Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1855

ADVERTISE.—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers as any in the state.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ One of the Chronicles expects to be at KLECKNER'S in New Berlin the first 3 days of Sept. Court, (next week,) where he would be happy to receive about $1000 on old accounts and any amount on new.

FARMING AND TIMBER LAND.—Some valuable Real Estate, improved and unimproved, situated in White Deer township, is offered for sale in to day's Chronicle.

☞ Also a small, desirable Farm (with Woodland) in Buffaloe township.

☞ Goldsmith & Brothers request us to state that they are unavoidably prevented from opening their Clothing Store &c until the 1st of next month.

"Another Change at New Berlin."—The Fling, it is stated in the Times, has changed hands, and is now directed by CHAS. CAWLEY, Esq.

Another Change.—Andrew J. Peters has disposed of the Wolfesound establishment to Frederick Smith, who has removed it to Middleburg. We see no account of the New Berlin "Union" Convention at Middleburg and conclude it was a failure.

☞ The New Berlin Times has come out for Mifflinburg for the county seat of Union, and is doing its little best to aid that 'burg.

MIDDLEBURG, we learn by their paper, has got a young man, 22 years old, who weighs 341 lbs.—a Dutch Bible,303 years old—and a Cornstalk, 15 feet high.—If these facts don't "fetch" the county seat, there is no use in having a printing-office there.

☞ The four Judges—Lewis, Black, Lowrie, and Woodward—have decided that Passmore Williamson shall remain in Moyamensing, until John K. Kane pleases to let him out. Judge Knox dissented from the decision, in a strong and manly opinion. Thus step by step is Slavery hastening on its suicide.

☞ The Star prates that the friends of Lewisburg will import votes from Northumberland county to carry the county site. Just so the Anti Divisionists pretended—but come to count the votes, they had increased 2 to our 1. So thieves oft try to hide themselves by crying, "Stop thief!"

☞ The "New York Musical Pioneer, and Choristers' Budget," is the name of a new monthly, published by F. J. Huntington, 23 Park Row, N. Y., at 50 cts. a year, or 40 cts. to clubs. Each No. contains 8 pages of original music. It is edited by Prof. Isaac B. Woodbury, whose name is a sufficient guarantee for its excellence.

☞ An academy for classical and general education has been organized at Eaglesmere, Sullivan county, Pennsylvania. JOHN N. LUKENS, graduate of the Lewisburg University, last session, Principal. The location is a beautiful and remarkable healthy region, among the mountains of Pennsylvania, at a distance from the influences and temptations of any town.

KELLY AHEAD YET!—We have a stalk of Corn, from Isaac Myers' farm, in Kelly township, measuring 15 feet 3 inches above ground. Who can beat that?

DEATH AMONG THE CATTLE.—A mortal disease has recently made its appearance among the cattle of Long Pond, on the mountain, about the conjunction of the county corners of Columbia, Sullivan and Luzerne, Pa. About two weeks since, in one day, they found twenty-seven dead cattle in the woods on the mountain! The disease by which so many have met their death is supposed to have originated from some impurities drank from the stagnant pools, without being accessible to any pure water.

The Burgess and Town Council of Selinsgrove have purchased a fire engine, for the payment of which a tax is to be levied upon the borough.

AUGUSTA, ME., Sept. 12.—The returns from 298 towns, give Wells, Dem., for Governor 40,073; Morrill, K. N. and Fusionist, 43,900; Reed, Whig, 9,306. Morrill loses in these towns 6,361, from last year, when he lacked 1,500 of a majority. (Wells is Anti-Maine Law.)

In the Senate, 21 of the 31 Senators elected are Democratic and Anti-Fusion. The House is 2 to 1 against Morrill.

Vermont Election.

MONTPELIER, Sept. 4.—Royce, the Republican Candidate, has been re-elected Governor by a handsome majority, and also the whole Fusion State ticket. The Know Nothing Republican party have carried the Legislature without a doubt. The contest was spirited and the vote large.

To the Whigs of Union County.

☞ We receive the Mifflinburg "STAR" after our form is ready for press, consequently too late to answer the same week.—The Editor of the Star we are informed not long since edited a German Democratic paper in York. He now has the Star, the old Whig Organ of Union Co., ostensibly to advocate Mifflinburg interests. Last week he noticed the action of the Democratic Convention at New Berlin. This week he was furnished the results of the Whig Convention at Lewisburg, (see 1st page of this paper,) BUT HE HAS SUPPRESSED ALL NOTICE OF IT. (This is the treatment the Whig readers of the old Whig Star receive from its "neutral" Democratic Editor.) ☞ But he has inserted a call—four days only previous—for a Whig meeting at New Berlin, to do just what was done last Saturday, "inter alia" purposes."—How much authority an ANONYMOUS call four days beforehand in a paper controlled by a Democrat, is, to good sensible Whigs, each one must determine for himself. If the "other purposes" are honest, why not name them? and why not give general notice, a few weeks beforehand?—The whole thing looks like a design to open and continue the dissensions in the Whig party, for some selfish or sectional ends.

