bay, on the 26th of these their purposes to the contrary. The more in trial hour, the people, true to their field, and which had not been cut down month. enterprising are aware that they have not fathers, would be found on the side of simply because there was no earthly use It was not until the return of Contain yet attained perfection. They have seen liberty. In conclusion he thanked the to make of it, he measures into cord wood Ross in 1849, who had been in search of what is doing elsewhere, and they are not people of Lycoming county for the renewed and transmutes into luxuries or comforts the missing navigators, that general anxiewholly averse to trying some new things. expression of their regard, attested by a as he chooses. He discovers at last that ty was felt for their safety. In 1850 and for nasturage. This will necessarily in- of the occassion. The Price of Wheat.

troduce the dairy and wool-growing-two kinds of business which have hitherto been entirely neglected. I must not forget to mention that the amounts of rents are payable in wheat, or consumption and accessibleness to market, make the raising of fruit, to which this in the price, it is probably the most reliclimate is so well adapted, one of the best ably correct of any record that can be obpaying departments of farm business.

duce to give a few paragraphs to a notice present, admitting that they and their conductors are not always what railroads and 1794 the men who govern them should be, but 1795 avowing my Pennsylvanism by endorsing 1796 the justice, and commending the persever- 1797 ance, though condemning the riotous 1798 manner of the Ericans in their famous last 1799 1800 winter troubles. Yours, &c., 1801 ROLPH. 1802 LEWISBURG, Union Co., Pa. 1803 1804

Visit to Judge Pollock. The Muncy Luminary states that a fine 1806

band accompanied by a delegation of citi- 1807

VOLUME XI .--- NO. 31.

WHOLE NUMBER. 551.

and a few are unable to speak English, but He said he had been charged with being Mr. E. has lost two promising spring extreme cold weather. In recognition of even those who are Germams only by a proscriptive in his religious opinions. So calves already, and Mr. F. had lost a colt, his merits on his expedition, he received remote ancestry, have yet some of the far from being so, he acknowledged no that in three years would have sold for the order of knighthood from George the German characteristics, especially an aver-sion to change; and though they are close what should be his belief or mode of wor-this is the universal experience, and In 1830 he commanded a ship-of-the-

every where revolted at the idea of extend of riding to the nearest town, into hard 4th of July, and was seen for the last

Two of these changes I am persuaded will majority in his favor in the stronghold of a railroad does do something for a place expedition was fitted out by Lady Franksoon be made. Our vallies and first slopes the opposition, and the presence of the more than by building a wooden depot lin, and another by the British Governcoutain most productive grain lands, but delegation before him. After the compa. house, and furnishing to a crippled pea- ment, to seek the lost vessels. About the there is a large amount of higher land al- ny partook of refreshments, prepared in nut-vender employment for his time. Be- same time, our townsman, Mr. Henry ready stripped of its valuable timber which strict accordance with the principles of fore he stops his growling at the "cursed Grinnell despatched the two ships Adis less suitable for grain but which has a Prohibition, at 9 o'clock they left for railroad" it has quadrupled the value of vance and Rescue for the same purpose. good soil, and must ere long be employed home highly pleased with the ceremonies the farm, larded all his lean acres, given a The unsuccessful result of these expediprice to what had no sort of value before, tions is well known. During the past year and marked upon every product that can a large fleet was sent out by the British be turned out on his premises a definite Government to make renewed search for value. We have conversed with scores of John Franklin.

such unwittingly wealthy men during a Mr. Grinnel also dispatched the Adminutes kept at the office of the Van Renshow of Fruit, though not large, was very selaer Manor, at Albany, where large men whose farms were hardly worth receiv- on a similar erand. But all in vain. Being before as gifts, that now tell their fore the announcement of the recent ina cash equivalent, on the first of January worth by thousauds every day of the year. telligence, no further hope was cherished which our railroads are now furnishing, each year; and as two parties are deeply There were those who owned large tracts that the live of the brave explorers had of timber, still growling because locomo- been preserved. Their names were some tives sometimes set woods on fire, who have time since stricken from the Admiralty treasures in their forests that they do not list, and orders issued for the recall of the dream of. It is a "day of roads," and it expeditions .- N. Y. Tribune.

would not do any harm for some of our secular preachers to thunder it in their ears, lest they die thinking themselves poor, while their heirs will take fat legacies from their death clenched hands -N. boy, a little deaf, and a little "daft."] 871 1 00 1 00 Y. Times.

