Editorial Correspondence of Lewisburg Chronicle HARRISBURG, February 7, 1855.

I was glad to notice in the last Chronicle the formation of a Teachers' Association in the Beavers. The south side of the county deserves great credit for this prempt movement in the right direction. The chief difficulties in the way of the complete success of the common schools, are the want of competent teachers, and the lack of public interest in the cause. Tenchers' associations will materially help to remedy the one, and serve as pioneers for normal schools, which are greatly nec-
