A New England Farmer's Song.

Give to the rich his palace grand.

And halls of spleadul pride;
A fit for all his dignities,
And all his pomp beside!
Give me the Farmer's peaceful home,

Beneath the maples high. Where Nature's warblers wake the song, The waters prattling nigh.

Then here's to him who tills the soil, Tae true, the strong, the brave! Without him, Art would by the land, And Commerce leave the wave.

Disdains his manly brow-Hull to the Farmer! thrice all hail! Lord of the mighty plow!

The citizen may love the town, And Fashion's gauly show;

The brilliant pageantry of Art May please the eye, I know; But Nature's char as delight the heart,

All simple thou h they be: The acres broad, the streamy vales, The lowing herds for me! What though the bronze is on our cheek,

With honest prile we stand erect,
The nobles of the land;
For "pateiot Truth," that spirit bright, In this wide world so rare, Points proudly to the Parmer's home,

And cries, My own is there!

A WORK OF GRACE.-We had no conception of the remarkable work of refer mation and of grace now going forward in Ireland until we heard the narrative of Rev. Dr. Heather at the Tabernacle, last Sabbath evening. The spirit of inquiry among the Catholic peasantry of Ireland, the organized and persistent hostility of the priests, the beautiful examples of faith and heroism in the converts, the large number of conversions to Christ, the devotion of missionaries, the eagerness of children to learn the word of God-all show the presence and power of the Holy Spirit in a remarkable degree. We trust that the churches generally will have the privilege of hearing the story of this work has labored for the poor and the ignorant of his own country. The narrative is fitted not only to awaken a praye ful interest for Ireland, but also to quicken into the spirit of a revival the churches of this DEPRECATORY .- A genuine Down Easter was lately essaying to appropriate a square of exceedingly "tough beef' at dinner, in a Wiscensin botel. His convulsive efforts with a knife and fork attracted the attention and smiles of the rest of the company, who were in the same predicament as himself. At last Jonathan's patience vanished under his ill success, when, laying down his "utensils," he burst out with "Strangers, you needn't laff-if you hain't got no regard for the landlord's feelings, you orter have some respect for the old bull." This sally, "brought down the house."

Lightning Rods.

A FTER meny years' close investigation and numerous experiments, the Patentee takes pleasure in informing the public that he has arrived at the true principle of protecting families. dwellings and property from the descriptive influence of LIGHTNING. The calamities hat every City, Town, Village and Country falls victim to annually, thro' the gross negligence of its inhabitants, is beyond calculation, especially when the remedy is so easy to obtain-this is ARMITAGE'S

Patent Alagnetic Lightning Rods, and in this alone. This Rod has been examined by the most scientific gentlemen in the world-Professors M'Murtrie, Johnson, Wallor and many others that have examined them, recommend and speak of them in the highest terms of approbation. and have pronounced them the only safe rods in use in this or any other country for the protection of Lives and Property. One advantage is to divide and throwback a part of the electric fluid harmless to the clouds; in time of a stroke this enables the red to conduct that portion of fluid that belongs to the earth without the slightest danger of leaadvantages over the old one. The only place of manufacturing is in

It is McMURTHE.

I am well satisfied that the Magnetic Lightning Rod, manufactured by Mr. Thomas Armitage, of Philadelphia is the best that has ever been made. I have spent severa years in the study of the laws of electricity and magnet ism, and have no hesitation in saying that these Rods are ism, and have no hesitation in saying that these Rods are constructed upon the only principle of safety. The electric shock is received and dispersed by the magnet at the top of the rod, and it would be impossible, according to the laws of attraction and repulsion, for a building to be injured by a stroke of lightning when protected by one of these rods. I have been acquainted with Mr. Armitage for several years, and before he commenced the manufac-ture of these rods. I examined the principle on which they are constructed, and felt convinced that their adoption would be attended with complete success. The increasing demand for these rods, and the extensive-size in all parts of the country, is ample commendation of their utility and superiority. TRACY E. WALLER, M. D. Rising Sun, Philad. RECOMMENDATIONS.

PHILADA, Aug 13, 1847.

I have this day carefully inspected a conductor or Lightning Red, with vane and index, erected by Mr. Thomas Armitage, on Believae House, Gloucester, and have no hesitation in saying that it is not only the best I have ever seen, but that it is the only one I have yet examined that is constructed on strictly scientific principles. It is with much pleasure that I recommend in the Commissioners of buildings.