DIED—On Sunday, the 9th of September, at half past nine o'clock, Mrs. MARY MARIA GESSNER, aged thirty three years, consort of Francis Joseph Gessner. On the same day, at half past ten o'clock, FRANCIS JOSEPH GESSNER, aged thirty six years—both of the Dysentery.

Mr. Gessner with his family emigrated from Dutchboine, Bavaria, in 1849. He lived awhile in New York, and afterwards removed to Centre county, about two miles from Bellefonte, where he supported himself by making shoes. A gentleman discovering that he had musical talents, employed him to give music lessons to his family; and by this means he was introduced to other families, and also wards removed to Bellefonte. Of the few thousand dollars he brought with him he was cheated by selling to counterfeiters already after he arrived. In 1850 he removed to Middleburg, where for last ended ever since. Here, indeed, he had to lack of employment as a music teacher. He was, in fact, starved, and this, I will positively affirm, by the neglect of that it could not withstand the attacks of the disease. He was Professor of Music in the Female Seminary, and had many private pupils. Three weeks ago those that then were well are now dead. They were in the prime of life, and the bloom of health—for last ended ever since. Here, indeed, he had to lack of employment as a music teacher. He was, in fact, starved, and this, I will positively affirm, by the neglect of that it could not withstand the attacks of the disease. He was Professor of Music in the Female Seminary, and had many private pupils. Three weeks ago those that then were well are now dead. They were in the prime of life, and the bloom of health—They died among strangers—strangers closed their eyes, and strangers buried them, and they left five young children in the midst of strangers. Yet, though strangers were to bind, they watched and every attention that love would prompt or affection suggest; and the children have already been provided for by adoption. There was scarce a family to whom they were not endeared by the strong tie of teacher and pupil, and kind and tender to their duty. Mrs. Gessner died about two hours before her death. A short time before her death she was carried to her bed, and on his coming in she replied, "I am coming dear husband." After her spirit had gone, she was carried, at his request, to his bedside to bid him. Taking her hand in his, and calling her by name, he said, "I will soon be with you." Then requesting the bystanders to carry her away, he sunk calmly to his rest, relinquishing his senses to the last.

When we consider how widespread is the spirit in which he moved, and with what tenderness he was mourned, we may imagine the pain his departure will cause. And the sincere sympathy we extend to his widow and his children will be no mockery.

The funeral of both took place at two o'clock, P. M., on Monday. An address by Prof. Rauch was delivered in the M. E. church, which was crowded to overflowing. From the procession to the grave, which Mr. Gessner was leader—and with a band of music he was as fit a one as ever delighted at any time, round to the cemetery. We must here honor the feelings and sympathy this sad party which would follow such a funeral to the last. He was interred according to the rites of [illegible]

On Sunday, the 9th inst., of consumption, child CATHARINE EMILINE, aged 15 years and 10 months, and on Monday, the 10th inst., of Laryngitis, WILLIAM HENRY, aged 11 years and 11 month, children of Maj. Henry W. Fries, of this place.—Repo.

In Hartley Tp., on the inst. ALICE, daughter of Philip and Sarah M. Hartzog, of Lewisburg, aged 3 years, 2 months and 10 days.

In Hartleton Borough, 7th inst., Mrs. MARY L. wife of Andrew Dellinger, in the 42d year of her age, 9 months. Formerly Miss Hyskell, of Lewisburg, where her remains were taken for interment.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

We are in daily receipt of news of the terrible ravages of Yellow Fever at Portsmouth and Norfolk, Va., and, notwithstanding the great exodus of inhabitants fleeing from the scourge, the fever does not seem to abate in extent or virulence.—From 50 to 60 deaths occur daily at the latter place. The inhabitants are suffering from famine as well as fever, and their condition is truly awful. So many are dying, that there are not well ones enough to bury the dead; and women are frequently seen running through the streets crying, "Bury my poor husband!" Many remain unburied, and are putrifying, filling the air with malarious odors. Cows wander about the city, seemingly in search of lost mates, making the welkin echo with their melancholy lowing; while gangs of half-famished dogs take possession of the streets after nightfall, and render "night hideous" by their incessant yelping and howling!

The citizens of Baltimore, Philadelphia, Washington, New York, Pittsburg, Boston, and of other places, respond manfully to the call of the sufferers for assistance, and every necessity and comfort that humanity can supply, is being afforded them.

Would it not be well for the citizens of Lewisburg—who have ever been foremost in charitable deeds, and never turn a deaf ear to the call of the needy and distressed for relief—to call a meeting and add their mite to alleviate the suffering and distress of the inhabitants of these deeply scourged cities? We make the suggestion, and hope that some of our philanthropic citizens will take the matter in hand, and call a meeting for that purpose at an early day.