1 75 Biography of Sir John Franklin. Lawyer. (raising his voice,) Do you 1 00 The reported discovery of the remains know plaintiff's pigs ? 1 25 1 25 of this illustrious pavigator-whatever Witness. Yes. 1 25 doubts may be thrown upon the credibility Lawyer. How long do you know them? 1 00 of the narrative-furnishes a suitable oc-Witness. Ha? 1 00 casion for collecting the scanty details Lawyer. (louder still,) How long bave 1 50 of his biography, which have thus far been you known them ? 2 25 1 624 communicated to the public. Sir John, Witness. Fed 'em all last spring. 1 75 Franklin was born in 1786, and would accordingly have been 68 years of age, had 1 124 Witness. Ha? 1 00 he survived to the present time. His Lawyer. (rises on his feet, petulantly, 1 25 native place was Spilsby, a small town in and shakes his fore-fingers at the con-Lincolnshire, in the vicinity of the North ciusion of each word, at witness,) Were-931 Sea. From his earliest years he betrayed they-all-about-of-a-size ? 1 18t a certain boldness of disposition and love Witness Some ov 'em was, and some 1 124 of adventure. ov 'em warn't! His father endeavored to cure him of [Great explosion in the Court House his sea-faring propensities, by permitting lawyer magnetized, and witness staring 1 121 him to try the experiment of a voyage to vacantly around ]-Knickerbocker. 1 00 Lisbon in a trading vessel. But this only Another Awful Shipwreck. 1 181 produced the opposite effect. He was con-The high-pressure steamship Nebrasks, 1 75 firmed in his taste for the ocean, and would It will be noticed that only five times not be satisfied until he had procured the Capt. Pierce, S.A. Douglas, engineer, came in all those years wheat has been $2 or consent of his father to his entering the in collision with the ship 'Public Opinion upward per bushel, while it was seventeen navy. He obtained a midshipman's war. on the second Tuesday in October last, and times at $1 or under-twice at seventy-five rant in his fourteenth year. His first serwith most of the crew and several thouscents. Only once in thirty-seven years, vice was in the frigate Polypheme, where and "settlers" from Pennsylvania, Ohio, that is since 1818, to wit in 1887, has it he was distinguished for his youthful and Indiana, sunk to the bottom. A few similar nature breathing more lofty and whole period is $1 38. For the last thirty of Copenhagen in 1801, and two years reached $2. The average price for the courage and energy. He was in the battle clung to some broken planks of the Baltimore platform, until they were taken off years it is $1 25. So the probabilities, it after accompanied his relative, Captain and saved by the humane navigators of would seem, are that will be the price next Flinders, was on a voyage of discovery the 'Public Opinion.' The 'Nebraska' January. Those who are interested may, to the South Sea, during which was enveloped in so dense a fog at the time however, be better able to form a judg he was shipwrecked on the coast of New that the crew and passengers knew nothing of their danger. Owing to the high rates At a subsequent period, he was in the lately charged at all the marine offices on Scene in Court. [Litigation about title to pigs, the pigs having run wild all summer. Witness, .

Lawyer. Do you know plaintiff's pige ? Witness. Ila ? (very loud.)

This mention of our Railroads would intained. There is quite a lesson in these figures-look at them :

The following table which we find in Hunt's Merchants' Magazine, is from the 1828

1829

1830 1831

1832

1833

1834

1835 1836

1837

1838

1839

1840

1841

1842

1843

1844

1845

1816

1847

1848

1849

1850

1851

1852

1853

1854

1 564

1 814

1 124

1 25

2 00

1 431

1 371

1 124

1 00

$1 25

1 00

of them, but I will dismiss them for the at Albany sixty-one years, viz : Price of wheat per bushel, January 1st, 1924 8 75 1 00 1825 1 371 1826 1827

