At the late election in this State, thirty-six counties voted for Prohibition and twenty-seven against it. The counties that voted for it chose 19 Senators, and those that voted against it only 14. A majority of the Representatives are likewise instructed. Some manner of legislative action to stop the progress of intemperance, seems therefore probable.

We learn from a passenger by the Railroad, last evening, that a destructive fire occurred in Monroe yesterday morning, by which about one-third of the town was laid in ruins. We have not heard the particulars, and we trust the report may be greatly exaggerated. -Scranton Herald, 11th inst.

PARIS, Oct. 19, 1854. An American, by the name of Ansley, was arrested here last week, under the international treaty to that effect, for forgeries committed upon a bank in New Orleans - the Louisiana Bank, I believe.

Wm. Fisher, formerly a resident of Lock Haven, who was convicted of forging coin, and was sentenced to five years' imprisonment, has been pardoned, by the President of the United States. He was discharged by the Court.

The Knox-Notings of Brookville, Indiana, have held a meeting, in which they nominated J. Scott Harrison, son of old Tip, of Ohio, for the next President, and ex-Governor Johnston, of Pennsylvania, for Vice President.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 14.-The steamer Forrester was burned last night at New Richmond, 25 miles above this city, and is a total loss. The steward, a chambermaid and one deck hand are supposed to have perished in the flames.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION. PENNSYLVANIA, ss.-In the Name and by the Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

JOHN BINNS.-This venerable citizen, now in his 82d year, proposes to publish by subscription, Recollections of his Life, embracing a period of twenty-nine years in Europe, and fifty-two years in the United States. Mr. Binns, in his day, has been a prominent actor in many most remarkable events on both sides the ocean, and his book will be full of interest.

Col. Simon Sallade, of Washington township, Dauphin county, departed this life on Wednesday last, full of years and full of honors. He represented that county three several times in the legislature, at intervals of seventeen years, and filled other minor offices.

In 1850, according to the census returns, the population of Lock Haven was only 830. On the 1st of October last, Henry Black, Esq., took upon himself the trouble to take a census of that borough, and the population was found to number 1453.

Notwithstanding that all parties were annihilated, and everybody defeated, at the late election in Pennsylvania, there is quite a respectable number of candidates for appointments by Governor Pollock and the next Legislature.
