LEWISBURG CHRONICLE

DEC. 29, 1854.

To Business Men.—The LEWISBURG CHRONICLE has considerably the largest circulation of any English newspaper in Union county.

Editorial Correspondence of Lewisburg Chronicle.

NEW BERLIN, Dec 27, 1854.

At court again, after a pleasant jaunt to Harrisburg, Carlisle &c., and back home via Millerstown. The throng of travelers at Tamaqua from all points of the compass, left us only the soft side of the parlor floor for a couch, and buffalo robes and overcoats for a shelter. Left at 3 o'clock A. M. in a sleigh for Pottsville, with a wide-awake "Continentaler" for a driver, and feeling greatly indebted to Mr. FRANK WELDY for his extra and unwearied pains to make us comfortable and expedite our journey.

Reached Pottsville just in time for the cars to Auburn and thence to Harrisburg, but sadly pinched by the intense, piercing cold. This route, it will be seen, is at present broken and inconvenient, but I was informed by authority at Harrisburg that soon after the 1st of January coming, a connection will be made between the Cattawissa, and Dauphin and Susquehanna railroads, via Auburn and Port Clinton, by which passengers can leave Harrisburg in the forenoon and reach Milton, Williamsport, &c., in the evening; and West Branch travelers can leave home in the morning and reach Harrisburg the same day—an arrangement that will monopolize the northern and southern travel, and add immensely to the convenience and comfort of the citizens of northern Pennsylvania.

While doing business at various points from Harrisburg by railroad in a few hours, I could not help but think how pleasant it would be to be able to step into the cars at any point in Buffaloe Valley, and in two or three hours be at Millheim, Spring Mills, Old Fort, Boalsburg, Tyrone, &c., or through Rebersburg and Brush Valley, and after despatching business, or spending a few hours with friends, to be back in time for tea! The idea is so very agreeable in prospect, and practicable, that it can not but be realized in a few years at fartherest.

—There is not much news at Court. I called at the Jail to-day to see the three young prisoners from our town. They are of course very comfortable under Sheriff Kessler's care, yet seemed a little homesick, and heartily tired of their involuntary quarters. They will return home next Wednesday, satisfied with the operation of their first collision with the stern laws of the land, and disposed I think to be more cautious and well-behaved in future. It will be [illegible] tance take warning from their example.

The Common Pleas business is steadily progressing—an important life-insurance case being now on trial. H.

☞Last week, at the Union County Court, Patrick Kasey was convicted of an assault and battery (but not with intent to kill) on —— Johnson, dec'd. Kasey's wife was found guilty of stealing money, and Patrick as an accessary. Sentences deferred until this week.

The other Commonwealth business we learn was settled without coming to trial.

The Philadelphia Magazines.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for January, commences the 50th volume of that interesting periodical. Godey has been one of the most successful as well as the most enterprising of publishers, and the skill and artistic taste which he has exhibited in the course of his long career, entitle him to the lasting gratitude of the fair sex. A series of Illustrated articles, explaining the mode of constructing different household and domestic manufactures, have recently appeared in GODEY, adapting it to the taste of Gentlemen as well as Ladies. We will send GODEY and the Chronicle one year to any person who will pay us $3.50 in advance. (Single copies of Godey, $3.00.)

GRAHAM'S AMERICAN MAGAZINE, for January, is also upon our table. The high reputation of this periodical is admirably sustained in this number. The aim of the publisher has been to give the Magazine a National character, and with this view he has introduced a series of interesting sketches of Revolutionary and other early history, which renders its pages pleasing and instructive. Headley's Life of Washington is continued in this No. We also furnish GRAHAM and the Chronicle one year for $3.50 in advance. (Single copies of Graham, $3.00.)

Agricultural Society.

At the meeting of the Officers of the Union County Society, at New Berlin last week, Jacob Gundy was awarded the premium of $5 for the best 5 acres of Corn—50 bushels, shelled, to the acre—as sworn to by two witnesses. (Tolerable for the season, Captain; but we "guess" some of the privates will beat that, next year.)

The Treasurer was desired to make his Report at the next meeting.

Adjourned until 1 P.M. of first Tuesday of Feb. Court, when the place for the next Fair will be passed upon. It is required that at least $75 cash be pledged by responsible persons for every place competing for the Fair. (Now for it, Selinsgrove—Freeburg—Middleburg—Centerville—Hartleton—Mifflinburg—New Berlin—Lewisburg!)

