F. H. SMITH,

A RIDDLE, BY AN ENGLISH STATESMAN.

Trans and an in the second in the

The authorship of the following riddle is attributed to Mr. Canning, one of the most distinguished British Ministers of State.

A noun there is of plural number, For to prace and tranquil slumber. Now any other noun you take By adding a you plural make; But if you add an a to this Strange is the metamorphosis, Plural is plural now no more, And sweet what bitter was before. Answer-CARESS.

NEW QUALIFICATION. - Progress marks everything in this country. The Cleveland Herald says the latest illustration occurred at the opening of the Third Ward polls in Cincinnati at the late election. Councilman and candidate Reilly took charge of the matter, and his drill forces nominated for one of the Judges of the election a venerable looking gentleman, who, on being sworn in, was asked by an anxious voter if he was an American citisen, and who emphatically replied :

"I have been an American citizen thirty-five years ; I was a member of the By John Frost, L. D. author of " Pictorial Cincinnati Council two years; and I have History of the United States," " Pictorial History of the World," &c. &c. Illustrated with been naturalized, CIVILIZED, and CIR-CUMCISED !"

"Sam" roared and demanded the documents ! O, tempora ! O, Moses !

A FORMIDABLE UNDERTAKING .- A COtemporary puts the tobaceo question into the following shape : "Suppose a tobacco chewer is addicted to the habit of chewing tobacco fifty years of his life, and that each day of that time he consumes two inches of solid plug, it amounts to six thousand four hundred and seventy five feet, making nearly one mile and a quarter in length of solid tobacco, half an inch thick, and 2 inches broad. Now what would the young beginner think if he had the whole amount stretched out before him, and were told that to chew it would be one of the exercises of his life, and also that it would tax his income to the amount of two thousand and ninety-four dollars ?"

Some paper up in the North suggests, as candidates next year, the following named gentlemen :

> "Canal Commissioner, SAM. Auditor General, SAMUEL. Surveyor General,

To this, but one addition might be made; and that is, that, as there are many minor offices to be filled in the different counties, it may not be amiss to nominate SAMBO for them.

SAMIVEL."

WONDERFUL MUNIFICENCE.-One item of news by the Asia, reads as follows : that is :-

"In return for the splendid tiara, value about 2,000,000 reals, recently presented to the Pope by the Queen of Spain, his Holiness has sent her Majesty the body of St. Felix the Martyr."

We presume the Queen of Spain considers the box of bones a full equivalent for her diamonds. We wonder what she would be willing to give for those of a of Ships, Steamboats and Hospitals. few of our "Martyrs," say those of Ken-Spring S-ats for Chairs, Carriages or Church Pews and Hair and Husk Mattesses made to
