FRIDAY MORNING, OCT. 5, 1855

ADVERTIZE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics, Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

A West Buffaloe, Valley FARM, is offered for sale.

GOLDSMITHS have opened out a rich and varied assortment of Clothing &c. suitable to the season, at their new Establishment, below Yoder's Jewelry Store.

FITZPATRICK, 24 door from Beaver & Kremer's, N. 3d St., expect a first instalment of Glassware to-day.

The Schools.

The present week, the young men and ladies—ignorant of the Mifflinburgers' wise and disinterested warnings—have been pouring into Lewisburg from all quarters, to attend the Winter Sessions of our College—Female Institute—and Academy. We wish them each and all a pleasant and profitable session.

Miss ROBINSON is appointed Teacher of Music in the Lewisburg Female Institute, and has entered upon the duties of the station. There was a large number of candidates for the vacancy, occasioned by the decease of the lamented GLESNER.

☞ The Weekly American Whig is a purely Whig paper, recently started at Harrisburg by George Bergner. It supports Thomas Nicholson for Canal Commissioner.

☞ Wm. Smith, Esq., having declined on account of private business, the Whig nomination for Register & Recorder of Snyder County, Frederick Mertz of Centerville in nominated in his stead.

☞ The Americans of Juniata have nominated Dr. Crawford for Assembly. The Councils of Union and Snyder counties have made no nominations.

☞ Yesterday's Philadelphia mail was carelessly thrown off at Danville, and we are consequently one day behindhand with the papers.

MORE CORN.—George Sheer, of Buffaloe Tp., brings us in a stock of corn, with two superior ears, but a little short of the Kelly and Lewisburg corn in length.

Great Cry and Little Wool!

We stated, two or three months ago, that the friends of Mifflinburg had gone over into Northumberland county, to see how many they could get to protest against annexation to Union. They have scoured the county, to get names, and in many cases have resorted to falsehood and deception to obtain them. They have obtained—by begging hard, and lying harder, 178 names to their precious document, after long weeks of effort, and have kept it concealed, or smuggled around at privater meetings, until this week, when it appears in the Mifflinburg Star, but too late to rebut it in full. We copy the heading of the article:

"Having understood, with surprise, that a PETITION has been put in circulation in the upper end of this county, by some interested persons of Lewisburg, for the purpose of having our county divided, and connected with Union county," &c.

One Hundred and Seventy-Eight names out of Eight or Ten Thousand! But, ☞ NO SUCH "PETITION" HAS BEEN CIRCULATED. It is a Mifflinburg trick, got up on a pretence to get remonstrances out. It is signed by a few merchants, politicians, and office seekers, principally of Milton. Out of 8,000 or 10,000 people, 178 names were gotten by fraud to a falsehood! O ye Mifflinburgers! you made a great haul! Why, we have got more names than that, from one township over the River, certifying that, in case the County Seat is fixed at Lewisburg, they WILL THEN PETITION to be annexed to Union county. We know of men of influence, in Milton and all the four upper townships, who openly declare that in case Lewisburg becomes the county seat, they will come here. Some of the rival business men, especially in Milton, are stoutly opposed, but we have reason to believe THAT THE GREAT MASS OF THE PEOPLE ARE WITH US, and desire the success of Lewisburg on Tuesday next.

The Grand Jury in the Burlington County Court, have presented a bill of indictment against Israel Adams, engineer of the train at the time the late accident occurred Questioning Candidates.

☞ In last week's Chronicle, appeared the annexed Interrogatories, and copies of the paper were forwarded to the gentlemen addressed:

Questions.

To Messrs. Daniel D. Guldin & L. F. Albright.

Gentlemen: As you are both candidates for the office of Sheriff of Union county, and as there appears to be a misunderstanding in the public mind as regards your vote and influence on the question of the County Seat, we request you to make known through the "Chronicle," how your votes and influence will go on this question.

Sept. 24, 1855. MANY VOTERS.

To John Schrack, John V. Barber, and Philip Kuhl, Esquires.

You being all candidates for the office of Judge of our county, and it is urged against you in some quarters that you are advocating one place for the seat of justice, and others assert that you are for the other place. We therefore ask you to come out over your own name, in the next papers, and state whether you will vote for Mifflinburg or for Lewisburg for county Seat, and much oblige MANY.

To John V. Barber, Esq.

SIR—Your Lewisburg organ has questioned Col. Runk as to his connection with this alleged secret Anti-Liquor-Law League—thus indicating, that you are again to be run in Lewisburg as a Temperance candidate.

The example being thus set, we desire to ask you how much you paid a certain distiller near Mifflinburg for liquor used in gaining you votes in 1853? How many liquor sellers received your money, from yourself or friends in that campaign? How many innkeepers have you told, the present year, that if you were elected and anybody had a license they should have it? Is not the secret order to which you belong, zealously engaged in promoting your election?

These things are charged against you. If not true, please employ the columns of the Chronicle to deny them. Your refusal to reply, will be taken as a confession of the charges. HONESTY.

Answers.

[The annexed are all the replies that we have received:]

MESSRS EDITORS: In glancing over the Chronicle of the 28th ult., I observed myself (amongst others) called upon to state what place I intend to cast my vote for, at the coming election, for County Seat. In reply, I would say that being (as it is well known) situated so near Lewisburg, my own interest will of course be to go for that place, and have never expressed myself otherwise, but intend, if I am spared till the election, to cast my vote for Lewisburg, at the same time granting this privilege to all other persons to vote for their own interest.