P. S.—Later accounts from Norfolk and Portsmouth, state that "small pox has been added to the horrors that envelope these two cities." The worst accounts of the ravages of the fever are confirmed, and now that loathsome disease, small pox, is stepping in to consummate the horrors of the pestilence. The distress of the inhabitants is most deplorable, and calls loudly the sympathy and aid of all humane persons.—Ib.

Judge Catron has written a letter to Attorney General Cushing, saying he will resist the President's action in removing him from the Kansas Supreme Court. He concludes his letter as follows:

"I must think, if the English language means anything, that the President has not the power or the right to remove the Judges of this Territory at his will and pleasure; and, as the Territorial Legislature has deemed it right and proper to express an opinion on the subject, which is contained in the resolutions herewith enclosed, I cannot consent to the action of the President, and I hereby give notice that I shall resist this action through the courts of the country."

A bereaved mother requests the papers throughout the country to publish the following:

A boy, James Nesbitt, now about seventeen years of age, left his mother, Mary Ann Nesbitt, nearly two years ago, to procure employment and assist in supporting his only surviving parent, who is an educated and intelligent lady in poor circumstances, and who is much distressed at the absence of her only son. Mrs. Nesbitt is residing in Erie, New York, and will be most thankful for any information about her lost boy."

THE CARS AND CONTROL!—The first passenger train on the Sunbury and Erie Railroad, containing a large number of the returning Niagara excursion party, passed over the road between Milton and Lewisburg, on the 9th inst. Regular trains will commence running between Milton and Northumberland on the 21st inst.

ANOTHER ATROCIOUS MURDER was committed in Wisconsin a few days ago, which will, in all probability, result in the lynching of the murderer, as that is the only way by which justice can be meted out in that State since the abolition of capital punishment, and the crime of murder made a nominal and bailable offence.

WINTER COMING.—On Saturday, 25th ult., snow fell in great flakes at St. Johnsbury and Danville, Vermont.

A PROTRACTED MEETING of the Methodist denomination is being held in their meeting house in this place.

☞ We hope that a small dose of Homœopathy for Mifflinburg want be "hard to take."

BALTIMORE, Sept. 11.—By the Norfolk boat this morning, we learn that forty deaths occurred there from fever on Sunday. There had been considerable diminution of the new cases.

At Portsmouth, on Sunday, there were six deaths.

Among the victims to the pestilence, are Drs. Marshal and Flease, of Baltimore; Dr. Craycroft, of Philadelphia; Dr. Smith, of Columbia, Pa., and Drs. Gough and Morse, of Richmond, all of whom died on Sunday. Dr. Balfour, of Norfolk, is also dead.

The fever has broken out at Suffolk, sixteen miles from Portsmouth. The people are flying in every direction.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 12.—The steamboat Georgia arrived this morning from Norfolk with dates up to noon, on yesterday. The deaths at Norfolk for the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock on Monday evening were 36. Up to noon on Tuesday but few cases or deaths had been reported at Norfolk.

At Portsmouth the panic was increasing. Twenty-two deaths had occurred during the 14 hours ending at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, and 26 occurred on Monday.

The Rev. Vernon Eskridge, U. S. Chaplain and his daughter, and the Rev. Jas. Chisholm, of the Episcopal Church, are all dead. The Rev. John Devlin, of the Catholic Church has had a relapse.

Out of a party of eleven physicians and nurses, who went down on the Georgia on the 29th of August, six are dead.

HONESDALE, Sept. 5.—The Democrats of Wayne county held their County Convention last night. The course of Gov. Reeder was endorsed, and the President denounced for removing him.

☞ REV. WM. LANE will preach his Farewell Sermon, in the Christian Chapel, Lewisburg, at 10 A. M. of Sunday next.

☞ The Executive Committee of the Union County Agricultural Society are requested to meet at the office of S. Weimer, Esq., in New Berlin, at 1 P.M. of first Court week, to make out the Committees of Judges. It is desirable that the names of all the Members be returned in order that the Officers may know who to appoint Judges. JACOB GUNDY, Pres.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, a certain Remedy for Dropsy.—Caroline Hutchinson (Alice Harrington in Europe), was 6 ft. 40 inches round the waist, and 5 ft. 6 in. in height, a bad case indeed of the Dropsy. That the water oozed through the pores of the skin, and thirty per day change of apparel became necessary. Every time his doctor called he expected to find him dead, and in fact gave his friends no hopes of his recovery; his sister, who had despised quack nostrums, and their soon produced a change for the better, in four weeks he was again attending to business, leaving the unsightly get rid of the disorder, and in the most excellent health and spirits. These Pills work wonders in liver and bilious complaints.

Mr. J. A. RHODES—Dear Sir: The box of medicine you sent me was duly received on the 19th of April. I have used one half of it, and so far the people that have used it are satisfied that it has cured them. It has certainly stopped the Ague in every one who has used it and six of the cases were of long standing.
