Electioneering. We are confident we speak the wish of very many...

In alluding to the subject, we have no sinister design against any individual...

When the county was divided by Penns Creek, there was comparatively little of acquaintance between the North and South sides...

It is also true—and we rejoice that it is true—that the County Officers will hereafter be much less lucrative than now...

Let, therefore, the names of candidates be fairly spread before the people, and let them select from the catalogue...

An attentive examination of our exchanges from different quarters strengthens our hope that the incoming harvest will be so much larger and better than common...

The blocking of the wheat ports of Russia, and a short crop in England and France, may create a large foreign demand for wheat next year...

—In the adjacent portions of Union, Northumberland, and Lycoming counties, we have seen within the week abundant evidences of a very large amount of wheat gathering and to be gathered in, by reapers, cradles, and in some places wheat lodged, by the scythe.

—Oats promise an unprecedented crop—potatoes also. Hay and Rye are a very fair average.

—The recent warm winds and burning sun have seriously incensed harvest hands, and many have given out in consequence in our neighborhood...

—We have been informed that the Directors of the road have procured the sale of $1,000,000 of Bonds, and that the work will now be forthwith resumed and pushed on to Sunbury as fast as possible.

Free Soil Convention in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., July 13.—The Free Soil State Convention met to-day. Judge Cowan, of Belmont, was chosen President. The number of delegates in attendance is very large.

The following are the resolutions which were adopted unanimously: 1. Resolved, That the people, who constitute the supreme power in the United States, should guard with jealous care the rights of the several States; and as independent governments, no encroachment upon their legislative or judicial prerogatives should be permitted from any quarter.

2. Resolved, That the people of the State of Ohio, mindful of the blessings conferred upon them by the ordinance of freedom, whose anniversary our Convention this day commemorates, have established for their political guidance the following cardinal rules: 1. We will resist the spread of slavery under whatever shape or color it may be attempted.

2. To this end we will labor assiduously to render ineoperative and void that portion of the Kansas and Nebraska bill which abolishes freedom in the territory withdrawn from the influence of slavery by the Missouri Compromise of 1820; and 3. We will oppose by every lawful and constitutional means, the existence of slavery in any national territory, and the further increase of slave territories or States in this Republic confederacy.

3. Resolved, That the recent acts of violence and civil war in Kansas, incited by the Executive, commands the emphatic condemnation of every citizen.

4. Resolved, That a proper retrenchment in all public expenditures; a thoroughly economical administration of our State government; a just and equal basis of taxation, and single districts for the election of members of the Legislature, are called for by a wise State policy, and justly demanded by the people.

5. Resolved, That a State Central Committee, consisting of five, be appointed by this convention, and that said Committee, in addition to its usual duties, be authorized to correspond with committees of other States, for the purpose of agreeing upon a time and place for holding a National Convention of the Republican party, for the nomination of a President and Vice President.

The nominations are—For Governor—S. P. Chase; for Lieutenant Governor—T. H. Ford; for Judges of the Supreme Court—C. C. Converse and Jacob Brinkerhoff; Auditor of State—F. M. Wright; State Treasurer—Wm. H. Gibson; Secretary of State—H. Baker; Attorney General—J. B. Kimball; Board of Public Works—A. G. Converse.

A good deal of enthusiasm was manifested throughout the proceedings.

IN INDIANA, the same day, some Seven Thousand Freeman assembled, and with great unanimity and enthusiasm agreed upon measures tending to repel Slavery aggressions.

Liquor Law Items. Thomas Norton, of Philadelphia, was last week convicted in the Quarter Sessions of selling liquor to minors, was on Saturday last, sentenced to pay a fine of $25, and undergo 20 days' imprisonment.

THE MAINE LAW.—From several places in the State of New York, we have cheering news of the workings of the Prohibitory Law, which took effect on the 4th inst. in that State.

THE PROHIBITORY LAW AT CORNING.—We learn from Corning that a public meeting, comprising the most influential citizens of the place, was held on Saturday evening at the Dickinson House to exchange congratulations and take measures to thoroughly enforce the Maine Law.

SUNDAY IN NEW YORK.—The Courier and Enquirer says that "Much circumspetion was shown by those who sold liquors on Sunday, and the visions of the penalty of ten dollars fine, or incarceration in the Tombs, restraining many from unlimited indulgence of their appetite for drink."

THE LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA has passed a law prohibiting the sale or manufacture of intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage, which went into effect the first of April.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Recorder Smith declared this morning, in the cases before him, that ales, beers, wines and spirits that had paid duties, could be sold in all quantities by any citizen.

NATIONAL PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW.—A letter from Mr. Marey, Secretary of State, in reply to a query of Mr. E. C. Delavan, gives public intimation that the question of a National Prohibitory Law by Congress is beginning to be agitated in the country.

Pro-Slavery Convention in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, July 17.—A Pro-Slavery Convention met at Lexington, Mo., on the 13th, and was attended by a large number of delegates. After a temporary organization, Senator Atchison and Col. Doniphan were called upon to address the Convention, but declined. Other gentlemen addressed the meeting, expressing themselves in favor of establishing slavery in Kansas by all lawful means.

The Convention was permanently organized by the choice of W. T. Wood, presiding officer. Resolutions were introduced requesting the Legislature of Missouri to pass Acts retaliating upon and discriminating against the products of the States of Massachusetts, Vermont and Michigan.

Pres. Shannon of the University of St. Louis, by invitation, delivered an address, setting forth Bible arguments in favor of Slavery. His speech was very ultra and inflammatory, and caused much excitement. Some of his propositions were strongly objected to. The Convention was still in session at last accounts.

A RUFIAN'S DEATH.—Col. Young, the leader and spokesman of the mob who visited the Lawrence District on the 30th of March last, and who gave the first vote, swearing at the same time that he was a resident of Kansas Territory, was mortally wounded in a fight with James Rollins, of Boone county, Missouri, recently. Rollins was killed.

VENERABLE LADIES GONE.—Mrs. Margaret Cameron, aged 102 years, and Mrs. Bethunia Stewart, aged 101 years, died in Burlington, N. J., during last June.

THE KNOW NOTHING STATE CONVENTION OF LOUISIANA has again repudiated the Catholic test. This will admit into the lodges American or native Catholics.
