

The World Within.

Many tell us of the beauties of the world where a dew-droplet, Of the forest, rock, and fountain, Of the crystal stream and dell; Of the outward things that chain us, With a holy binding spell, Of the gentle world of kindness, That invites us—that is well.

A Story for Children.

There was once a farmer, who had a large field of corn; he ploughed it and planted the corn, and harrowed it and weeded it with great care, and his field he depended for the chief support of his family. But after he had worked hard, he saw the corn began to wither and droop for rain, and he began to have fears for his crop. He felt very sad, and went over every day to look at his corn, and see if there was any hope of rain.

THE VICTORY.—The Louisville Times states as an incident of the mob in that city, the following:

"A woman who attempted to save her husband, was pitched down stairs, breaking her neck and limbs so that she died. The mob, finding their game scarce, set the torch to the houses; the women fled—one who was fleeing with a young infant in her arms, was followed by a hard-hearted wretch, who was coming up, put the muzzle of the weapon to the child's head, fired, and bisected his brains over its mother's arms."

CATAPULT PREVENTED BY A CAT'S TAIL.—A small child of Thomas Murray, assistant freight agent of the Boston Railroad, while playing near a well in East Albany, N. Y., on Saturday afternoon, slipped, and was just on the eve of being precipitated into it, when the little one grasped the cat by the tail and held on to it, until the cries of the child brought assistance, when it was rescued. The cat was sitting on a log, and so death-like was its grasp that the print of its nails were easily detected in the log.

TRUE AS PREACHING.—A man famous for hunting up strange philosophies thus: "What strange creatures girls are! I offer one of them good wages to work for you, and ten chances to one if the old woman can spare any of her girls—but just propose matrimony, and see if they don't jump at the chance of working a lifetime just for their victuals and clothes."

WISDOM VERSUS PIERCE.—The Kansas Legislature, the other day, had a long discussion on the naming of a new county. The original name selected was "Fierce," but after a long and stormy discussion, in which the administration was severely handled, the word "Fierce" was stricken out and "Wise" substituted.

THE KANSAS LEGISLATURE has established the viva voce system of voting, similar to that in Virginia, and the inhabitants of each county are all to vote in one precinct.

SALAMANDER SAFES! EVANS & WATSON, No. 26 South Fourth St., Philadelphia. Great Fire at Chestnut & Fifth Sts. Friday morning, Dec. 15th, 1854.—EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMANDER SAFES TRIUMPHANT, as they always are when put to the test.

Patentees, Evans & Watson, Dec. 15, 1854. Gentlemen:—We take much pleasure in recommending your Salamander Safes to Merchants and others in want of a secure means of preserving their books, papers, &c. from fire. The same were purchased from you about seven months since, and have preserved our books, papers and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of this morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings, except the Chestnut & Fifth Streets. The above safe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and remained there until the fire was out. The safe was then removed and opened in the presence of all the 1000 persons who witnessed the good condition of its contents. Will you please have the safe and locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fire-proof qualities.

Yours, respectfully, LACEY & PHILLIPS. Evans & Watson take pleasure in referring to the following, among the many hundreds who have their safes in use: U. S. Mint, Philadelphia; Farmers' & Merchants' Bank, Philadelphia; S. M. Allen, Esq., 11th Street, Philadelphia; John N. HERRING'S Patent Chempion Fire-Proof SAFES, with HALL'S Patent Powder-Proof Locks, which were awarded separate Gold Medals at the World's Fair, London, 1851, and also at the World's Fair, New York, 1853 and 1854. The subscribers are the sole manufacturers and proprietors in this State of the above unequalled Safes and Locks. The reputation of these safes is so well known, that they have been used for the last thirty years by the mercantile community here, and have borne testimony to their never failing fire proof qualities. More than 12,000 of these Safes have been actually sold, and over 200,000 have passed triumphantly through accidental fires. The public are assured that all Safes manufactured by the subscribers are not only guaranteed to be fully equal, but in many respects superior to those which have been so severely tried by fire. Few will forget their services in the burning of the "Tribune establishment," New York, and at the Great Fire in Strawberry Street, at the large fire last July, opposite the Grand Hotel, and still more recently in the Fire at Fifth and Chestnut Sts. in this city, in which the Safes came forth the acknowledged CHAMPION, when many other securities failed.
