Fun with a Judge.

The Chronicle of the 15th inst., bas a notice of the charge of Hon. JAMES M. Ponren, to the Grand Jury of Wayne county, supposed to squint with both eyes right fernenst the Know Nothings. Now as it happened that, during the Auti-Ma-sonic era of 1836, Judge Ponten was one of the very men who "Knew Nothing" of the secrets of Masonry when he was kinds of SADDLES, HARNESS, Bridles, Calrequired to testify in relation thereto, so lars, Whips, Trunks, Valices, Carpet Bags, 4c. twenty of the Grand Jury he addressed in Worsted, Linen, and Cotton FLY NETS to 1854 were "Know Nothings," and had nothing agin the American party. Accordingly, no Prescutment appeared, and the The above articles will be sold cheap for fear of anything before its eyes, and being moved and instigated thereto by the fun of the thing, got up a supposed indictment to meet the ease, a few sections of which for work, also 10 tons of Hay wanted at marwe copy, as follows:

present, That the said Know Nothings, combining, conspiring, and confederating, as aforesaid, in the year 1853, commenced their attack upon the venerable usages of the said democratic party, and by virtue of said conspiracy and by all their dark in-sidious wiles, did delude the people and cause the defeat of a most worthy demoerat who had been regularly nominated as President Judge.* And in 1854, in pursuance of said conspiracy, did defeat the said William Bigler of his office of Governor, and did defeat all the worthy nominees of the democratic party in the county of Wayne. And it is currently reported and believed that they intend, in the name and under the guise of Americanism, to turn out of office all foreigners, and to put in their places American citizens, and to overturn Popery and such like superstitions and establish Protestanism and civilization in their stead, and to cause that the laws for naturalization be amended and the time for becoming citizens be extended. All of which said actings, doings, plottings, and conspirings are most manifestly to the contempt of the constitution, the great and sore affliction of the demoeratic party, and so to be denounced, presented, and most condiguly punished.

And the Inquest aforesaid do further present that said Know Nothings, holding the sentiments aforesaid, are justly exposed to condign punishment, and, if there were not so many of them, ought to be banished by the Henorable Court to Botany Bay, or the State of New York, or any place where they could not endanger the peace and harmony of the democratic party of Wayne county, or defeat regular nominations. And so the Inquest do present these said

United State Presidents.

Great Washington was number one; Then senior Adams next came on. Jefferson made the number three, Then Madison the fourth was he. Monroe the fifth just here came in, Then sixth an Adams came again. The seventh, Andrew Jackson came, And eighth, we count Van Buren's name. Then Harrison made number nine, and tenth, John Tyler fills the line. Pets was the eleventh, as we know, The twelfth was Taylor in the row. Fillmore, the thirteenth, took his place, And Pierce is fourteenth in the race. Now let us stop until we see Who next our President may be.

Yours, JAMES MYANDLESS. Among the other distinguished authorities who have I have this day carefully inspected a conductor of Lightning Red, with vane and index, excelled by Mr. Thomas Armitage, on Bellevin Rease, Gamester, and have no hesitation in saying that it is not only the best have exer seen, but that it is the only one I have yet examined that is constructed on strictly scientific principles. It is with much pleasure that I recommend his conductor to the attention of owners of buddings.

I am well satisfied that the Marmetic Lightning Red.
