FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 15, 1854. A DVERTIZE! Manufacturers, Merchants, Publish Officers, in City and Country, Mechanics, Executors, Administrators, Operators—all who wish to procure of dispose of anything—would do well to give notice of the same through the "Zemishing Coronicle. This paper has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing as large a proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers, and dealers, assany in the State.

JAMES W. PENNINGTON has entered upon the performance of his duties as Register & Recorder of Union county, and appointed Mr. Eaton (also of Mifflinburg) as his assistant. If Mr. P. shall make as popular an officer as he was a candidate-(having defeated two older and very competent men,) - his selection will prove a happy one.

To Executors, Administrators, &c. We think it proper here to copy, for the information of some who violate the law without knowing it, the following laws:

Act of Feb , 1834. "That the Executors and Administrators of every decedent shall, immediately after the granting of letters testamentary or of administration to them, cause notice thereof to be given in one new-paper, published at or near the place where such decedent resided, once a week during six successive weeks," &c.

Act of April, 1853.

real or personal property by Assignees of whaling ship, which left San Francisco finte Whig. "That in the county of Union, all sales of period of not less than three consecutive Spanish town-lately came back, and its weeks immediately preceding the time of crew could hardly believe the splendid such sale in at least one newspaper printed nearest the location of the property in the county in which such property is located and also by city before them was the same harbor they had left. The captain said he had been not less than twelve printed or written hand-bills conspicuously posted in suitable public frezen up in the Northern seas six years, places in the vicinity; and that all sales of Real Estate by Public Officers or by persons and had just escaped. "If this be true," there may be hope yet even for Sir John acting in an Executory or Administrative rapacity, shall be advertised by printed handbills, and in at least one newspaper of the county published nearest the Leation of the property advectised."

These acts provide, that property in and nearest New Berlin, shall be advertised there "at least;" property nearest to Lewisburg, advertised there; and that nearest Selinsgrove, there-each in the range of their other usual business. Executors' and Administrators' notices to follow the same rule.

These laws are reasonable and just, and will commend themselves to the attention of all concerned. "Ignorance of the law excuses no man," and those who neglect these plain and highly proper regulations, do it at their own peril. We suppose all that is requisite for their due observance, have in being poor-they can always put is, that they be known.

One reading the New Berlin papers for a few years past, might have supposed the immaculate patriots of that interesting locality were dying with anxiety to have pay many debts, and restore confidence the horrible BONDS !! canceled, which they were the most instrumental in calling into existence.
