"Cant't do without a Paper."

What ! do without a paper ! no, I've tried it to my sorrow, Nor wait until to-morrow; bould lovers drown or hang themselves, Or other foolish caper, do not get to hear of it---I do not take a paper.

Now there's my neighbor, Jotham Stout, He always has the news, And, something fresh to talk about, He never gets the blues; While others yawn with ennui, His heart is light as vapor ; The cause is plain to half an eve-He always has a paper.

While neighbor Quick hears all the news, And knows each current price, And always minds his Ps and Qs By taking good advice, I can not tell the rates of rice, Of corn or oats or tape of Any kind of merchandize, Because I take no paper.

Though I have duties which require Much toil and mental labor, Yet I can spare a little time As well as Wise my neighbor; When time is pressing, then I'll use The cheerful fire-side taper, And thus take time to read the news-Yes ! yes, I'll have the Caronicle !

One Democrat!

[We are gratified to lay before our numerous readers, the glorious and cheering intelligence, that there is one true, tried, trusty, old line Democrat in the Legislature of Massachusetts. He is a wholesouled, noble fellow, is not afraid to " face the music" of the enemy, and may yet, some day, be President of the United States. His name is HIRAM C. BROWN, and he hails from the celebrated " Tolland District." The New York Tribune per petrates the fullowing joke upon him, which is just as good as if it had actually happened :]

MASSACHUSETTS DEMOCRATIC LEGIS-LATIVE CAUCUS .- The usual Democratic caucus was held on Wednesday, to nominate candidates for officers in the Senate and House. Hiram C. Brown, of Tolland, called the assemblage to order, when, on motion of Mr. Brown, of Tolland, Hiram C. Brown, Esq., of Tolland, was called to the chair. The election of a Secretary was dispensed with. Mr. Brown made the customary speech acknowledging the honor conferred upon him ; when it was agreed to proceed to ballot for a candidate for a Speaker. The result was as follows :

Whole number of votes Necessary to a choice

Hiram C. Brown, of Tolland 1 and on motion, Mr. Brown was unanimously declared the nominee ! No nomination of clerk was made, and pending a discussion about nominating a United States Senator, a message was announced that "the hot water was ready," and the Caucus broke up in a body and went to " see Sam."

At the meeting of the House the next day, Hiram C. Brown was nominated for Speaker. On counting the ballots, it was found that Hiram C. Brown had received one vote, thus keeping up the Democratic organization. Mr. Brown was, with other defeated candidates, appointed on the comthe entire satisfaction of his party. It will ;

Mr. ---- is one of the merchant princes of the Empire City, and though living in Fifth Avenue, his entire family consists of himself and wife. Meeting a friend from the country one day he invited him up to view his house. The friend was shown the gorgeous rooms, with tesselated floors and magnificent frescoed ceilings, and finally was taken into the lower rooms, in one of which he found a small regiment of colored servants seated at a bountiful dinner. On his return home he was asked if he had seen Mr. So-and-so ? "Oh, yes." "What is he doing now ?" "Well, when I saw him, he was keeping a nigger boarding house on the Fifth Avenue !"-Rahway Advocate.

KOSZTA AGAIN IN BONDS .- From the Chicago Journal of the 12th inst., we learn that Martin Koszta recently met with a Fall, and through that means has been again captured. No Marcy-ful interference, however, will be expected, since the captive not only submits to his bonds but actually boasts of them. The following is the account of the affair :

"In this city on the 12th inst., by Judge H. L. Rucker, Capt. Martin Koszta was married to Mrs. Lucinda McFall, of Chicago."

A Frenchman wishing to take a stage for Buffalo, was asked by the driver, if he had any extra baggage. "Extra baggage? what you call dat? I have no baggage but my tree trunks, five dogs, and von black girl !"

"How is it," asked Dame Partlet, the hen, of her lord, " that that hideous duck does nothing but make a noise, and yet always has the largest egg ?" 'My dear,' answered the duck, "so goes the world ; the greater the quack, the bigger the gain."

A young lady declared, in our hearing, the other day, that she would marry no man who sould not keep a carriage and horses. We presume ber fevorite song in " Wait for the wagon."
