We since learn, by the " Legislaeire Record," that, in the afternoon of the same day, a special session was held, and the bill passed, finally, without opposition.

In the Senate, on Wednesday of this week, the Bill was reported with some amendments, and we learn by telegraph via Selinsgrove passed that body also. The amendments, we understand, throw the Bill back into the House.

Friday, the 16th March, is fixed upon by the Bill for the Election to decide for or against Division. The only objection to that day, is that it is the day of the had a Dollar in a "kind of chance" up seventy-four murders and seven executions, it will save expenses of a special Election -and as it is far better than the New Berlin demand to have it mixed up with the Fall Election-the question will probably be fairly before the Voters of Union County, three weeks from to-day.

We shall publish the Bill, in full, as soon as we receive it.