JOHN SCHRACK.

East Buffaloe, Oct. 1, 1855.

MESSRS EDITORS: I observe in the Chronicle of the 28th ult., a communication addressed to myself and Mr. Guldin, signed "Many Voters," calling upon us to make known through the Chronicle where our votes and influence will go for the Seat of Justice of Union County. The communication referred to is addressed to Mr. Guldin and myself jointly. I can only reply individually. My vote, if I live until the election, will be for Lewisburg for the Seat of Justice; and as regards influence, so far as our township is concerned, it requires no influence to be exerted, as the people I think, will almost unanimously vote for Lewisburg. "Live or die, survive or perish," elected or defeated, I go for Lewisburg for the Seat of Justice.

L. F. ALBRIGHT.

White Deer, Oct. 1, 1855.

For the Lewisburg Chronicle.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I observe, by the last Mifflinburg Star, an attempt to palm on the people of this county that corporate subscriptions can be made to the Northern Central Railway Company, on the ground that such power was given to the Susquehanna Railroad Company previous to the consolidation, and the writer (in the Star) cites the 2d section of the consolidated act, which reads thus: "That all acts of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania heretofore made and not repealed or modified, relating to either of the said companies, shall be binding upon the said consolidated company, so far as its property or its operations may be within the jurisdiction of this State, and so far as the same may be applicable to and consistent with the new organization of the said consolidated company."

Now there is no power given in said section or any other part of the act to make subscription to the consolidated company, and of course none can hereafter be made to the Susquehanna company, as it is now merged into the consolidated company; because it would be "inconsistent" with the new organization inasmuch as the consolidated company would have no authority to accept such subscription or issue bonds in payment therefor. What was to be binding on the consolidated company was the acts of General Assembly of this State "so far as its property or its operations may be within the jurisdiction of the State." Now the meaning of this is that the consolidation should not impair any lien existing against either company before the consolidation or exempt any property belonging to such company from the payment of debts contracted prior to the consolidation, or release them from any engagement entered into prior to the consolidation, but no power is given by said act, to secure corporate subscriptions after the consolidation (which has taken place). Any subscription that had been made and bonds given prior to the act of 34 of May, 1854, the consolidated company will be liable for; and if any such exist the company are ready and willing to pay. The 1st section of said act expressly provides that the consolidated company shall adopt and assume all liabilities of the respective companies. JUVENIS 3D.

Senator Douglass has made a public speech at St. Louis, denouncing all interference by Congress in the local affairs of the Territories! This is a new doctrine by which the outrages of the Missouri mob are to be shielded if possible!

ELECTION DAY. TUESDAY NEXT.

LEWISBURG AHEAD IN GRAIN DRILLS!—At the State Fair in Harrisburg last week, there were eleven Grain and Seed Drills in competition. The premium is a splendid Silver Medal.

The course of instruction is calculated to fit Youths for College or for general business.

The BIBLE is a text book, and COMPOSITION and DECLAMATION receive careful attention. PROFICIENCY in RECITATION of Studies is rewarded by the bestowment of COMPLIMENTARY CARDS.

A class of YOUNG LADIES is secured.

The present Session affords a good opportunity for young men who are engaged part of the year and who purpose devoting the Winter months to their own improvement. Those desirous of obtaining good seats should be present the first day and secure them.

Tuition.—FOR COMMON BRANCHES (Reading, Writing Geography, Arithmetic, Grammar and U.S. History) $6; ADVANCED ENGLISH (all not named above) $8; and for LANGUAGES $10—Contingent expenses per Session, 50 cts per scholar. No deductions except for protracted sickness. JNO. RANDOLPH, Sept. 21, 1855 Principal.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS will cure any disease of the skin of the longest standing.—William Frederick Anderson, of Yorkin, South Carolina, offered for a long time from eruptions on the skin, his face, arms, and legs were covered with little pimples and sores of a scrofulic nature—for the cure of this unsightly and painful disfigurement, he tried a variety of remedies, which failed to benefit him. At last he tried Holloway's ointment and Pills, which very soon produced a favorable change, and by a few weeks' perseverance with those remedies, he was completely cured. This famous Ointment will cure ulcers and old wounds of twenty years standing.

A Complete Cure for Ague!

THE very extensive prevailing condition of this disease, and the fact that it is not known to the public that the undersigned is able to CURE AGUE, has induced him to make known to the public that he uses a preparation in use by no less than 2,000 American Eclectic Physicians called Restorative Wine Bitters. This preparation acts on the Liver, Spleen, Stomach, Kidneys, indeed on the whole system, and brings it into a healthy and vigorous condition. Now when the whole system is brought into a perfect state of health, it is impossible for Ague to occur, which generally attacks the feeble, or those whose constitution has been broken by some cause. This can generally be done by our Restorative, and almost every case completely cured. Of course no disease can be cured that a man may not take it again, but we mean cured and brought into the same healthy condition as one that never had this disease, cured for this season of the person observes the laws of life and health.

N B. This medicine should be taken from 3 to 5 weeks, dose a tablespoonful 3 or 4 times a day, price of quart bottle $1.

Now if you are no friend of the Ague you will call and be cured. Lower end of Market St. Lewisburg. M. H. DERSHAM, M. D.

My sister, who has had it for five years, and has tried every thing she got it stopped entirely by Quinine, and then only as long as she would take it, is now, I think, entirely cured by your remedy.
