Nett Whig gain in Division bexes, 228 Thus it will be seen that while New Berlin and the Anti-Division districts (by which we mean the central and western districts) last Pollock 338 votes, the Diel. sion districts agined him 228 votes. Had all the State served him as New Berlin did. Pollock would have been d feated by thousands.-Their "organ," and the " chairman" of the "Bigler Whigs" may beich forth all the abuse they are masters of, they can not alter the figures by nominating Judge Pollock for the Presidency, nor will the honest Whigs of the county at that, cannot have ours at any price, if forget the way New Berlin endeavored to we know it. ruin Judge Pollock's elevation. First Squatter Fight in Kansas.

On the 9th inst was terminated the most unfortunate affair which has stained the virgin soil of Kansas.

It seems that a difficulty had for some time existed between Saml A. Burgess and Wm. A. Borden, both formerly residents of this county, with regard to a land claim on Stranger Creek. Each of the parties claimed a squatter's title to the same quar.
