Opened Through!

"At long last," a communication by railway has been made between Philadelphia and Erie, but only 28 miles of it on the Sunbury & Erie route. On Monday of this week, about 350 Philadelphians-(comprising some of the " solid" men, and some of amazing light calibre)-left home in the snow, by the Reading read, the Tamaqua road, the Cattawissa Road, and the Sunbury & Eric road, to Williamsport-receiving additions from other towns (ours included) on and near the routeand reaching Williamsport about ten in the evening. The town was illuminated, Hoffman, C. W. Scates, J. W. Maynard, ville Journal 16th inst. A. S. Diven, and others, continued until past midnight.

On Tuesday, a portion of the delegation Senator Hendricks, Reinhart of the Tamaqua Legion, Mr. Hughes and others, paid our town a visit.