Elisha W. Coukling is appointed Common School Superintendent for Montour county, in place of Paul Leidy, resigned.

Foreign News.

The steamship America arrived at Halifax on Saturday last, bringing ten days later news from Europe. There is no news of importance from the seat of war. Some little fighting had been going on, and the Russians were generally repulsed. The Allies were continually receiving reinforcements. It is announced that the most important negotiations were in progress, and that Austria had signed a treaty of alliance with France and England, binding, it is supposed, Austria to declare war against Russia within one month.

A vague report prevailed, that Prussia had joined or would join the Allies: but it is not deemed Authentic.

Nesselrode has published a letter defining the four terms on which Russia will accept peace, namely: A joint protectorate of the Five Powers over the Christians in Turkey; a like protectorate over the Principalities, subject to existing Russian treaties; the revision of the treaty of 1841, to which Russia will assent if the Sultan will; and the free navigation of the Danube.

The news (says the Bulletin) is less exciting than was expected, but Austria's joining the alliance against Russia seems like the establishment of an important date in the war, and perhaps the point upon which the ultimate issue may depend. If Austria is in earnest and disposed sincerely for an alliance, offensive as well as defensive, the acquisition is a great one for the Allies. Her vascillation of the past year makes the world regard all her acts with suspicion; but she must now decide, one way or the other, speedily, and the chances are of course now in favor of her siding with the Allies. The junction of the other German powers seems then inevitable, and if Russia is able to withstand the combined forces of nearly all Europe, she is more powerful than her best friends can now represent her to be.

The news from the Crimea is uneventful. The war of the elements has silenced temporarily the war of nations. Tempests at sea and on land have paralyzed all the belligerents, and the ten days' news we present offers not a single important event between the armies.

From California.

The George Law, from Aspinwall, reached New York, on Christmas, with California dates to 1st inst. The George Law brings $1,461,000 in gold.

A circumstance had occured likely to lead to a diplomatic correspondence between our government and one of the belligerents. The British officer in command of the Russian prize Sitka, has disregarded the [illegible] sailed with his prisoners from the harbor, whereupon the hot-headed of the population are indignant. The propriety of the United States officers, in issuing the writ of habeas corpus, seems questionable at least: and at any rate the conduct of the British officer was very natural, and precisely what a high-spirited American would have pursued had he been placed in precisely similar circumstances.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—Business has undergone no material change. Every kind of business appears almost at a stand, and the prices of many of the chief articles of commerce are lower than ever before known. The demand from interior had almost wholly ceased.

Henry H. Monroe was executed at Martinez, on the 24th, for the murder of Jas. M. Gordon. He said while in prison that Monroe was not his real name, which he would not give, and that he is from Rutland county, Vermont, where he has friends and relatives.

Rolla Powers, tried for the murder of Daniel Hoover, has been acquitted.

A man named Joseph Horing, from Kentucky, was murdered at Mariposa, by a gambler named Roarke.

A man named Sam. Poole was killed at Sonora, last week, by a man named McCarthy.

Capt. Michael Powers, from Massachusetts, was found dead a few days since, on American River. He died from starvation.

Messrs. Adams & Co. have received from Angeles two pumpkins, one weighing 113½ lbs., with a circumference of 7 feet 5½ inches, the other weighing 87 lbs., with a circumference of 6 feet 9½ inches.

Thirty houses were destroyed by fire in Happy Valley on the 30th of November.

The pilot-boat Dancing Feather has returned from the wreck of the Yankee Blade, having succeeded in recovering four boxes of treasure, containing $70,000.

The fifth anniversary of the San Francisco Bible Society was held on Monday evening. The Society, during the past year, have circulated 5,912 Bibles and Testaments.

The want of water is very severely felt throughout the mining region. Thus far the winter has been unusually dry, and many of the miners are doing nothing but patiently waiting for rain.

It is said that the largest lump of gold ever found, is now in San Francisco waiting for shipment. The owner of it is not known, and it is said he sits and watches it continually, not daring to trust it in any of the banks. It was taken out about 15 feet below the surface, in Calvaras county. We should judge that the lump contains at least 80 per cent. of pure gold, which, at $17 per oz., amounts to the snug little sum of $26,262. It was found by a company of five men, one of whom states that they have a larger lump still. They refused to give name or locality from which the gold is taken. One of the party is a Frenchman.

