FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1855

OFFICE—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in City and County, Publishers, all who wish to have their names or notices published in the Lewisburg Chronicle, will find a large and increasing circulation in a community of 10,000 people, and increasing rapidly.

The Bonds on opposite page have crowded out a number of articles prepared for this week's paper.

Second Court in Snyder County!

It is about two years since Judge Marshall held, alone, the first Court in Snyder county, to help "Israel" out of the New Berlin Heimlich persecutions. The second Court—a full bench—convened at Selingsgrove on Tuesday of this week, to pass upon the Bonds and Subscriptions to be submitted for the proposed County Seats.

Those of Lewisburg and Selingsgrove were pronounced good; those of Mifflinburg were approved, after an amendment making them payable to all the Judges instead of Judge Wilson alone.

Those of Freeburg and Middleburg were not satisfactory to Judge Marshall, inasmuch as they did not guarantee the taxpayers against tax, except in the sum of $10,000—in other words, they guaranteed their subscription only.

With that rigid determination to guard the people against any danger of being taxed in the matter, which Judge Marshall has exhibited in the whole progress of this Division question, he would not give his consent to those papers, unless they should further guarantee, in the sum of $20,000 at least, against any taxation for buildings, &c. for county purposes.

The other Judges finally assented to the opinion, and departed to get the proper signatures affixed to similar Bonds as that of Lewisburg and Selingsgrove. They succeeded with Freeburg, and a copy of their Bond &c. are now in our hands, but too late to publish this week.

We presume they also perfected the Middleburg papers although we have had no definite information. Next week, probably, all the Bonds will be before the people, and they will be called upon to consider seriously which they will select as the Seat of Justice.

Mifflinburg having no journal printed in its bounds, we offer its citizens room to advocate their cause, in the Chronicle.

Another Railroad Project.—The Legislature has granted a charter for a Railroad from Selingsgrove to Mifflintown. This county is so well supplied with carriers for roads, and the only thing yet lacking to put them through is "material aid." Wouldn't it be glorious to have the "Iron Horse" snorting through Old Trails?

Aye! wouldn't it? And if it had not been for the small potato politicians in New Berlin deceiving and falsely alarming the people, we might have had it by this time. It was a poor speculation of the Repudiators, all around—to them and to us—to the Metropolis and to the suburbs.

SAD LOSS.—On Sunday last, John W. Evans lost, in the Col. Johnson mining neighborhood in the Gap on the road to New Berlin, a purse containing six $20 gold pieces, and some small change—all the money he had in the world. Mr. Evans is a miner from Schuylkill, but living here with his family, and trying to prepare himself by better education for doing good among his Welch countrymen. His case commends itself to public sympathy.

We have just heard of a most deplorable accident, which happened at a stone quarry, at Blue Hill, near the Northumberland bridge. A bank of earth and rock fell in upon three workmen engaged in one part of the quarry, breaking the leg of one, almost cutting off the leg of another rendering amputation necessary, and breaking the back of third. It is thought two of them can not long survive the accident.—Star 3d inst.

Governor Reeder, of Kansas Territory, arrived at Easton on Tuesday, and was honored with a very enthusiastic public reception. He was warmly greeted by the citizens, and the Hon. J. M. Porter welcomed him in a formal speech, to which he replied. He declared that the published reports of the outrages in Kansas were in no wise exaggerated, that Kansas was conquered by force of arms.

The death of Morris Longstrech, late Canal Commissioner and Democratic Candidate for Governor, is recorded, at his home in Montgomery county. He was formerly a merchant in Philadelphia, and when running for Governor was said to be a "Hickory Quaker," but the Pennsylvania says he died and was buried a Roman Catholic. (That may account for the wonder of his nomination.)

LYCOMING.—The contract for the rebuilding of the Court House for Center county, has been let for $9,528, to Geo. W. Tate, of Bellefonte. The Offices are to be removed to the Lodge building, and the Court House to be finished for January Court.—Gen. Irvin has presented to the State Agricultural Society, his offer of 200 or 250 acres of land in Harris township, for a Farmers' High School. The Trustees will receive proposals until their meeting in June next.—Mr. Johnson has resumed the publication of the Bellefonte Whig, in place of Mr. Shoemaker.

LYCOMING.—John Scout, from near Jersey Shore, was drowned in the Shamokin dam on Thursday last. He was in a boat, which capsized, and being unable to swim, he was lost.—An immense amount of lumber has been run from Lycoming and Clinton counties.—Mengis, the counterfeiter, was sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment. The reason for the lightness of his sentence, has not transpired.—The dwelling house of L. Delate, above Jersey Shore, was consumed by fire on the 20th ult.; whether caught by a stove-pipe, or from a stroke of lightning, is unknown. Insured.—A "showman" getting drunk in Jersey Shore, was soured in cold water by the rascals, who then raised a purse and sent him and his wife "home-wards."—The Teachers' Association met at Jersey Shore, Tuesday week.—Mrs. Sechler of Jersey Shore came near losing her life by taking a large dose of the deadly nightshade instead of dandelion. The two articles much resemble each other, and the took the wrong one accidentally.—During the storm on Wednesday week, about 1 P. M., the lightning struck the stable of Robert Crane, which, with six other stables, three dwelling houses, Schring's ware-house, and some smaller buildings, were consumed by fire in an hour. The engine was useless, being taken apart for repairs, but the rain helped to stop the progress of the flames. Considerable furniture was lost from adjoining buildings, which escaped the apparent danger. Loss about $12,000, mostly insured.—The Williamsport Press has been considerably enlarged and improved.

NORTHUMBERLAND.—Geo. B. Youngman retires from the Gazette, after 17 years' devotion to its interests. The Gazette is one of the most readable of all our exchanges, evincing much labor and industry in its "getting up"; and if with Mr. Y. we lose the quiet yet racy editorials of yore we shall miss one source of enjoyment.—The Gazette states that "The construction of the railroad to Milton, is giving our neighboring town, Northumberland, an air of activity. We understand that the grading through the town is nearly half completed. There are now about 300 hands at work, and 500 more would be desirable to complete the work by the 1st of July."—On Wednesday last, in Chillispaque township, at the Lock adjoining Milton, Jonathan Fisher, of Uniontown, had two valuable horses drowned. He had loaded his boat and started for the City, and in passing thro' the Lock, the towing-line caught on the end of the bridge, by which his team was jerked over the wall into the canal, two horses drowned. The bridge is in very bad condition, and wants repairing.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has resolved to adjourn on Tuesday next, the 8th inst. Gov. Pollock has appointed Henry Davis, of Philadelphia, Leather Inspector for Philadelphia.