1805

2 00 1 50 1 25 1 181

jarity a 1802-Thomas M'Kenn 47.8:8 James Ross 17 034 M'Kean's maj. 30.845 1805-Thomas M'Kean 13 614 Simon Snyder 38.378 M'Keau's maj. 67.975 1808-Simon Snyder 39 575 James Rosa John Spayd 4,006 28,100 Snyder's maj 1811-Simon Sayder 52 219 Wm. Tilghman 3 609 Snyder's maj 1814 -Simon Sayder 51.099 Isnac Wayne 29 566 Souder's man 1817-William Fundley 69 333 Joseph Heister 52.272 Findley's maj. 7,061 1820-Joseph Heister 67.905 66,300 William Findley Hiester's maj. 1823-John A. Shultze 89 993 Andrew Gregg 61.211 Shulize's maj. 1626-John A. Shultze 72,710 John Sergeant 1.175 Scattering 1.174 Shultze's maj. 71.525 1829-George Wolfe Joseph Ritner 78 219 51.776 Wolfe's maj. 26.443 1932-George Wolfe 91.355 Joseph Ritner 85,165 Wolfe's maj. 1835-Joseph Ritner 91.029 George Wolfe 65,804 H. A. Muhlenberg 40.586 Ritner's maj. 29.224 1539-David R. Porter 127.521 Joseph Ritner 122 325 Porter's maj. 5.296 1641-David R. Porter 136,504 John Panks 113,578 Porter's maj. 1844-Francis R. Shunk 160,322 Joseph Markle 156,040 Shunk's maj. 1847-Francis R. Shunk 146.081 James Irvin 128,148 E. C. Reigart 11,247 F. J. Lemoyne 1,861 Shunk's maj. 1848-Wm. F. Johnston 168,522 Morris Longstreth 168.225 Johnston's maj. 1851-William Bigler 186,496 Wm. F. John nston 178.034 Bigler's maj. 8,462 1854-James Pollock 204.009 William Bigler 167,001 Benj. R. Bradford 1.503 Pollock's mai. 37.007

From the N. Y. Courier & Enquire Pennsylvania Farming.

noble reference to the victory achieved and In the interior of a State like Pennsylvania, very little can occur that will pos- the opposition vanquished. He said he sided ill-balanced persons who make tron. sess an interest for any one beyond the congratulated those who now appeared beble in choirs. A moment's reflection will immediate vicinity ; but I make the Union fore him, and the people of Pennsylvania, show that these three classes put together County Agricultural Fair, held here last upon the result achieved by them the bear a very small proportion to the genu- week, the occasion of fulfilling a rash People. We had just come out of a civil ine choir-singers, who sing because they promise. contest, peculiar, in its prosecution and

The show of Stock was not to be com-its results, to our own land and her glori-and the demand for export to Europe or which brought the allied monarchs to injured by the collision. and esteem it a privilege no less than a pared with what has been exhibited on ous institutions. The People of Pennsyland esteem it a privilege no less than a pared with what als been with richly fraught with holy joy. It is unjust York and New England, but it was enough great and momentous principles involved and absurd, therefore, to fasten upon the to indicate the importance which farmers in the late election, had given an expresgreat body of sensible, loving choir-singers, are beginning to feel, of obtaining improved sion of their sentiments through the "bal the opprobrium that belongs only to a few varieties. There were no fast horses, and lot box," and a majority had declared himcross-grained beings who are totally unfit none that I should think would be called self to be their choice. It was not the to take part in so solemn and dignified a fancy horses, but there were some admir- man whom they people chose or rejected, service. It is unfortunately the case, able specimens of what is needed in such but the principles which he advocated and filled their laps. Such are all the dwel- commission in 1819, to undertake an ex- of perpetuating the boudage of the slave, however, that the slightest difficulty in a a country as this-a snug-built, heavy sustained. He wished it to be remembered, lers by the side of new railroads, through pedition by land from Hudson's bay to the should not be received into the Methodia 23,026 choir, is from the very relation of that horse, possessing great strength and power that, although he was now, and had been body to the general assembly, blazoned of endurance-and if we may judge from identified with the Whig party, yet he did market. It is amusing to go along a line Richardson and Bach, to cooperate with -The New York Baptist State Converall over the congregation, while the seasons the number of horses purchased in this not claim his election as a Whig victory nor of country where a railroad has just open- Captain Parry, who was to visit the region tion, which met at Syracuse, recommended 4,282 of pleasant practice, the kind and affection- vicinity and driven to eastern markets, we did his Whig friends deem it such, but that it ed, and listen to the doleful tales that are by water.

