Old Deacon Safford.

Old Deacon Safford, or as he was familiarly called Deacon Jo, was a rigid disciplinarian, and being the senior church deacon, looked after the delinquents with a sharp eye. Deacon Jo was in the habit of "parcelling out the sermon," giving to each one of the congregation their portion according as they needed.

One warm Sabbath afternoon, the pastor, thinking that those who had no interest in the subject of religion would most likely fall asleep, prepared himself to preach directly to the church.

The Deacon was on hand, to "parcel" out the sermon as fast as it came from the lips of the minister. The pastor commenced with his close fisted, penurious brethren, plainly but earnestly.

"That belongs to brother Grant," said the Deacon. The next remark was designed for those who went about doing good, but made so much noise and parade about it, as to destroy a great part of the good they intended to do.

"That is sister Grimpkins," said Deacon Jo, "no mistaking that."

The pastor continued his sermon, but the Deacon, who had worked hard through the week, fell into a dozing slumber. Nevertheless, although the body of the deacon was sleeping, the mind was active, and, whether the ears performed their functions or not, each portion was as faithfully parcelled out as though the deacon had been wide awake.

"Finally, my brethren," concluded the parson, "there is a class of persons who listen attentively to every sermon, but who are so free hearted and benevolent that they do not retain any for themselves, but parcel it out among their brethren and sisters."

"Thunder! that's me," said Deacon Jo, the sound of his voice awaking him, "and I deserve it!"

Whether the deacon continued the practice of "parcelling out the sermon" afterwards we know not, but we presume if he did, he kept a small portion for himself.—Baptist Memorial.

Trouble, Trouble, Boil and Bubble.

Baby's got the measles, second boy is drooping; third one down on trundle bed, with dreaded cough is "whooping." Mercury down to zero, wood pile some b low it; man tries to be a hero, but feels he can not "go it." Wife is busy washing a host of dirty "duds;" whilst ever and anon a tear falls silent in the suds. Husband rocks the cradle, "second" on his lap, soothes the "third" one with a kiss, and hits the fourth a slap. So from melancholy moans, and starting, troubled dreaming, the tune is changed to groans, stifled sobs and screaming. Patience all exhausted, he roughly speeds the rocking, and jolts the little sufferer, with a rudeness that is shocking. Confusion worse confounded! A neighbor opens the door, and with voice and face astounded, says, "Have you heard the price of flour?" "No!" husband loudly hallloos, "what's the latest news?" "Flour's thirteen dollars; twelve has been refused." A scream! 'tis "Sissy's" voice; something's come athwart her. In she comes, all covered o'er with blood and dirty water. "Old Brindle's gored the heifer, broke the yearling's thigh, knocked Sissy down and cut her, and scared a passer-by." Wife sits her down despairing, weary of her life; husband nothing caring, for the quadrupedal strife—wonders whether Job, the man of many sores, when his wife bade him give up, led such a life indoors

Meantime the wealthy mother sits in her easy-chair, on its rich embroidered cover, mid comfort everywhere, and wonders what they mean—those people that are poor—prating of their troubles, which they think they endure. "If they only had her trials—knew what she underwent, they'd think that all the vials of wrath were on them spent;" which sets us thinking, reader, that, if rightly estimated, one-half of all our sorrows are sadly overrated. And the moral of our rhyme, though prosily it runs, is never borrow trouble, but take it as it comes.

On Sunday, 1st, a large crowd flocked to the Bethel Church in Baltimore, as it had been announced that the 'Black Swan' would there sing the magnificent solo of "Loof Lirpa," composed expressly for the occasion. By reading the name of this composition backwards, the sequal to the whole affair will be perceived.

The Dublin Tablet reviews severely, in a late number, Mr. Chandler's speech on the Pope's temporal power. The Tablet is surprised that a member of the Church Catholic should make such a disclaimer, and then proceeds to show that the Pope does exercise temporal power, and is doing so at this moment.

BLUE RIDGE TUNNEL.—This work has progressed through all its difficulties 3050 feet, and the remaining 1200 feet will probably offer no further difficulty than the hardness of the rock. Progress at about seventy feet per month will complete it short of eighteen months.