We have dates from Oregon to the 25th ult., but the news is wholly unimportant.

Several of the Indians engaged in the late wholesale murder of emigrants have been captured and shot.

Rowdies in Danville.

A number of "fast" young men in Danville, emboldened by long tolerations in the cause of night-yelling and petty crimes, recently made an unprovoked attack upon strangers which caused a warrant to be issued for their arrest. Three ran away, one forfeiting his bail, and five were last week tried and convicted. In passing sentence, Judge JORDAN said:

"You have been convicted for a Riot, committed under circumstances that require such a punishment as may be useful to you, and be a warning to others. It is painful to the Court, to be compelled to consign to prison, individuals of your age, and apparent intelligence—young men, whose pride and ambition it should have been, to earn for yourselves a reputation, that would have promoted your usefulness and happiness, and been a solace and comfort to your parents. It was said and written, a Long time ago, that the way of the transgressor is hard; and if you, young as you are, have not experienced the truth of this statement, you have only to continue on in the course you have commenced, for a little while and you will feel its bitterness. Men may, and often do, perpetrate offences against the laws of the land, and escape detection; but the transgression of a higher than human law, is sure to meet with a just retribution. If men will mingle with the lewd and profane and intemperate, will visit beer-houses and groggshops, by day and by night, they must expect to suffer in reputation, and to contract the evil habits of those with whom they associate.

"The sentence of the Court is, that the Defendants, George Miles, Wilson Flanagan, John White, Joseph Hale, and John Waples, each pay a fine of $1 to the Commonwealth for the use of the county of Montour, and that they joint'y pay the costs of prosecution; that each of them undergo an imprisonment in the Jail of Montour county, for the period of nine calender months, from this time; and enter into recognizances, each in the sum of $500, with at least one sufficient surety in the like sum, to keep the peace, and be of good behavior to all the good citizens of this Commonwealth, for the period of eighteen calendar months, from this time, and stand committed till the sentence of the Court is complied with."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—There were several confirmations in the Senate to-day. Among them Mark Izud, formerly of Arkansas, and [illegible] is appointed Governor of that Territory.

The nomination of Col. Steptoe, for Governor of Utah, was strongly resisted. The debate was long and earnest. Objection was made to a military man for office. He was finally confirmed.

"THE CABIN BOY'S STORY,"

A Semi-Nautical Romance of intense interest, by the Author of the "Pirate Doctor," the "Lawyer's Story," the "Old Doctor," &c. &c.

THE success hitherto enjoyed by the writer of the above popular works, is a sufficient guarantee of the favor with which any productions coming from his pen will be received by the public. "THE CABIN BOY'S STORY" is a romantic narrative, illustrating the horrors of the Slave Trade, as carried on in the Coast of Africa. The author has served in the navy—and the descriptions and characters are painted from personal acquaintance with them. The story is full of exciting interest and adventure as the celebrated work of Defoe, "Robinson Crusoe," and has the advantage over that glorious fiction, inasmuch as it is founded on facts of every day occurrence. The history of the heroine of the Story, Zuleika, the Circassian Slave purchased at Constantinople, educated and married by the reckless, yet chivalrie, Seymour—the commander of the Albatross, is simply the narration of a fact painted from the life, and all the numerous characters portrayed throughout the story are vividly and graphically drawn.

The publishers have already received orders for the whole of the edition it was originally their intention to publish; consequently, they have been obliged largely to increase it; and they respectfully request that all orders may be sent immediately.

They confidently expect that the work will create as much interest as any work of fiction that has of late years emanated from the press, as, notwithstanding, since the publication of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," works relating to slavery in America, pro and con, have been numerous, none have appeared having relation to the system of purchasing slaves on the African Coast, written by one who has witnessed it in all its hideous deformity. The work is written in a chaste and pure language, and will be a welcome and instructive addition to the family library.

The work will form a beautiful octavo volume of 448 pages, handsomely illustrated with fine engravings, and elegantly bound in cloth. Price, in cloth, one dollar; in paper, 75 cents, at which rate copies will be sent by the publishers to any part of the country free of postage.