unalloyed pleasure that gild the choir's disregarded. unwritten history, are unknown and unap- Wheat and Corn were almost the only could not sanction or support. To all, venience of "looking out for the locomo- grees thirty minutes north latitude, and 17,338 preciated by the great mass of the people. farm products, but this is not to be wond- alike, Whigs and Democrats, the victory tive," every time his team went to and after incredible hard-ships, having been preciated by the great mass of the people. farm products, but this is not to be wond-This accounts for the gross injustice done ered at. This was only the second fair was to be ascribed as the result of their from the hay-field; how Mr. B.'s "interval" once rescued from death by the Indians, the brilliancy in which the forests are now decked, to the dingy brown they wear in meet with prompt and well-merited indig- to the most productive crops. The farming my opponent in the canvass, I am proud to the other to his incalculable detriment; three years after undertook a second experation. Until heart-burnings and jeal- population have but little acquaintance to call Gov. Bigler my personal friend. howMr.C.'s garden, that had been manured dition to the Polar ses, visiting the coast ousies cease to occur among lawyers, doc- beyond their own neighborhood, and no We have been since the commencement of to the highest pitch of fertility, was trators, and merchants, in political organiza- market except for produce which would the contest, and are now on terms of intitions, temperance societies, aye, even in bear transportation by wagons or canals mate and pleasant personal friendship, no grafted pear tree that had borne oboice 1827, he had reached the seventcenth de Know-Nothings have sworn of weating the churches of the Most High, let us hear one or two hundred miles at least. Many matter how widely we differ in our politiborough, Hughesville, and 1 00 1809 Muney Creek, on the evening after the 1810 1 561 election, paid a visit to Milton, for the 1811 1 75 purpose of congratulating Judge Pollock 1812 1 871 upon the result of the late election. Quite 1813 2 25 1 874 a large and enthusiastic concourse of the 1814 1 624 people of Milton greeted the arrival of the 1815 1 75 visitors. At S o'clock the company repaired 1817 2 25 to the residence of Judge Pollock, where 1818 1 871 they were received by the Governor elect 1819 1 75 in a chaste and appropriate address. The 1820 1 00 1821 appearance of Judge Pollock was greeted 1 124 1822 by three spontaneous, hearty cheers by the 1 25

1823 crowd assembled in the street, and all appeared eager to crasp the hand of one who had so nobly borne the people's standard through the late political contest. Although the address was altogether impromptu, and unexpectedly called forth, yet the Lymiaary says it had never listened to one of a > ment on that point than any one else. Holland. But so far as present prices are concerned, of pleasant practice, the kind and anection- vicinity and driven to eastern markets, we did his wing fremos deem it satisfy a light that is the did that and anection- vicinity and driven to eastern markets, we did his wing fremos deem it satisfy a light that is the did that and anection be followed the coast Law, and denounced the Nebraska Slavery over the advocates of principles which they Mr. A.'s farm, and put him to the incon- as far as Cape Turnagain, sixty-eight de- Extension project.

them as a class-an injustice, that, if done held in the county. There has been noth- own hands. In speaking of Gov. Bigler -the finest pasture ground in the country he returned to England in 1822. He was 297 to any other class of community, would ing hitherto to awaken attention of farmers he said, in substance : "In reference to -was cut into narrow strips from one end promoted to the rank of post-captain, and dull and dark November. Another scak-it may be taken as certain, that the crop Bellerophon at the battle of Trafalgar. In such risks, the vessel was not insured. of wheat is too good, too wide extended, 1814 he was a lieutenant in the Bedford, California too limited, and flour specula- England. He was concerned in the attack credit by his bravery and skill. In 1818, lutions recommending the repeal of the he commanded the brig Trent in the Polar Fugitive Slave Law, the re-enactment of There are thousands of rich men in the expedition under Captain Buchan. After the Missouri Compromise, and, "that perworld, who think themselves poor. They the failure of the search for the northwest sons holding slaves for gain or for their own lament their hard fate while fortune has passage of Captain Ross, he received the convenience in any way, with the intention countries that do not enjoy casy access to Copper Mine river, in conjunction with church, not suffered to remain therein."

the ensetment of a Prohibitory Liquor

This is about the transition time from the brilliancy in which the foreste are now

An exchange paper tells us that pape maintained. Rich Men Unawares.

N. B. The 'Public Opinion' was not