NATURALIZED VOTERS.—The Maine Legislature passed a law at its last session that no person of foreign birth shall vote unless he shows his naturalization papers to "the authorities" at least three months before an election. The act took effect March 16th.

The news of the death of the Emperor Paul, in 1801, was twenty-one days in getting to London. That of the late Emperor Nicholas, four hours and a quarter.

The renowned Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

This extraordinary Unguent is composed of the most healing Balsams, and when used in accordance with the directions which accompany each pot, will prove a certain cure in the following cases, some of the most desperate Skin diseases readily yield to its efficacy. It is famous when used in cases of Gout, Rheumatism, Contracted or Stiff Joints. In Asthma it will do wonders if rubbed into the Chest.

Most astonishing Cure of Scrofulous Ulcers, certified by the Mayor of Boston, (Eng.)

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston,

To Professor HOLLOWAY—Dear Sir: Mrs. Sarah Dixon of Liquorpond street, Boston, has this day deposed before me that for a considerable period she was extremely afflicted with scrofulous sores and ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the first of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she derived no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, she found herself quite restored to perfect health, and her cure was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

I remain, dear sir,
Dated Aug 12, 1853. (signed) J. NOBLE.

Extraordinary and rapid Cure of Erysipelas in the Leg, after medical aid had failed.

Letter from Mrs Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Road, near Bognor, Sussex, dated June 12, 1854.

To Professor Holloway—Sir: I consider it a most favorable period for me to avail myself of Dr. ——'s kind request, to let him know the result of my protracted experiment, which I was assured would have become incurable but for your Pills. I did so with delay, and am happy to say the result was eminently successful, for they effected a cure of my bad leg and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighborhood similarly afflicted, who derived great benefit.

I am, sir, your obliged and humble servant,
(signed) ELIZABETH YEATES.

is quickly and safely cured, by simply wearing the Chain for a few hours each day.

The Chains were first introduced in the city of New York where they were exhibited to Profs. Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Cammochan, who readily discovered that they possessed whenever applied, and by their recommendation and influence they were introduced into the different hospitals of New York, and are now in daily use in those Institutions in the treatment of the cure of the above named diseases.

Strange and Singular Powers of INSTANTLY RELIEVING PAINS,

No Other Medical Agent

in the world can produce so many well authenticated certificates of cures from Scientific Physicians and intelligent Patients as may be found in each pamphlet, which may be obtained (gratis) at the Drug Store of Thos S. ——ner, who is sole agent for Mifflinburg and vicinity, and who will explain the manner of use to any one who may call.

In the city of New York, at the General Office, 508 Broadway, there are daily being sold from 6 to 800 chains, and the sale and demand in Boston is as great in proportion to the population, although they have only been introduced three months.

The Chains are easily worn, and are equally applicable to all classes of persons—the child as well as the adult. They are always ready for use—never get out of repair, and are much an article of ornament as they are of a valuable curative nature.

The Chains can be sent by mail to any part of the United States, and can be obtained in all the principal cities in the Union. Physicians are requested to examine them.

CAUTION TO LADIES.—Ladies who are corsets are requested not to use them only for a few moments at each time of wearing, for by long continued use, miscarriage is frequently produced.

Lightning Rods.

AFTER many years' close investigation and numerous experiments, the Patentee takes pleasure in informing the public that he has arrived at the true principle of protecting families, dwellings and property from the destructive influence of LIGHTNING. The calamities that every City, Town, Village and Country falls victim to annually, thro' the gross negligence of its inhabitants, is beyond calculation, especially when the remedy is so easy to obtain—this is found in

ARMITAGE'S

Patent Magnetic Lightning Rods,

and in this alone. This Rod has been examined by the most scientific gentlemen in the world—Professors M'Murtrie, Johnson, Wallor and many others that have examined them, recommend and speak of them in the highest terms of approbation, and have pronounced them the only safe rods in use in this or any other country for the protection of Lives and Property. One advantage is to divide and throw back a part of the electric fluid heralded to the clouds; in time of a stroke this enables the rod to conduct that portion of fluid that belongs to the earth without the slightest danger of leaving the conductor. This rod has many other advantages over the old one. The only place of manufacturing is in where all persons are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale Wholesale or Retail by THO'S ARMITAGE.

Orders promptly attended to. Terms cash.
